Argentina, Austria, Canada, Chile, Czech Republic, Denmark, Dominican Republic, Finland, France, Germany, Hungary, Ireland, Italy, Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Portugal, South Africa, Sweden, United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and United States of America: draft resolution

Implementing actions proposed by the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees to strengthen the capacity of his Office to carry out its mandate

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 428 (V) of 14 December 1950, the annex to which contains the Statute of the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees, and its resolution 57/186 of 18 December 2002, on the continuation of the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees,

Appreciating the High Commissioner's concerted efforts in undertaking consultations with the Secretary-General and the members of the Executive Committee of the High Commissioner's Programme and observers of its Standing Committee through the process known as "UNHCR 2004", concerning how the Office of the High Commissioner could be better equipped to carry out its mandate in the changing context of the global situation, and noting that this is in support and in the context of the goals, objectives and commitments contained in the United Nations Millennium Declaration,¹ as well as the Secretary-General's efforts to strengthen the United Nations system,

1. Welcomes the report of the High Commissioner on strengthening the capacity of the Office of the High Commissioner to carry out its mandate,² as called for in resolution 57/186;

² See A/58/410.

2. Reaffirms that international protection and the search for durable solutions for refugees and, as applicable, other persons of concern to the Office of the High Commissioner, questions that were examined, inter alia, in the Global Consultations on International Protection process and are reflected in the Agenda for Protection,³ are the core of the mandate of the Office;

3. Welcomes the efforts of the Office of the High Commissioner to strengthen its linkages with the other parts of the United Nations system to enhance refugee protection and to identify and implement durable solutions for refugees and other persons of concern to the Office, and appreciates its efforts to strengthen partnerships with operational and implementing partners;

4. Welcomes the admission of the Office to the United Nations Development Group, and invites the Development Group to include, through the resident coordinator system and in full consultation with the Governments concerned, consideration of the needs of refugees and, as applicable, other persons of concern to the Office of the High Commissioner in the Common Country Assessment process and the subsequent formulation and implementation of their development programmes;

5. Notes the importance of the support of the Office of the High Commissioner, within its mandate, for the efforts of the Emergency Relief Coordinator to promote predictable and timely United Nations strategies that, inter alia, integrate durable solutions for refugees with those for internally displaced persons;

6. Highlights the importance of joint efforts of the United Nations Department of Political Affairs and Department of Peacekeeping Operations, together with the Office of the High Commissioner, which contribute to durable solutions for refugees in conflict and post-conflict situations, encourages the Office to play a more active role, including through sharing information with relevant United Nations forums, and stresses that all of these activities should be undertaken in a way consistent with the mandate of the Office;

7. Recalls paragraph 20 of the Statute of the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees, and calls for its application;

8. Reaffirms the continued voluntary nature of the funding of the Office of the High Commissioner in accordance with its Statute, while recognizing the importance of contributions made by countries hosting refugees, especially developing countries, notes the need for more equitable international responsibility and burden-sharing, expresses concern over the recurring shortfall in the funding of the Office, requests that States, within their capacities, contribute to the full funding of the budget level approved by the Executive Committee, and encourages the Office to continue its efforts to expand its donor base and to diversify funding sources, including through the private sector;

9. Decides to remove the temporal limitation on the continuation of the Office of the High Commissioner contained in its resolution 57/186 of 18 December 2002 and to continue the Office of the High Commissioner until the refugee problem is solved;

³ See Official Records of the General Assembly, Fifty-eighth Session, Supplement No. 12A (A/58/12/Add.1).

10. Decides that the High Commissioner shall report annually on an oral basis to the Economic and Social Council to keep it informed of the coordination aspects of the work of the Office, and shall continue the existing practice, as established in paragraph 11 of its Statute, of presenting an annual written report to the General Assembly, on the understanding that every ten years, beginning at the sixty-eighth session, the report will include a strategic review of the global situation of refugees and the role of the Office, prepared in consultation with the Secretary-General and the Executive Committee.
