58. Question concerning the situation in Southern Rhodesia: letters dated 2 and 30 August 1963 addressed to the President of the Security Council on behalf of the representatives of thirty-two Member States (S/5382 and S/5409) (see S/5429, S/6336 and S/6342)

The Security Council resumed its consideration of the item at its 1257th meeting on 12 November 1965 on the basis of letters dated 11 November from the representative of the United Kingdom (S/6896), 10 November from the President of the General Assembly (S/6897), 11 November from the representatives of 35 Member States (S/6902), 11 November from the representatives of 22 Member States (S/6903) and 11 November from the President of the General Assembly (S/6908), all addressed to the President of the Security Council.

At the 1257th meeting the President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representatives of Algeria, India, Pakistan, Ghana, Zambia, Sierra Leone, Senegal, Mali, Tanzania and Nigeria, and at the 1258th and 1259th meetings, the representatives of Guinea and Ethiopia, pursuant to their requests, to participate without vote in the discussion.

In accordance with the proposal of the representative of Jordan at the 1257th meeting, the Council invited the Governments of Portugal and the Republic of South Africa to be represented at the meetings of the Council on the question.

At the 1258th meeting on 12 November 1965, the representative of Jordan introduced a draft resolution (S/6921/Rev.1) which was adopted by 10 votes to none, with 1 abstention (France). In its resolution 216 (1965) the Security Council (1) decided to condemn the unilateral declaration of independence made by a racist minority in Southern Rhodesia; and (2) decided to call upon all States not to recognize the illegal racist minority régime in Southern Rhodesia and to refrain from rendering any assistance to that illegal régime.

At the 1259th and 1260th meetings of the Council on 13 November 1965, the representatives of the United Kingdom and the Ivory Coast submitted draft resolutions (S/6928 and S/6929). Under the operative paragraphs of the United Kingdom draft resolution (S/6928), the Security Council would (1) refuse to recognize the unilateral declaration of independence by the former régime in Southern Rhodesia as having any legal validity; (2) reiterate its call to all States to refuse to recognize the illegal and unconstitutional régime in Southern Rhodesia; (3) call upon all States to refrain from any action which could give aid and comfort to that régime, and in particular, to refrain from supplying arms, equipment, or war material to it; and (4) call upon all States to lend all necessary assistance and support to the United Kingdom Government in making effective the measures taken by that Government, including the financial and economic measures, to bring the rebellion in Southern Rhodesia to an end.

Under the operative paragraphs of the draft resolution of the Ivory Coast (S/6929), the Security Council would (1) determine that the situation resulting from the declaration of independence by the racist minority settler régime constitutes a threat to international peace and security; (2) declare illegal the seizure of power by the racist minority settler régime in Southern Rhodesia; (3) call upon the United Kingdom and all other States to take immediate steps to protect the lives of the 4 million Africans and other inhabitants of the territory who oppose this rebellion; (4) further call upon the United Kingdom Government, in addition to the measures it has proposed to take with regard to the situation in Southern Rhodesia, to suspend the 1961 Constitution; (5) call upon all States not to recognize the racist minority settler régime and to withdraw recognition of any State recognizing that régime; (6) demand that the rebellion by the racist minority settler régime be immediately crushed and law and order established in that African territory; (7) demand further that majority rule be established in the territory on the basis of the principle of "one man, one vote"; (8) call upon all States to enforce on the illegal régime in Southern Rhodesia a complete interruption of economic relations, including an embargo on supplies of oil and petroleum products, and of rail, sea, air, postal telegraphic, radio and other means of communication and severance of diplomatic and consular relations, in accordance with Article 41 of the Charter; (9) decide to take all the enforcement measures provided for under Articles 42 and 43 of the Charter against the racist minority settler régime; and (10) authorize the Secretary-General to ensure the immediate implementation of this resolution and to report as soon as possible.
