ECONOMIC COMMISSION FOR EUROPE

INLAND TRANSPORT COMMITTEE

REPORT OF THE INLAND TRANSPORT COMMITTEE ON ITS SIXTY-FIFTH SESSION
(18-20 February 2003)

Corrigendum 1

Note : At its sixty-sixth session (17-19 February 2004), the Committee took note of information provided by its Chairman on the considerations by the Bureau of the difficulties experienced in the TIR procedure. The Committee decided to follow the Bureau's recommendations in this respect and decided to issue a Corrigendum to the report of its sixty-fifth session with a view to changing the text in accordance with the views expressed by the Bureau (ECE/TRANS/156, para. 97).

Following the decision of the Committee, the sixth sentence of paragraph 99 of the Committee's report on its sixty-fifth session (ECE/TRANS/152) reading: "It pointed out that the objective of the TIR system was not to compensate for irregularities committed by organized crime and advocated the need for a full and effective application of the Convention" should be replaced by the following text: "It advocated the need for a full and effective application of the Convention."
