III. RECORDEDATION OF THE THISD CONTINUES

8. The Third Committee recommonds to the General Assembly the aloption of the following draft resolution:

Review and co-ordination of human rights programmes of organizations in the United Nations system and co-operation with other international programmes in the field of human rights

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 33/54 of 14 December 1978 concerning review and co-ordination of human rights programmes of organizations in the United Nations system and co-operation with other international programmes in the field of human rights,

Roting that, pursuant to that resolution, the General Assembly will resume discussion of the subject of review and co-ordination of human rights programmes upon receipt of the report of the Commission on Numan Rights as requested in paragraph 2 of the resolution,

Taking note of Commission on Human Rights resolution 22 (YXXV) of 14 March 1979, by which the Commission decided to carry out the study asked for by the General Assembly in its resolution 33/54, on the basis of preparatory material to be submitted to the Commission at its thirty-seventh session, and of Teonomic and Social Council resolution 1979/36 of 10 May 1979 in which the Council requested it to do so,

Recognizing the importance of full and timely co-operation by concerned specialized agencies and other organs and bodies within and related to the United Nations system, in order to permit the Commission on Euran Bights to carry out its work as scheduled.

Moting further that, by its resolution 1979/36, the Economic and Social Council decided to add to the terms of reference of the Commission on Human Rights the mandate to assist the Council in the co-ordination of activities concerning human rights in the United Mations system,

1. Melcomes the action decided on by the Commission on Human Rights and by the Economic and Social Council in response to General Assembly resolution  $33/5^{h}$ ;

- 2. Urges those specialized agencies and other organs and bodies within and related to the United Nations system which are, according to their explicit mandates, concerned with the promotion and protection of human rights and fundamental freedoms to offer their full co-operation to the Secretary-General in his preparation of the preparatory materials which will be the basis for the study to be carried out by the Commission on Human Rights at its thirty-seventh session;
- 3. Requests the Commission on Human Rights to give priority to the completion of its study at its thirty-seventh session in 1981;
- 4. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its thirty-sixth session the item entitled "Review and co-ordination of human rights programmes of organizations in the United Nations system and co-operation with other international programmes in the field of human rights" and to give high priority to the consideration of the item at that session.
