7. At its twenty-ninth session (see CRC/C/114, paragraph 561), the Committee decided to send a letter to all States parties whose initial reports were due in 1992 and 1993, requesting them to submit that report within one year. The Committee further decided to inform those States parties in the same letter that should they not report within one year, the Committee would consider the situation of child rights in the State in the absence of the initial report, as foreseen in the Committee's "Overview of the reporting procedures" (CRC/C/33, paras. 29-32) and in light of rule 67 of the Committee's provisional rules of procedure (CRC/C/4). In this regard, as at 1 November 2003, the Committee had received the initial report of Dominica, Guyana, Sao Tome and Principe, and Bahamas. In letters sent on 30 June 2003 to the Governments of Angola and Brazil, the Committee requested again the submission of their initial reports before 15 November 2003. In these letters, the Committee reiterated its position that it would consider during 2004 the situation of child rights in the concerned State party, even in the absence of the initial report. In this regard, as at 1 November 2003, the Committee had received the initial report of Brazil.

8. At its thirty-third session the Committee decided to send a letter to all States parties whose initial reports were due in 1994 (Albania, Bosnia and Herzegovina and Equatorial Guinea), requesting them to submit that report within one year. The Committee informed States parties in the same letter that, should they not report within one year, the Committee would consider the situation of child rights in the State in the absence of the initial report. As at 1 November 2003, the Committee had received the initial reports of Albania and Equatorial Guinea.
