The Security Council continued its discussion of the question at its 1415th meeting, held on 23 April 1968.

At that meeting, the representative of the United Kingdom introduced a draft resolution (S/8554) according to the operative part of which the Council would: 1. Decide that States Members of the United Nations shall prevent:

(a) The import into their territories of all commodities and products originating in Southern Rhodesia and exported therefrom after the date of this resolution (whether or not the commodities or products are for consumption or processing in their territories, whether or not they are imported in bond and whether or not any special legal status with respect to the import of goods is enjoyed by the port or other place where they are imported or stored);

(b) Any activities by their nationals or in their territories which promote or are calculated to promote the export of any commodities or products from Southern Rhodesia; and any dealings by their nationals or in their territories in any commodities or products originating in Southern Rhodesia and exported therefrom after the date of this resolution, including in particular any transfer of funds to Southern Rhodesia for the purposes of such activities or dealings;

(c) The shipment in vessels or aircraft of their registration or under charter to their nationals or the carriage (whether or not in bond) by land transport facilities across their territories of any commodities or products originating in Southern Rhodesia and exported therefrom after the date of this resolution;

(d) The sale or supply by their nationals or from their territories of any commodities or products (whether or not originating in their territories but not including medical supplies, educational equipment, documents, books, periodicals, newspapers, cinematograph films containing only news or other informative or educational matter, television films containing only such matter, other material for cinematograph, television or radio purposes containing only such matter or, in special humanitarian circumstances, food-stuffs) to any person or body in Southern Rhodesia or to any other person or body for the purposes of any business carried on in or operated from Southern Rhodesia; and any activities by their nationals or in their territories which promote or are calculated to promote such sale or supply;

(e) The shipment in vessels or aircraft of their registration or under charter to their nationals or the carriage (whether or not in bond) by land transport facilities across their territories of any such commodities or products which are consigned to any person or body in Southern Rhodesia or to any other person or body for the purposes of any business carried on in or operated from Southern Rhodesia; 2. Decide that States Members of the United Nations shall not make available to the illegal régime in Southern Rhodesia or to any commercial, industrial or public utility undertaking in Southern Rhodesia any funds for investment or any other financial or economic resources and shall prevent their nationals and any persons within their territories from making available to the régime or to any such undertaking any such funds or resources and from remitting any other funds to persons or bodies within Southern Rhodesia except payments exclusively for pensions or other humanitarian, educational or information purposes; 3. Decide that States Members of the United Nations shall: (a) Prevent the entry into their territories, save on exceptional humanitarian grounds, of any person travelling on a Southern Rhodesian passport, regardless of its date of issue, or on a purported passport issued by or on behalf of the illegal régime in Southern Rhodesia; (b) Take all possible measures to prevent the entry into their territories of persons whom they have reason to believe to be ordinarily resident in Southern Rhodesia and whom they have reason to believe to have furthered or encouraged or to be likely to further or encourage the unlawful actions of the illegal régime in Southern Rhodesia or any activities which are calculated to evade any measures decided upon in this resolution or in resolution 232 (1966) of 16 December 1966; 4. Decide that States Members of the United Nations shall prevent airline companies constituted in their territories and aircraft of their registration or under charter to their nationals from operating to or from Southern Rhodesia and from linking up with any airline company constituted or aircraft registered in Southern Rhodesia; 5. Call upon States Members of the United Nations to take all practicable measures to discourage their nationals from emigrating to Southern Rhodesia; 6. Decide that all States Members of the United Nations shall give effect to the decisions set out in operative paragraphs 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 of this resolution notwithstanding any contract entered into or licence granted before the date of this resolution save that landlocked States of southern Africa shall be obliged to carry out those decisions only in so far as their position permits; 7. Call upon all States Members of the United Nations to carry out these decisions of the Security Council in accordance with Article 25 of the United Nations Charter, and remind them that failure or refusal by any of them to do so would constitute a violation of that Article; 8. Urge, having regard to the principles stated in Article 2 of the United Nations Charter, States not Members of the United Nations to act in accordance with the provisions of paragraphs 1 to 6 of this resolution; 9. Call upon States Members of the United Nations or of the specialized agencies to report to the Secretary-General by 1 June 1968, the measures each has taken in accordance with the provisions of paragraphs 1 to 6 of this resolution; 10. Request the Secretary-General to supervise and report at regular intervals to the Council on the progress of the implementation of resolution 232 (1966) of 16 December 1966, and of this resolution, the first report to be submitted not later than 1 July 1968; 11. Call upon each State Member of the United Nations or of the specialized agencies to report to the Secretary-General at such intervals and in such form as may be indicated by the Secretary-General the quantity and value of its trade in such commodities or products as may be so indicated; 12. Request the Secretary-General to seek from any State Member of the United Nations or of the specialized agencies such further information regarding the trade of that State, or regarding any activities that may constitute an evasion of the measures decided upon in this resolution, as he may consider necessary for the proper discharge of his duty to report to the Council in pursuance of this resolution; 13. Call upon all States Members of the United Nations or of the specialized agencies to supply such further information as may be sought by the Secretary-General in pursuance of this resolution; 14. Decide to establish a committee composed of all members of the Security Council which shall, for the purpose of enabling the Council to secure full implementation of resolution 232 (1966) and of this resolution: (a) Consider the reports made to the Council by the Secretary-General in pursuance of those resolutions; (b) In consultation as appropriate with the Secretary-General, evaluate the information contained in the Secretary-General's reports (including reports of cases where States have failed to supply information requested by the Secretary-General) and assess its significance for the implementation of those resolutions; (c) In the light of its consideration of the Secretary-General's reports, advise the Secretary-General with respect to the further exercise of his functions under those resolutions; (d) Report from time to time to the Council on the discharge of its functions under this paragraph; 15. Decide to keep this item on its agenda for further action as appropriate in the light of developments.
