CABLE DATED 11 FEBRUARY 1966 FROM THE SECRETARY GENERAL
OF THE ORGANIZATION OF AMERICAN STATES ADDRESSED TO THE
SECRETARY-GENERAL OF THE UNITED NATIONS

In accordance with Article 54 of the Charter of the United Nations I have the honour to transmit to you for the information of the Security Council the resolution adopted by the Council of the Organization of American States (document C-D-1379), the text of which reads as follows:

"Whereas:

"The Ambassador, representative of Peru, in the note of January 19, 1966, addressed to the Vice-Chairman of the Council, in his capacity as Acting Chairman, requested on behalf of his Government... the convocation of a special meeting of the Council of the Organization, to formulate a denunciation on violation of the principle of non-intervention, set forth in the Charter of the Organization of American States and ratified by the General Assembly of the United Nations in its resolution 2131 (XX), adopted at the session held last December 21,

"The aforementioned convocation was seconded by the Ambassadors, representatives of Colombia and Venezuela, in notes dated January 23 and 24, respectively,

"At this special meeting, the Council heard statements by the representatives of Peru, Venezuela, Colombia, Bolivia, the Dominican Republic, the United States, Costa Rica, Haiti, El Salvador, Ecuador, Argentina, Panama, Nicaragua, Honduras, Paraguay, Guatemala, Brazil, Mexico, Uruguay, and Chile, who expressed unanimous support of the denunciation by the Government of Peru,

"In the city of Havana, during the first half of this past January, and under the official sponsorship of the Government of Cuba, a so-called Conference of Solidarity among the Peoples of Asia, Africa, and Latin America was held, with the participation of delegates from the Soviet Union, communist China, Cuba, and other States, as well as communist parties and groups from other countries, the final resolutions of which proclaimed a pledge by the participants to give financial, political, and military aid to communist subversive movements in this hemisphere, the same as in other parts of the world,

"This policy of intervention and aggression in the Western Hemisphere by some of the communist States constitutes a violation of the principle of non-intervention by one State in the internal and external affairs of another and of the self-determination of peoples, which were the object of resolution 2131 (XX) adopted December 21, 1965, by the General Assembly of the United Nations, principles laid down in the Charter of the Organization of American States,

"As a result of the so-called Conference of Solidarity among the Peoples of Asia, Africa and Latin America, a permanent committee of twelve members was established in Havana consisting of representatives of communist countries and groups of those three continents, as well as a special organization for the promotion of subversion, terrorism and civil war in Latin America,

"This policy of intervention and aggression endangers the peace and security of the Western Hemisphere, and

"The Eighth Meeting of Consultation of Ministers of Foreign Affairs, held at Punta del Este, Uruguay, in 1962, in paragraph 1 of resolution 11 requested the Council of the Organization of American States... to maintain all necessary vigilance, for the purpose of warning against any acts of aggression, subversion, or other danger to peace and security, or the preparation of such acts, resulting from the continued intervention of Sino-Soviet Powers in this hemisphere, and to make recommendations to the Governments of the member States with regard thereto,

"The Council of the Organization of American States

"Resolves:

"1. To condemn emphatically the policy of intervention and aggression of the communist States and other participating countries and groups, manifested in the discussions and decisions of the so-called Conference of Solidarity among the Peoples of Asia, Africa, and Latin America, held in Havana during the first two weeks of January.

"2. To denounce especially, as an act contrary to the peace and security of the hemisphere and in violation of the principles of the Charter of the United Nations and of resolution 2131 (XX), of 21 December 1965, the open participation at the aforesaid Havana Conference of official or officially sponsored delegations of Member States of the United Nations that also voted in favour of the aforementioned resolution.

"3. To declare, in accordance with the Charter of the United Nations and resolution 2131 (XX), of 21 December 1965, adopted by the General Assembly of the United Nations, and also in conformity with the Charter of the Organization of American States and resolutions of the Inter-American Conferences and Meetings of Consultation of Ministers of Foreign Affairs, that a State is responsible not only for the open use of force against another but also for giving support to any of the indirect forms of aggression, such as the promotion of civil strife in another State, or the organization of armed bands and the furnishing of war material or elements of combat and of money with offensive intentions against another.

"4. To proclaim the American States' reiterated adherence to the principles of non-intervention and self-determination of peoples set forth in the Charter of the Organization and in resolution 2131 (XX), of 21 December 1965, of the United Nations General Assembly.

"5. To call upon the 'Special Committee to study resolutions i.1 and viii of the Eighth Meeting of Consultation of Ministers of Foreign Affairs' to make an urgent study and investigation of the deliberations, conclusions, and projections of the so-called Conference of Solidarity among the Peoples of Asia, Africa, and Latin America, held in Havana, and to submit a report to the Council of the Organization along with such recommendations as it deems pertinent.

"6. To request the Secretary General of the Organization of American States to transmit this resolution to the Secretary-General of the United Nations, with a request that he distribute it among the Member States."

Please bring this resolution to the notice of the Members of the United Nations.
Accept, Sir, etc.

(Signed) José A. MORA
Secretary General
