In a letter dated 26 June 1969 addressed to the President of the Security Council (S/9284), the representative of Jordan requested an urgent meeting of the Security Council to consider "the continued Israeli defiance of the Council's resolution 252 of 21 May 1968 on Jerusalem".

The Security Council included the question in its agenda and began its discussion at the 1482nd meeting on 30 June 1969. Discussion continued at the 1483rd through 1485th meetings, held on 1-3 July. In the course of these meetings the President, with the consent of the Council, invited the following fifteen representatives, pursuant to their requests, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote: Jordan, Israel, the United Arab Republic, Saudi Arabia, Syria, Morocco, Iraq, Indonesia, Lebanon, Malaysia, Afghanistan, Kuwait, the Sudan, Tunisia and Yemen.

At the 1485th meeting, held on 3 July 1969, a draft resolution (S/9311) was introduced by the representative of Pakistan on behalf of Senegal, Zambia and Pakistan.

A separate vote having been requested on operative paragraph 5 which was adopted by 14 votes to none, with 1 abstention (the United States of America), the Security Council adopted the three-Power draft resolution by a unanimous vote as resolution 267 of 3 July 1969.

Under the operative paragraphs of this resolution (resolution 267 (1969)), the Security Council (1) reaffirmed its resolution 252 (1968); (2) deplored the failure of Israel to show any regard for the General Assembly and Security Council resolutions mentioned above; (3) censured in the strongest terms all measures taken to change the status of the City of Jerusalem; (4) confirmed that all legislative and administrative measures and actions by Israel which purport to alter the status of Jerusalem including expropriation of land and properties thereon, are invalid and cannot change that status; (5) urgently called once more upon Israel to rescind forthwith all measures taken by it which might tend to change the status of the City of Jerusalem, and in future to refrain from all actions likely to have such an effect; (6) requested Israel to inform the Security Council without any further delay of its intentions with regard to the implementation of the provisions of this resolution; (7) determined that, in the event of a negative response or no response from Israel, the Security Council shall reconvene without delay to consider what further action should be taken in this matter; (8) requested the Secretary-General to report to the Security Council on the implementation of this resolution.
