Summary

The present report contains the budget for the United Nations Operation in Burundi (ONUB) for the period from 1 July 2004 to 30 June 2005, which amounts to $333,174,000. It incorporates and supersedes the budgetary proposal for ONUB for the period from 1 July to 31 December 2004 set out in the report of the Secretary-General of 24 May 2004 (A/58/802).

The budget provides for the deployment of 200 military observers, 5,450 military contingent personnel (including 125 force headquarters staff officers), 120 civilian police, 403 international and 423 national staff (including 56 National Officers) and 172 United Nations Volunteers.

The total resource requirements for the United Nations Operation in Burundi for the financial period from 1 July 2004 to 30 June 2005 have been linked to the mission's objective through a number of results-based frameworks, grouped by components: political process, security sector reform, security environment, human rights and humanitarian assistance as well as support. The financial resources for operational items have been linked to the support component by identifying quantitative outputs for expenditure classes under operational costs.

I. Mandate and planned results

1. The mandate of the United Nations Operation in Burundi (ONUB) was established by the Security Council in its resolution 1545 (2004) of 21 May 2004. The Operation is mandated to help the Security Council to achieve an overall objective, namely, to restore lasting peace and bring about national reconciliation in Burundi.

2. Within this overall objective, ONUB will, during the budget period, contribute to a number of expected accomplishments by delivering related key outputs, shown in the frameworks below. These frameworks are grouped by components derived from the mandate of the Operation contained in paragraphs 5 to 7 of Security Council resolution 1545 (2004), namely, political process, security sector reform, security environment, human rights and humanitarian assistance, and also include a support component.

3. The expected accomplishments would lead to the fulfilment of the Security Council's objective within the time frame of the Operation and the indicators of achievement provide a measurement of progress towards such accomplishments during the budget period. The financial resources for operational items have been linked to the support component by quantifying outputs for expenditure classes under operational costs. In view of the continuing deployment of the Operation, the attribution of the proposed human resources of ONUB has been presented by organizational unit rather than by frameworks components.

4. ONUB is headed by the Special Representative of the Secretary-General at the Under-Secretary-General level, assisted by a Principal Deputy Special Representative for Governance and Stabilization and a Deputy Special Representative, Resident Coordinator and Humanitarian Coordinator, both at the Assistant Secretary-General level. Military operations are headed by a Force Commander at the D-2 level.

5. The headquarters for the Operation has been established in Bujumbura. The Operation provides administrative, logistical and technical support to its substantive, military and civilian police personnel in Bujumbura and throughout the country.

10. The Special Representative of the Secretary-General at the Under-Secretary-General level assists the Secretary-General in the implementation of the ONUB mandate and is responsible for the overall management of the Operation, as well as for the coordination of all activities of the United Nations system in Burundi. The Special Representative of the Secretary-General also acts as the Chairperson of the Implementation Monitoring Committee (IMC) established by the Arusha Agreement to follow up, monitor, supervise and coordinate the implementation of the Agreement.

11. In the discharge of her responsibilities, the Special Representative of the Secretary-General is supported by a Principal Deputy Special Representative for Governance and Stabilization and a Deputy Special Representative, Resident Coordinator and Humanitarian Coordinator, both at the Assistant Secretary-General level. Reporting directly to the Special Representative are the Force Commander, the heads of the Political Affairs and Planning, and Communications and Public Information Offices, as well as the Principal Legal Adviser and Senior Resident Auditor.

12. The immediate Office of the Special Representative of the Secretary-General is supervised by the Director of the Office (D-1) supported by a Special Assistant (P-3). The Director of the Office provides policy and strategic advice to and assists the Special Representative of the Secretary-General in the overall coordination of ONUB activities, and manages the information flow between the United Nations Headquarters in New York and the mission, as well as within the mission's senior management team. The Office also includes a Special Assistant (P-5) who provides direct support to the Special Representative of the Secretary-General in the discharge of her functions, drafts speeches, prepares visual presentations and briefing notes, supports the Special Representative in political consultations with the national and regional actors and serves as a focal point for ONUB for constituency-building with donors, the diplomatic community, NGOs and the media; a Political Affairs Officer (P-4) who coordinates the preparation of the mission's reports; an Interpreter (P-3), a Protocol Officer (P-3) and a Personal Assistant to the Special Representative of the Secretary-General (General Service (Principal level)).

13. As the Chairperson of the Implementation Monitoring Committee established by the Arusha Agreement, the Special Representative of the Secretary-General provides the secretariat for the IMC and its Executive Council, comprising the Head of the IMC Secretariat (D-2) supported by a Special Assistant (P-4), two Political Affairs Officers (P-5 and P-4) and two Administrative Assistants (General Service (Other level) and Field Service).

14. The Head of the IMC Secretariat (D-2) is responsible for the overall coordination of the activities of the IMC Secretariat, maintaining regular contact with the members of the IMC and its Executive Council, planning IMC and Executive Council meetings and advising the Special Representative of the Secretary-General on all matters related to the work of the IMC, including proposals for solutions to points of contention among the various parties with a view to accelerating the implementation of the provisions of the Arusha Agreement. Two Political Affairs Officers (P-5 and P-4) assist the Head of the IMC Secretariat in maintaining regular liaison with the members of the IMC and its Executive Council, prepare meetings of these bodies, draft analytical reports and briefing notes and provide inputs for reports of the Secretary-General and briefings to the Security Council.

15. Administrative and secretarial support to the immediate Office of the Special Representative of the Secretary-General is provided by a secretary (General Service (Other level)), an Administrative Assistant (Field Service), two Language Assistants (national General Service staff) and three drivers (national General Service staff).

The Unit also comprises three international staff (two Field Service and one General Service (Other level)) and six United Nations Volunteers.

73. The Joint Logistics Operation Centre, headed by a Chief Logistics Officer (P-4), is responsible, through integrated military-civilian structures, for the provision of support to the deployment, redeployment and sustainment of military contingents and civilian personnel deployed in the mission area, and serves as a focal point for coordinating logistics operations between ONUB and the humanitarian development community in Burundi. The Joint Logistics Operation Centre comprises 10 international staff (four P-3, five Field Service and one General Service (Other level)), three United Nations Volunteers and five national General Service staff.

74. The Engineering Section, headed by a Chief Engineer (P-4), is responsible for the planning of engineering work in the mission area, implementation of construction and buildings and facilities refurbishment projects, supervision of the implementation of contractual engineering work, maintenance of the mission's office premises and accommodation facilities, and administration of engineering stores and supplies. The Section includes the Geographical Information Systems Unit (one P-3, two Field Service, three United Nations Volunteers and two national General Service staff) and also comprises 20 international staff (six P-3, one P-2, 10 Field Service and three General Service (Other level)), 25 United Nations Volunteers and 57 national General Service staff.

75. The Supply Section, headed by a Chief Supply Officer (P-4), is responsible for the implementation of the Operation's expendable and non-expendable commodities supply programme, administration and replenishment of specialized stores, general supplies, aviation and diesel fuel, gasoline, oil and lubricants, drinking and bulk water and rations, and warehousing and distribution of supplies throughout the mission area. The Section also comprises 23 international staff (six P-3, 12 Field Service and five General Service (Other level)), one United Nations Volunteer and 31 national General Service staff.

76. The Communication and Information Technology Section, headed by the Chief Communications and Information Technology Officer (P-4), is responsible for the installation, operation and maintenance of the communications infrastructure and systems throughout the mission area, inclusive of very small aperture terminal (VSAT) systems, telephone exchanges, repeaters and transmitters, microwave links and radio studios and relays, operation, maintenance and repair of the Operation's information technology networks and infrastructure, application development, networks security, access control and data integrity, applications and database systems administration, user support and training. The Section also comprises 21 international staff (two P-3 and 19 Field Service), 14 United Nations Volunteers and 26 national General Service staff.

77. The Movement Control Section, headed by a Chief Movement Control Officer (P-4), is responsible for the air, sea and surface cargo and personnel movement requirements, the deployment, rotation and repatriation of military contingents, contingent-owned and United Nations-owned equipment, personal effects of civilian personnel to/from and within the mission area, customs clearance including dangerous goods, and administering the movement of civilian and military personnel in the mission area, passenger and cargo handling and storage operations. The Section also comprises eight international staff (one P-2 and seven Field Service), six United Nations Volunteers and 18 national General Service staff.

78. The Transport Section, headed by a Chief Transport Officer (P-4), is responsible for the planning, organization and control of the Operation's vehicular transportation services; the maintenance and repair of the Operation's vehicle fleet and operation of vehicle workshops; allocation and distribution of vehicles; formulation and implementation of road safety standards and procedures and maintenance guidelines; management of spare parts stores and supplies and provision of dispatch services. The Section comprises 21 international staff (one

P-3, 18 Field Service and two General Service (Other level)), 11 United Nations Volunteers and 59 national General Service staff.

79. The Aviation Section, headed by a Chief Aviation Officer (P-4), is responsible for the planning and coordination of the utilization of the Operation's six helicopters provided under the letter-of-assist arrangements, development and implementation of aviation standard operating procedures, air terminal operations, surveys and assessment of the remote sites airfields and helicopter landing zones, provision of threat assessment and aeronautical and meteorological information to aircrews; liaison with national aviation authorities and provision of flight clearances and flight following. The Section also comprises five international staff (two P-3 and three Field Service), one United Nations Volunteer and two national General Service staff.

III. Analysis of resource requirements¹

	Cost estimates
Military observers	$9 057.2

80. Provision of $9,057,200 under this heading reflects requirements with respect to the mission subsistence allowance, travel costs and death and disability compensation. It takes into account 59 military observers on the ground as of 1 July 2004 and is based on the projected phased deployment of the additional 141 military observers by December 2004 for a total authorized strength of 200 military observers. Requirements for mission subsistence allowance reflect a 5 per cent delayed deployment factor.

	Cost estimates
Military contingents	$129 499.3

81. Provision of $129,499,300 under this heading reflects requirements with respect to troop and contingent-owned equipment reimbursement costs, emplacement and rotation of contingent personnel, daily and recreational leave allowances, death and disability compensation, as well as rations and freight costs related to the deployment of contingent-owned equipment.

82. It is based on the military contingents projected deployment schedule and takes into account 2,442 troops on the ground as of 1 July 2004 and the phased deployment during the budget period of 3,008 military contingent personnel, including 125 staff officers. A 3 per cent delayed deployment factor has been applied, where applicable, to the cost estimates.

	Cost estimates
Civilian police	$4 835.2

83. Provision of $4,835,200 under this heading reflects requirements with respect to mission subsistence allowance, travel costs, clothing allowance and death and disability compensation. The estimated requirements are based on the projected phased deployment of the authorized strength of 120 civilian police personnel, with the full strength attained in January 2005. A 5 per cent delayed deployment factor has been applied to the computation of mission subsistence allowance costs.

	Cost estimates
International staff	$43 918.8

84. Provision of $43,918,800 under this heading reflects requirements with respect to international staff salaries, staff assessment and common staff costs, including hazardous duty station allowance and mission subsistence allowance. It is based on the phased deployment of the proposed strength of 403 international staff, with 87 staff deployed as of 1 July 2004 and full deployment attained in February 2005. The cost estimates have been adjusted by the application of a 20 per cent delayed recruitment factor.

85. International staff costs have been computed based on the New York standard salary scale in respect of 30 per cent of the proposed posts. Staff costs for the remaining 70 per cent of posts are based on salary scales for appointments of limited duration, in respect of which common staff costs have been computed at 60 per cent of the standard costs.

Cost estimates

National staff	$4 563.8
-----------------------	-----------

86. Provision of $4,563,800 under this heading reflects requirements with respect to national staff salaries, staff assessment and common staff costs, including hazardous duty station allowance. It is based on the projected phased deployment of 423 national staff including 56 National Officers with 34 national staff deployed as at 1 July 2004 and full deployment projected for March 2005. The requirements for national staff costs are based on the established national staff salary scales for national General Service staff and National Officers and have been adjusted by a 10 per cent delayed recruitment factor.

Cost estimates

United Nations Volunteers	$5 446.5

87. Provision of $5,446,500 under this heading is based on the projected phased deployment of 172 United Nations Volunteers, with two volunteers deployed as at 1 July 2004 and full deployment to be attained in March 2005. It also reflects a 5 per cent delayed deployment factor.

Cost estimates

General temporary assistance	$441.2

88. Provision of $441,200 under this heading reflects requirements with respect to the provision of support for seven Implementation Monitoring Committee meetings and for the hiring locally of 46 Language Assistants at a cost of $500 per person-month for 10 months to support non-francophone military contingents.

Cost estimates

Consultants	$505.6

89. Provision of $505,600 under this heading covers requirements pertaining to the engagement of consultants for the Operation's training programmes (including people management, competency-based interviewing and performance management, project management, media and communications, work planning, supervisory skills, information technology, cultural awareness and negotiation and conflict resolution), as well as for the hiring locally of language teachers to improve the French language skills of civilian personnel. The provision also reflects requirements with respect to the engagement of 11 international and 5 national consultants for a total of 24 person-months to assist the Independent Electoral Commission in the planning and preparation of elections, and the Commission Nationale pour la Réintégration des Sinistrés in developing a national reintegration strategy, and to conduct research and raise public awareness of gender-related issues.

Cost estimates

Official travel	$1 685.4

90. Provision of $1,685,400 under this heading reflects requirements for official travel costs, including travel of the Special Representative of the Secretary-General and senior staff for political consultations and meetings and travel of New York Headquarters staff to Burundi for providing support on various aspects of the peace process and logistical and administrative assistance to the Operation, as well as travel in connection with Implementation Monitoring Commission meetings. With respect to training-related travel, requirements reflect provision for the training of ONUB personnel in areas such as supervisory skills, communications and information technology, air operations and aviation safety, engineering, transport, personnel administration, finance and budget.

Cost estimates

Provision of $66,348,800 under this heading reflects requirements for the acquisition of prefabricated facilities and infrastructure, bridges, generators, water purification systems, water and septic tanks, fuel tanks and pumps, refrigeration, water purification, security and safety equipment, as well as office furniture and equipment. The above provision also includes the estimated requirements for the local procurement of supplies and materials, maintenance, construction and alteration services, rental of premises for the Operation headquarters, the logistics base, warehouses in Burundi and in the United Republic of Tanzania and greenfield sites for military personnel accommodation, as well as for the reimbursement of self-sustainment costs. Included in the provision is an amount of $2,107,400 for the replenishment of the strategic deployment stocks for equipment and supplies to be transferred to the Operation.

Cost estimates

Ground transportation	$16 623.5
------------------------------	------------

92. Provision of $16,623,500 under this heading reflects requirements for the acquisition of vehicles for the establishment of the Operation's fleet, including material handling, engineering and airfield support vehicles, and reflects requirements with respect to the rental of vehicles pending delivery of new vehicles, repairs and maintenance, liability insurance, spare parts and diesel fuel, oil and lubricants. Included in the provision is an amount of $7,801,300 for the replenishment of strategic deployment stocks for ground transportation equipment to be transferred to the Operation.

Cost estimates

Air transportation	$13 730.4

93. In order to support military operations, including deployment of a quick response force, provide for medical and casualty evacuations, and transport personnel and cargo, ONUB would establish a fleet of six helicopters provided under the letter-of-assist arrangements.

94. Provision of $13,730,400 under this heading reflects requirements for the aircraft positioning, painting and rental costs, operating costs (aviation fuel, oil and lubricants, liability insurance and aircrew subsistence allowance), equipment and supplies, landing fees and ground handling charges.

Cost estimates

Naval transportation	$408.1

95. Provision of $408,100 under this heading reflects requirements for the rental of space on a freight vessel, including costs for insurance and fuel for the transportation of around 50 sea containers per week between the port of Kigoma (Tanzania) and Bujumbura, as well as for fuel and lubricants for six military patrol boats on Lake Tanganyika.

Cost estimates

Communications	$18 973.4

96. Provision of $18,973,400 under this heading reflects requirements with respect to the acquisition of communications equipment in order to establish the Operation's communications network. It includes requirements for the satellite, VHF and HF radio equipment, microwave and rural telephone links, as well as requirements with respect to commercial communications, maintenance, spare parts and specialized technical support services. The above provision includes the estimated requirements for the reimbursement of self-sustainment costs, as well as an amount of $2,868,600 for the replenishment of strategic deployment stocks for various items of communication equipment to be transferred to the Operation.

Cost estimates

Information technology	$5 794.7
-------------------------------	-----------

97. Provision of $5,794,700 under this heading reflects requirements for the acquisition of information technology equipment and software, including Geographic Information System hardware and software, the related supplies and services, as well as workshop and test equipment, spare parts and specialized technical support services. Included in the provision is an amount of $809,300 for the replenishment of SDS for equipment and supplies to be transferred to the Operation.

	Cost estimates
Medical	$3 370.5

98. Provision of $3,370,500 under this heading reflects requirements with respect to the acquisition of supplemental ambulance and emergency medical equipment and trauma kits, medical supplies and medical services, including external consultations, laboratory services and hospitalization costs outside of the mission area, as well as the estimated requirements for the reimbursement of self-sustainment costs.

	Cost estimates
Special equipment	$2 303.0

99. Provision of $2,303,000 reflects requirements with respect to the reimbursement of troop-contributing countries for self-sustainment costs, as well as for the acquisition of observation equipment and night vision devices for military observers and civilian police personnel.

	Cost estimates
Other supplies, services and equipment	$4 668.6

100. Provision of $4,668,600 under this heading reflects requirements with respect to freight and related costs, and the acquisition of various items of equipment, as well as supplies, uniforms, flags and decals, bank charges and training fees.

	Cost estimates
Quick-impact projects	$1 000.0

101. ONUB would support the efforts of the humanitarian community through the implementation of quick-impact projects to promote and facilitate the United Nations peacekeeping efforts in Burundi. Projects would primarily focus on public sanitation, provision of medical equipment and supplies, repair of hospitals, medical facilities and basic community infrastructure, enhancement of water purification facilities, rehabilitation of school buildings and provision of basic school furniture and supplies, as well as support of vaccination campaigns.

IV. Actions to be taken by the General Assembly

102. The actions to be taken by the General Assembly in connection with the financing of ONUB are:

(a) Appropriation of the amount of $333,174,000 for the maintenance of the Operation for the period from 1 July 2004 to 30 June 2005, inclusive of the amount of $106,334,600 for the period from 1 July to 31 October 2004 previously authorized by the General Assembly under the terms of its resolution 58/312 of 18 June 2004;

(b) Assessment of the amount of $32,487,900 for the period from 1 July to 30 November 2004, taking into account the amount of $106,334,600 already assessed for the period from 1 July to 31 October 2004 under the terms of General Assembly resolution 58/312;

(c) Assessment of the amount of $194,351,500 at a monthly rate of $27,764,500 for the period from 1 December 2004 to 30 June 2005, should the Security Council decide to continue the mandate of the Operation.
