ANNEX I

Note dated 9 January 1970 prepared by the Secretariat on Southern Rhodesian trade for 1968 and January-June 1969 together with statistical data

Trade in 1968

S. Rhodesian Exports

1. S. Rhodesia reported exports in 1968 (excluding gold) amounting to $256 million (compared with $264 million in 1967), but provided no information as to the direction and nature of these exports. Using import statistics of the countries reported in appendix I, the S. Rhodesian exports can be distributed as follows (in million US dollars): Zambia 32, Federal Republic of Germany 13, Malawi 13, Portugal 4 (January-June), Switzerland 3, United States 2, France 1, Belgium-Luxembourg 1, Japan 1, Netherlands 1, and together with other countries shown in appendix I make an estimated total of about $75 million (compared with $107 million in 1967). In addition to these, it has been estimated that South Africa received S. Rhodesian exports amounting to about $80 million (compared with $80 million in 1967). If the stated figures of S. Rhodesian exports are accepted, it would appear that some $100 million of S. Rhodesian exports have not been reflected in the corresponding 1968 import figures of world trade (the corresponding difference in 1967 is in the region of $80 million). These exports are believed to have reached world markets via S. Rhodesia's neighbouring countries and to have been reflected in world trade as imports of the reporting countries from these neighbouring countries.

S. Rhodesian Imports

2. S. Rhodesia reported imports of $290 million (compared with $262 million in 1967). Using export statistics of the countries presented in appendix II, S. Rhodesian imports can be distributed as follows (in million US dollars): Federal Republic of Germany 13, Australia 6, Japan 5, Netherlands 3, Switzerland 3, France 2, United States 2, United Kingdom 2, Malawi 3, Belgium-Luxembourg 1, Italy 1, Austria 1, Portugal 1 (January-June), Zambia 1 and together with other countries shown in appendix II, make a total of about $44 million (compared with $65 million in 1967). It has been estimated that, in addition to the reporting countries, a large part of the remainder was imports from South Africa.

Trade in January-June 1969

3. The data made available to the Secretary-General by the reporting countries (see appendix I) show that the imports into these countries from S. Rhodesia amounted to about $25 million in the first half of 1969 (compared with $75 million in the year 1968 and $362 million in the year 1965). The countries accounting for the greater part of these imports were (in million US dollars): Zambia 8.2 (January-March), Malawi 5.8, Switzerland 1.5, Federal Republic of Germany 0.5 and Belgium-Luxembourg 0.2. Where explanations for these imports are available, they are shown in the notes to the tables of appendix II and III.

4. Exports of the reporting countries to S. Rhodesia (see appendix II) amounted to about $8 million in the first half of 1969 (compared with $44 million in the year 1968 and $215 million in the year 1965). Countries accounting for the greater part of these exports were (in million US dollars): Australia 2.6, France 1.1, Malawi 1.1, United Kingdom 1.0, Switzerland 0.7, Federal Republic of Germany 0.6 and United States 0.3.

Tobacco

5. The most important S. Rhodesian export commodity is tobacco, exports of which amounted to $132 million in 1965. Normally S. Rhodesian exports of tobacco accounted for approximately 13 per cent of all world exports of unmanufactured tobacco and over 25 per cent of flue-cured tobacco. The recorded imports of the reporting countries amounting to $1 million in the first half of 1969 were accounted for by Federal Republic of Germany ($0.3 million), Switzerland ($0.4 million), Belgium-Luxembourg ($0.2 million) and Netherlands ($0.1 million). The corresponding imported quantity of tobacco was 1.1 thousand metric tons. In 1968 the recorded imports of the reporting countries amounted to $4.0 million and in terms of quantities these imports accounted for only 4.0 thousand metric tons of tobacco which was a small fraction of the tobacco crop of S. Rhodesia.

6. It will be noted from the data in appendix III to this document that the increases of tobacco imports of the reporting countries from the neighbouring countries of S. Rhodesia in 1968 over the level of the previous year are of magnitudes which called for investigation. For this reason, a comprehensive analysis was made, in terms of quantities, of the imports of the reporting countries from the neighbours of S. Rhodesia, namely, Mozambique, Malawi, Zambia, Angola and also South Africa (which is not a reporting country) compared with corresponding exports of these neighbouring countries by direction. This analysis revealed that:

- (a) The reporting countries registered 13.2 thousand tons of tobacco in 1968 as imports from South Africa. South Africa's exports to these reporting countries, however, were only 10.0 thousand tons.
- (b) The reporting countries registered 27.5 thousand tons of tobacco in 1968 as imports from Malawi, Angola, Mozambique and Zambia, whose corresponding exports to the reporting countries in question can be estimated approximately as 18 thousand tons.
- (c) South Africa may have imported in 1968 about 3.9 thousand tons of tobacco from S. Rhodesia. Only a small part of this quantity appears to have been re-exported by South Africa and reflected in its trade statistics.

It appears that the excess of the imports of the reporting countries from the neighbours of S. Rhodesia over the corresponding exports of these neighbours represents the amount of S. Rhodesian tobacco that was able to reach world markets. In 1968, therefore, it appears that S. Rhodesian exports of tobacco amounted to 20.6 thousand tons of which only 4.0, as stated in paragraph 5, were reflected in the trade statistics of the reporting countries as coming from S. Rhodesia. Similar analysis for the period January-June 1969 is not possible at this time.

7. Relating the 1968 exports of tobacco of S. Rhodesia to its 1968 crop of 60 thousand tons, the stock being held in the country would amount to about 39 thousand tons. This figure compares with the corresponding annual surplus stock of the crops of 1967 and 1966 estimated in the same way as described above as 62 thousand tons in each of the two years (the production figures for 1967 and 1966 crops were 90 and 110 thousand tons respectively). These estimates of surplus stock appear to agree with what can be inferred from statements emanating from the S. Rhodesian regime.

Asbestos

8. The next most important commodity is asbestos, S. Rhodesian exports of which amounted to $30 million in 1965. In the first half of 1969, there were no imports from S. Rhodesia by the reporting countries. In 1968, the recorded imports of the reporting countries amounted to $1.7 million (compared with $24 million in the year 1965, and $3.4 million in 1967). This amount was accounted for by the Federal Republic of Germany ($1.2 million) and the United States ($0.5 million). The United States explained its imports as shipments before 16 December 1966, the effective date of resolution 232 (1966). Similar to the case for S. Rhodesian tobacco, there appear to be strong possibilities that S. Rhodesia is sending asbestos to world markets via its neighbouring countries, chiefly South Africa. In these circumstances, an analysis was made (in terms of quantities) of the imports of the reporting countries from South Africa together with the corresponding exports of South Africa for the period 1965 to Jan-June 1969. The results of the analysis are shown in table I below:

1/ Estimated on the basis of value data; the official quantity figure of 128.8 thousand metric tons appears to be a printing error.

2/ Estimate based on five months data.

9. It will be noted from Table I above that, while the imports for 1965 agreed, by and large, with the corresponding exports, those for 1966 and 1967 exceeded the corresponding exports by 20 and 85 thousand tons respectively. For 1968 imports of the reporting countries exceeded South African exports by 92 thousand tons. In view of the fact that the exports of South Africa are consistent with the amount of asbestos it produced, these excesses of imports may possibly be exports of S. Rhodesian asbestos via South Africa. By incorporating this information with other elements relating to S. Rhodesian exports, the overall situation may be summarised as below:

Table II

Chrome Ore

10. The chief importer of S. Rhodesia's chrome ore has been, traditionally, the United States, to which S. Rhodesia sent $5 million worth of chrome ore out of total exports of $10.7 million in 1965. In 1967, the United States imported $3.4 million worth of chrome ore which was explained by the authorities as goods shipped from S. Rhodesia before 16 December 1966, and in 1968 imports of S. Rhodesian chrome ore appear to have virtually ceased.

In these circumstances, the possibility of S. Rhodesian chrome ore being exported to the neighbouring countries was investigated. For this purpose an analysis was made (in terms of gross quantities) of the imports of the reporting countries from South Africa together with the corresponding exports of South Africa for the period 1964 to Jan-June 1969. The results of the analysis are shown in Table III below:

11. It will be noted that, for 1964, total imports and exports agree well; for 1965 and 1966, the sum of the total imports and exports for the two years also agree well, but imports exceeded exports by 128 thousand tons in 1967 and 12 thousand tons in 1968. These differences raise the possibility that they are of S. Rhodesian origin. However, the estimate of South African exports for the first half of 1969 shows an excess of more than 100 thousand tons over the corresponding imports claimed by the reporting countries. This phenomenon needs investigation.

12. In table IV below production of chrome ore in South Africa is compared with its exports and imports.

Table IV
Chrome Ore in South Africa
(thousand metric tons gross)

	Production	Imports	Exports

1967	1 149	30	657
1968	1 153	23	817

It is known that the demand for chrome ore in South Africa has been expanding continuously in recent years. While domestic production of the ore was expanding during 1964-1967, the rate of increase of production however did not seem to be sufficient to meet the demand for increased exports as well as for the expanding domestic requirements. It was necessary therefore to import more chrome ore from S. Rhodesia during 1965 and 1966 than previously in order to fulfill the export commitment and domestic demand. It was against this background that South Africa in 1967, appeared to have cut its exports to satisfy domestic needs. Despite the growing domestic requirements and the stability of production South African exports since 1967 have been substantially increased reaching an unprecedented annual rate of 1140 thousand tons in 1969,

-a figure which approximates to South Africa's total annual production. It is conceivable, therefore, that substantial amounts of S. Rhodesian ore may have been taken in since 1967 to supplement the short-fall of domestic requirements. This ore taken in by South Africa however did not appear to be registered as imports in South African trade statistics. As shown in table IV above, the amount of ore recorded as imports (implicitly from S. Rhodesia) decreased to an insignificant amount since 1967, a statistical phenomenon that requires explanation since it is not compatible with the increasing demand in South Africa combined with the heavy exports. Although data on stocks of chrome ore in South Africa are not available, it is not likely that a sizeable accumulated stock could have made recent heavy exports possible if the low level of exports in 1967 could be taken as an indication that chrome ore was in short supply in South Africa.

13. The overall situation of S. Rhodesian trade in chrome ore can then be summarized as below:

Table V

Chrome ore situation in S. Rhodesia
(in thousand metric tons gross)

	1964	1965	1966	1967	1968	Jan-June 1969

Total exports of S. Rhodesia	471	502	329	324	76 ^{1/}	21 ^{1/}

^{1/} If the unrecorded imports of South Africa described in paragraph 12 above were included, the figure would probably be over 200 thousand tons in 1968 and over 150 thousand tons in Jan-June 1969.

Copper

14. S. Rhodesia's copper exports in 1965 amounted to $18.3 million. Of this amount, $10.6 million were exports to the Federal Republic of Germany, $1.8 million to Poland, $1.5 million to the United Kingdom, $1.4 million to Italy, $1 million to West Malaysia, and $2 million were distributed among other countries. The recorded imports of the reporting countries amounted to $19 million in 1966, $11 million in 1967 and $10 million in 1968. The reporting countries show only $1 thousand worth of copper imports from S. Rhodesia in the first half of 1969. Since the adoption of resolution 232 on 16 December 1966, the Federal Republic of Germany appeared to be the sole importer of S. Rhodesian copper in 1967 and 1968.

15. In terms of quantities, the annual curtailment of S. Rhodesian copper exports for 1966-1968 was gradual, namely from a level in 1965 of 18.4 thousand metric tons to 13.3 in 1966, 10.0 in 1967 and 7.8 in 1968. In view of the fact that both South Africa and Zambia are heavy exporters of copper and that both, in varying degrees, together with S. Rhodesia, use the transport facilities in Mozambique, it is very difficult to determine the true situation.

16. Other important commodities exported by S. Rhodesia are meat and meat products, sugar, hides, skins and leather, iron ore and pig iron. Imports of these commodities into the reporting countries from S. Rhodesia in the first half of 1969 amounted to $1.0 million (compared with $48 million in the year 1965 and $5.7 million in the year 1968). Because of the small magnitude of the trade involved in each commodity it is not possible to make a comprehensive analysis for each commodity. The difficulty lies in the fact that South Africa and some of the other neighbours are much more important exporters of most of these same commodities. As in the case of copper, it is possible for S. Rhodesia to export at least some part of these commodities under false declarations, using its neighbours as the origin of these goods. In these circumstances, the inflation of the imports recorded by importing countries in comparison with the corresponding exports of S. Rhodesia's neighbours would probably not be marked enough to draw any meaningful conclusion. In addition to the possibility described above, South Africa is understood, based on the statistical information relating to its overall "imports from Africa", to be taking significant amounts of these commodities as imports. These imports are estimated to be at the level of $2 million worth of meat and meat products annually for 1967 and 1968, $1 million of sugar, $4-6 million of pig iron. Furthermore, it is conceivable that, on account of the heavy traffic of ocean transport via Mozambique and South Africa since the closure of the Suez Canal, demand on meats and other provisions in the form of ships' stores could have provided an important outlet for the produce of S. Rhodesia. Indeed, available statistics regarding South African meat in the form of ships' stores registered important increases in recent periods. It is possible that S. Rhodesia, whose produce is more competitive, may very well have benefited from the expansion of this market.

Maize

17. S. Rhodesia normally produced about 850 thousand metric tons of maize mainly for domestic consumption. Its exports and imports of this commodity were insignificant. As a result, however, of the regime's attempts to encourage agricultural diversification to compensate for the reduction in tobacco exports due to sanctions, there has been a substantial increase in the acreage under maize. Based on the most recent information on an annual production of 950 thousand metric tons in 1966, it is estimated that the amounts produced in 1967 and 1968 could perhaps reach as high as 1.3 and 1.1* million tons respectively. Against the annual domestic requirement of 850 thousand metric tons, these figures would mean that S. Rhodesia should have a stock of 700 thousand tons from crops harvested in 1967 and 1968 available for export. Indeed such an amount, as available evidence indicates, could have been shipped out via Mozambique.

18. Mozambique normally produced about 150 thousand tons of maize also mainly for domestic consumption. In 1965 it imported 43 thousand tons (7 thousand in 1966) to supplement the locally-produced maize for domestic consumption, estimated to be about 180 thousand tons per annum. Nothing was imported during 1967 and 1968 according to official published sources. There had been practically no exports of maize until 1967 in which year 25 thousand tons were sent to Portugal. During the year 1968 Mozambique reported exports of 122 thousand tons to the following three countries : 99 thousand tons to

*. Because of adverse seasonal factors maize production was reduced substantially in 1968 from the 1967 level.

Portugal, 11 thousand tons to the Netherlands and 12 thousand tons to the United Arab Republic. However, a detailed study of import data published by maize-importing countries revealed the following :

Table VI

19. It will be noted from the data shown above that by comparing the aggregate amount of the imports of maize supposedly of Mozambique origin received by the importing countries during the period 1967-1968 (approximately one million tons) with the amount of exports reported by Mozambique (122 thousand tons), there is a gap of about 878 thousand tons for the period, which may be maize exported by S. Rhodesia via Mozambique.

20. A similar study of South Africa's trade in maize revealed substantial agreement between the exports recorded in South Africa's trade returns and the imports reported by reporting countries as shown below :

^{3/} Imports from South Africa received by reporting countries.

21. Substantial agreement is also revealed by study of the trade in maize of Angola and Malawi.

22. Summarizing the export situation of S. Rhodesia, it is recalled (paragraph 1) that about $100 million of the officially reported exports of S. Rhodesia in 1968 are believed to have reached world markets via neighbouring countries. The findings described in the preceding paragraphs suggest that the analysis by commodities of these $100 million would be as follows :

Tobacco, asbestos, chrome ore and copper	$45 million
Maize	20
Meats, meat products, sugar, hides, skins and leather, iron ore and pig iron	20
Miscellaneous (unspecified)	15
	$100 million

No analysis of this sort is possible, at this time, for the period January-June 1969.

23. Exports of the reporting countries to S. Rhodesia of the four commodity groups specified in resolution 232 (1966), paragraph 2(d) - (f), namely motor vehicles and their parts, petroleum products, crude petroleum and aircraft and their parts amounted to approximately $1.1 million in the first half of 1969 (compared with $36 million in the year 1965, $1.2 million in the year 1967 and $0.3 million in the year 1968).

Motor vehicles and their parts

24. Among the four commodity groups, motor vehicles and their parts are the most important group. In the first half of 1969 the reporting countries exported $1.1 million of these commodities to S. Rhodesia (compared with $34 million in the year 1965, $6.1 million in the year 1966, $1.0 million in the year 1967 and $0.2 million in the year 1968).

25. There appears to be a strong possibility that S. Rhodesia may be receiving motor vehicles and their parts through neighbouring countries. This possibility is strengthened by the fact that S. Rhodesia is maintaining its exporting pattern of this commodity group to its neighbouring countries. Malawi, for instance, reported annual imports of $0.5 million from S. Rhodesia of motor vehicles and their parts during 1967-1968 (compared with $1.3 million in 1965). For this reason, an analysis was made (in terms of value ^{1/}) of the exports of the reporting countries to S. Rhodesia and also to Mozambique, Angola and Zambia together with the corresponding imports by the above mentioned countries from the reporting countries. The results of the analysis are shown in Tables VIII and IX below :

Table VIII

^{1/} It is not possible to make a comprehensive study in terms of quantities because of the heterogeneous nature of this group of commodities. Countries use different units of quantity to express the physical volume of imports and exports.

26. It may be noted from the tables above that in the year 1965 exports agree well with the corresponding imports. However, in the years 1966, 1967 and 1968 exports exceeded the corresponding imports by $26, $10 and $23 million respectively.

27. The figures quoted above would indicate that approximately $20 million worth of motor vehicles and their parts, not officially designating S. Rhodesia as the actual destination, could have reached S. Rhodesian markets yearly. Furthermore, South Africa (not a reporting country) traditionally exported a substantial amount of motor vehicles and their parts to S. Rhodesia. The amount of $2.2 million was reported by S. Rhodesia for 1965. Although South Africa has not released a meaningful analysis by country of destination for this commodity group since 1964, a study of its partner countries' data makes it possible to estimate the approximate amount that S. Rhodesia has received from South Africa.

29. As to petroleum supplies to S. Rhodesia, no meaningful evaluation of the situation is possible from the data reported by the reporting countries listed in the annex. It is known, however, that, following the closure of the only S. Rhodesian refinery at Umtali in January 1966, no imports of crude petroleum are required. Iran, Bahrain and Saudi Arabia were normal major suppliers of petroleum products not only to S. Rhodesia but also to South Africa, Mozambique and Angola. However, based on available statistics, there is indication that major sources of supply of these commodities to S. Rhodesia were shifted to South Africa in the period 1966-1968. It is estimated that between $30-$35 million worth of fuel was exported by South Africa to S. Rhodesia in these three years against a normal requirement of about $45-$50 million.

30. In evaluating the import pattern of S. Rhodesian trade for the periods following the application of economic sanctions it is not possible to give an overall analysis as comprehensive as in the case for its export pattern for the reason that S. Rhodesia's exports are concentrated in a few primary commodities while its imports are much more diversified. For instance, the export commodities discussed in this note accounted for 59 per cent of the total S. Rhodesian exports in 1965 while the four import commodities discussed in the preceding paragraphs accounted for only 16 per cent. of total S. Rhodesian imports in 1965. It appears, however, as evidenced in the case for motor vehicles and their parts, that most of the import trade of S. Rhodesia is oriented through South Africa.

- 5/ "The Swiss importer is authorized to make use of his yearly quota any time of the year, e.g., in the early months of the year 1967. The quotas are compounded on the basis of the average import quantity of the commodity during the previous three years. Fluctuations are furthermore possible between the years, as the use of a yearly quota requested in December may only appear in the trade statistics of the first three months of the following year, the reason being that the import licences granted within the quota are generally valid for three months."

FLUCTUATIONS ARE FURTHERMORE POSSIBLE BETWEEN THE YEARS, AS THE USE OF A YEARLY QUOTA REQUESTED IN DECEMBER MAY ONLY APPEAR IN THE TRADE STATISTICS OF THE FIRST THREE MONTHS OF THE FOLLOWING YEAR, THE REASON BEING THAT THE IMPORT LICENCES GRANTED WITHIN THE QUOTA ARE GENERALLY VALID FOR THREE MONTHS.

3/ REFERS TO TRADE WITH THE FEDERATION OF RHODESIA AND NYASALAND.

* TOTAL EXPORTS OF SOUTHERN RHODESIA, IN 1965, TO ALL DESTINATIONS (IN THOUSAND US$) 131 511.

1/ REFERS TO TRADE WITH THE FEDERATION OF RHODESIA AND NYASALAND.

2/ REPRESENTS INDIRECT SHIPMENT THAT ARRIVED IN THE UNITED STATES IN DECEMBER 1966. STATISTICAL ENTRY WAS DELAYED UNTIL JANUARY 1967.

3/ ONLY IMPORTS FROM WAREHOUSES OF THE SURVEY AREA ORIGINATING FROM THE 1965 HARVEST OR EARLIER HARVESTS.

4/ THESE IMPORTS ARISE FROM THE FACT THAT PRIOR TO THE ADOPTION OF SECURITY COUNCIL RESOLUTION 232, CONSIDERABLE QUANTITIES OF RHODESIAN TOBACCO WERE HELD BY DUTCH IMPORTERS AND TOBACCO MANUFACTURERS IN BONDED STORAGE IN VARIOUS PORTS OUTSIDE RHODESIA. SINCE THESE STOCKS CONSIST OF TOBACCO EXPORTED FROM SOUTHERN RHODESIA PRIOR TO DECEMBER 16, 1966, THE PROVISIONS OF RESOLUTION 232 DO NOT APPLY TO THEM. THIS TOBACCO IS ONLY GRADUALLY TAKEN OUT OF BONDED STORAGE ACCORDING TO THE NEEDS OF THE TOBACCO INDUSTRY. AS SUCH STOCKS ARE STILL CONSIDERABLE, IT IS TO BE EXPECTED THAT THEY WILL NOT BE EXHAUSTED BEFORE THE END OF 1967 AND POSSIBLY EVEN LATER. THE NETHERLANDS GOVERNMENT HAS TAKEN STRICT MEASURES TO ENSURE THAT ONLY RHODESIAN TOBACCO EXPORTED FROM THAT TERRITORY BEFORE DECEMBER 16, 1966, CAN BE IMPORTED INTO THE NETHERLANDS.

5/ JANUARY - JUNE (IN THOUSAND US$) 334.

6/ SEE THE OFFICIAL DECLARATION OF THE SWISS GOVERNMENT CONTAINED IN ANNEX II TO UNITED NATIONS DOCUMENT S/7781.

7/ THE SWISS IMPORTER IS AUTHORIZED TO MAKE USE OF HIS YEARLY QUOTA ANY TIME OF THE YEAR, E.G. IN THE EARLY MONTHS OF THE YEAR 1967. THE QUOTAS ARE COMPOUNDED ON THE BASIS OF THE AVERAGE IMPORT QUANTITY OF THE COMMODITY DURING THE PREVIOUS THREE YEARS. FLUCTUATIONS ARE FURTHERMORE POSSIBLE BETWEEN THE YEARS, AS THE USE OF A YEARLY QUOTA REQUESTED IN DECEMBER MAY ONLY APPEAR IN THE TRADE STATISTICS OF THE FIRST THREE MONTHS OF THE FOLLOWING YEAR, THE REASON BEING THAT THE IMPORT LICENCES GRANTED WITHIN THE QUOTA ARE GENERALLY VALID FOR THREE MONTHS.

8/ TOBACCO DESPATCHED FROM SOUTHERN RHODESIA PRIOR TO 18 JANUARY 1966, THE DATE OF THE ORDER BY THE GOVERNMENT OF IRELAND UNDER WHICH IMPORTS OF TOBACCO FROM SOUTHERN RHODESIA INTO IRELAND WERE PREVENTED.

9/ TOBACCO WAREHOUSED IN JANUARY 1966, EX WAREHOUSE IN JANUARY AND FEBRUARY 1967.

ANNEX II

Note dated 2 June 1970 submitted by the United Kingdom on the effects of sanctions on the economy of Southern Rhodesia since the illegal declaration of independence, and the outlook for 1970

Sanctions reduced Rhodesia's exports from £R164 million in 1965 to £R104 in 1966; £R101 million in 1967 and £R97 million in 1968. In 1969, however, Rhodesian exports rose to £R120 million. Despite this recovery, Rhodesia's exports in that year were still only about 70 per cent of the 1965 level and this takes no account either of the cumulative increase in volume which would almost certainly have been achieved if sanctions had not been imposed, or of the general increase in world prices.

2. The change in the Rhodesian economic situation in 1969 was due mainly to increased agricultural production as a result of favourable climatic conditions and the agricultural production figures (and consequently the G.D.P. figure) for 1969 are further enhanced by comparison with the 1968 figures when Rhodesia's agricultural production was adversely affected by drought. Almost half the increase in Rhodesia's exports in 1969 was accounted for by the sale of maize to South Africa, which in that year suffered a crop failure. Sales of cotton and gold also rose and the start of large-scale nickel production contributed further to increased export earnings.

3. After deducting estimated totals of Rhodesian exports to countries which have made it clear that they either will not or, like certain African countries which border on Rhodesia, cannot afford to apply sanctions (or at least to apply them fully) it appears that, as in 1968, some £R45 million went to countries outside Africa whose governments are applying sanctions as called for in Security Council resolution No. 253 (1968). Only a very small proportion of this trade is accounted for in the published statistics of the countries concerned, and the rest was presumably sent under false declarations of origin so that it was reckoned for statistical purposes under some other heading.

4. Despite the increase in exports, imports, which had been cut back by the régime from £R120 million in 1965 to £R85 million in 1966, but which had been allowed to rise to £R94 million in 1967 and £R104 million in 1968, were again reduced to £R99 million in 1969 (all in current prices, the volume of imports has fallen further). But although, as a result the visible trade balance was converted from a deficit of £R9.3 million in 1968 to a surplus of £R18 million in 1969, a persistent deficit of £R18 million on invisible account reduced the current account surplus to £R0.15 million. On capital account there was a steep decline in net capital inflow from the exceptionally high figure of £R30 million in 1968 to £R6.25 million in 1969. It would appear that the consequences of the large capital inflows in 1967 and 1968 are now being felt in substantial repayment and interest charges. It should also be noted in this context that the illegal régime has since IDI persistently defaulted on substantial payments due to various external creditors such as the I.B.R.D. and the holders of Southern Rhodesian Government Stock.

National Income

5. The latest figures to be published by the illegal régime - in the Economic Survey for 1969 - show a rise in Gross Domestic Product compared with 1968 of about 14 per cent in terms of current prices. As with the export figures, however, this figure must be considered in perspective. The table below shows that per capita income rose steadily between 1955 and 1960, declined somewhat between 1960 and 1965, dropped sharply immediately after 1965 as a result of sanctions and, by 1969, had barely recovered to the 1965 level. Even so, per capita income in 1969 was no higher than it was ten years earlier in 1959.

1967	1042	437	322
1968	1095	445	319
1969	1249	493	347

6. These figures show that despite the 14 per cent rise in GDP in money terms in 1969 real income per head in 1969 was virtually the same as in 1965.

7. Moreover, as in previous years since IDI, a certain proportion of total income was derived - directly or indirectly - from the production of goods for export which have not been sold but have had to be stockpiled. No figures of stockpiling are available for 1969, but between December 1965 and December 1968 net increases in stocks amounted to £R55 million.

Production

8. Because of favourable climatic conditions 1969 was an exceptionally good year for Rhodesian agriculture. According to the illegal régime's Economic Survey for 1969, agricultural production in that year was valued at £R115 million compared with £R81.5 million in 1968 and £R92.5 million in 1967. This goes far to account for the increase in GDP in 1969. On the other hand, tobacco, which in 1965 accounted for about 30 per cent of Rhodesia's export earnings, suffered a further set-back. In January 1970 the régime announced that production, which had been cut from 246 million pounds in 1964/65 to 132 million pounds in 1969/70 is to be reduced still further to 100 million pounds over the next two years. Since 1965 the price paid to Rhodesian farmers by the illegal régime has been reduced to a level, which the growers complain, is below the cost of production, but which is in fact higher than the price obtained for such of the tobacco as the régime has been able to export despite sanctions. Similarly, the guaranteed minimum price for maize is reported to be well below the true cost of production and in 1969 there was an overall loss of £R375,000 on export sales of cotton. Thus, while input costs per acre may have dropped, the value of production per acre has fallen far more. The effect of this on the European farmers and on the economy as a whole, has been to cause a large increase in short-term indebtedness and the régime is having to subsidize farmers to an ever increasing extent.

9. The volume of mining output fell by about 2 per cent between 1965 and 1967 but because of higher copper prices in world markets the value of output rose by about 4 per cent (compared with an increase of 35 per cent in the two years prior to IDI). This trend continued in 1968 but in 1969 there was an increase in both the volume and the value of mining output as a result of substantial investment in the industry since 1965 (a considerable proportion of 1968's large capital inflow went into the mining sector). Even so, part of the reported increase in the value of mineral production (from £R33.7 million in 1968 to £R44 million in 1969) was undoubtedly attributable to higher world mineral prices.

10. Import substitution has enabled manufacturing output to recover the ground lost after IDI, when Rhodesia's main export markets were cut off, and in 1969 output was 14 per cent higher in terms of current prices than in 1968. In this connexion it should be borne in mind that the establishment of import substitution industries usually causes higher prices and a lowering of quality.

11. Other sectors of the economy - distribution, transport, services etc. - have in general followed the trends in the primary producing sector. However, the contribution of building and construction which showed an increase of over 30 per cent in 1968, fell back to 12 per cent in 1969.

Employment and migration

12. Published Rhodesian figures show that since IDI European employment has fallen in agriculture and commerce but risen in mining, manufacturing and, significantly, in Government administration. However, the figures do not reveal that some 1,200 tobacco farmers - one third of the pre-IDI total - have either had to give up farming or turn to less profitable crops, or that in some cases Government directions have prevented firms from dismissing redundant labour.

13. Net European immigration in 1969 was 5,000 compared with 6,200 in 1968, and well below the régime's target figure of 10,000 immigrants per annum.

14. Since IDI the African population of Southern Rhodesia has increased by 610,000 and the potential labour force by an estimated 140,000. Over the same period the number of Africans employed has increased by only some 30,000 and the illegal régime is becoming increasingly concerned about the serious problem of African unemployment and under-employment. According to the régime's Economic Survey for 1969, at the present rate of natural increase - about 3.5 per cent - the African population will have grown by a further 8 million to a total of 13 million by the end of this century.

Finance

15. The impact of sanctions on public finance has been reflected in a heavy rise in expenditure. The Public Debt is now 30 per cent higher. Most of the increase is a direct consequence of the need to meet the cost of sanctions, and in particular to finance the tobacco stockpile. So far the régime has been able to raise the large amounts required to finance their stockpiling operations without causing much inflation because of the money locked inside Rhodesia by Exchange Control restrictions, restraints in private investment and a wide variety of monetary measures. In 1969 the money supply increased by 21 per cent (compared with 4 per cent in 1968) and advances by Commercial Banks to the private sector were some 27 per cent higher than in the preceding year. Whether this trend will lead to an inflationary situation in 1970 is not clear. According to the illegal régime, the cost of living index rose by approximately 3 per cent in 1969, but various representative trade associations in Rhodesia have cast doubt on the accuracy of the published statistics which they claim have not revealed the full extent of inflation.

Over-all impression

16. In real terms there has been no growth in the Rhodesian economy since the illegal declaration of independence. When price and population increases since 1965 are taken into account, per capita income in real terms is shown to be virtually the same as it was in 1965. Sanctions have created severe long-term problems for the Rhodesian economy, exacerbating the problem of African unemployment, discouraging European immigration, and diverting economic resources into less profitable and less efficient channels. The Rhodesian economy has been able to keep going only by "borrowing from Peter to pay Paul", subsidizing agriculture through stockpiling and selling at less than the real cost of production - promoting uneconomic import substitution industries.

Outlook for 1970

17. The high level of agricultural output for 1969 is unlikely to be repeated in 1970. Drought has already adversely affected crop yields, particularly maize and cotton. This will offset growth in other sectors of the Rhodesian economy. The foreign exchange position remains critical and will continue to be so because of the heavy and continuing raw material requirements of the newly established import substitution industries and increasing demands for the replacement of worn out capital equipment in the mining industry and public sector. Investment in the latter will not only involve a drain on the reserves but will also entail increases in the régime's already high level of internal borrowing and add to inflationary pressures.

18. In short, while industry and mining may make greater contributions to the Gross Domestic Product, the outlook for the Rhodesian economy as a whole in 1970 is likely to be one of a general levelling off in economic activity. But whatever levels Rhodesia's agricultural, industrial and mineral production attain, the crucial question will remain that of finding export markets. This, once again, underlines the paramount need for United Nations Member States outside Southern Africa to close the gaps through which it is calculated (see paragraph 3 above) that Rhodesian exports worth £R45 million a year were imported into their territories in 1969. In this connexion the expected increase in nickel production is of especial significance.
