Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

Thirteenth session
Vienna, 11-20 May 2004
Agenda item 5

International cooperation in combating transnational crime

Colombia: draft resolution

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice recommends to the Economic and Social Council the approval of the following draft resolution for adoption by the General Assembly:

International cooperation in the prevention, combating and elimination of kidnapping and in providing assistance to victims

The General Assembly,

Concerned at the increase in the practice of kidnapping in various countries of the world and at the harmful effects of that crime on victims and their families, and determined to support measures to assist and protect them and to promote their recovery,

Reiterating that the kidnapping of persons under any circumstances and for any purpose constitutes a serious crime and a violation of individual freedom and undermines human rights,

Noting the transnational nature of organized crime and the tendency of organized criminal groups and terrorist groups to expand their illegal operations,

Concerned at the growing tendency of organized criminal groups and terrorist groups to resort to kidnapping, especially for the purpose of extortion, as a method of accumulating capital with a view to consolidating their criminal operations and undertaking other illegal activities, such as trafficking in firearms and drugs, money-laundering and crimes related to terrorism,

Convinced that the links between various illegal activities, including terrorism, and organized crime pose an additional threat to security and the quality of life, hindering economic and social development,

Convinced also that the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime¹ provides the legal framework necessary for international cooperation in the fight against kidnapping,

Recalling Economic and Social Council resolution 2003/28 of 22 July 2003, entitled “International cooperation in the prevention, combating and elimination of kidnapping and in providing assistance to victims”, in which the Council requested the Secretary-General, drawing on extrabudgetary funds or voluntary contributions, to provide technical assistance to States, upon request, to enable them to strengthen their capacity to combat kidnapping, and to submit a progress report on that topic to the Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice at its thirteenth session,

1. Vigorously condemns and rejects once again the practice of kidnapping, under any circumstances and for any purpose, especially when it is carried out by organized criminal groups and terrorist groups;

2. Reiterates that organized criminal groups and terrorist groups as well as all perpetrators are responsible for any harm or death that may result from a kidnapping for which they are responsible and should be punished accordingly;

3. Takes note with appreciation of the report of the Secretary-General on international cooperation in the prevention, combating and elimination of kidnapping and in providing assistance to victims² and of the recommendations presented therein, submitted pursuant to Economic and Social Council resolutions 2002/16 of 24 July 2002 and 2003/28;

4. Encourages Member States to continue to foster international cooperation, especially extradition, mutual legal assistance, collaboration between law enforcement authorities and exchange of information, with a view to preventing, combating and eradicating kidnapping;

5. Calls upon Member States that have not yet done so, in furtherance of the fight against kidnapping, to strengthen their measures against money-laundering and to engage in international cooperation and mutual assistance in, inter alia, the tracing, detection, freezing and confiscation of proceeds of kidnapping in order to combat organized criminal groups and terrorist groups;

6. Urges Member States that have not yet done so to pay special attention to the considerable psychological, social and economic damage associated with kidnapping by adopting legislative, administrative or any other measures to provide appropriate support and assistance to victims and their families;

7. Requests the Secretary-General, drawing on extrabudgetary funds or voluntary contributions, to prepare a handbook of proven and promising practices regarding enforcement of laws on the prevention of and techniques for the fight against kidnapping, including:

² E/CN.15/2004/7 and Add.1.

- (a) Measures to prevent the crime of kidnapping that are directed at potential victims;
 - (b) Preventive measures aimed at disbanding organized criminal groups and terrorist groups;
 - (c) Cooperation or strategic alliances with the private sector;
 - (d) Crisis management;
 - (e) Identification of the minimum elements necessary for States to make adjustments to their domestic legislation with a view to establishing a common definition of the crime of kidnapping, which would also help to ascertain reliable trends from a global perspective;
 - (f) Provision of support and assistance to victims and their families;
 - (g) Information on national authorities responsible for preventing and combating kidnapping;
 - (h) Reporting procedures, rescue operations, information systems and prosecutions;
8. Also requests the Secretary-General, drawing on extrabudgetary funds or voluntary contributions, to provide technical assistance to States, upon request, to enable them to strengthen their capacity to combat kidnapping, including:
- (a) Training of judges, prosecutors and other law enforcement officials in mechanisms for disbanding criminal organizations and in the use of special investigative techniques for the rescue of kidnapped persons, bearing in mind the particular need to safeguard and protect the victim;
 - (b) Review of trends and greater understanding of the problem in order to create a basis for developing policies and strategies against kidnapping.
