Thirteenth session
Vienna, 11-20 May 2004
Agenda item 5

International cooperation in combating transnational crime

Algeria, Egypt and Saudi Arabia: revised draft resolution

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice recommends to the Economic and Social Council the adoption of the following draft resolution:

Second World Summit of Attorneys General and General Prosecutors, Chief Prosecutors and Ministers of Justice

The Economic and Social Council,

Recalling its resolutions on the use and application of United Nations standards and norms in crime prevention and criminal justice, especially in relation to the Guidelines on the Role of Prosecutors,<sup>1</sup>

Stressing the important role that law enforcement and criminal justice professionals, in particular prosecutors, should play in the implementation of the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime<sup>2</sup> and the Protocols thereto,<sup>3</sup> the United Nations Convention against Corruption<sup>4</sup> and the twelve international legal instruments against terrorism,

Emphasizing the significance of promoting international cooperation in criminal matters, to which prosecutors can make a major contribution, <sup>1</sup> Eighth United Nations Congress on the Prevention of Crime and the Treatment of Offenders, Havana, 27 August-7 September 1990; report prepared by the Secretariat (United Nations publication, Sales No. E.91.IV.2), chap. I, sect. C.26, annex.

Aware of the outcome of the first World Summit of Attorneys General and General Prosecutors, Chief Prosecutors and Ministers of Justice, held in Guatemala from 2 to 5 February 2004, and the adoption of its declaration, which contains important recommendations for future action,

1. Welcomes the initiative of Qatar to act as host to the second World Summit of Attorneys General and General Prosecutors, Chief Prosecutors and Ministers of Justice, in Doha in November 2005;

2. Expresses its gratitude to the Government of Qatar for its offer to provide funding to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime for its advice and expertise, within its current mandate and established practice, in the preparation and substantive servicing of the Summit;

3. Invites the Summit to ensure that its programme is targeted to further strengthening international cooperation in criminal matters, taking into account the crucial role of prosecutors in enhancing law enforcement cooperation under the rule of law;

4. Calls upon the Summit to ensure that its conclusions and recommendations make a substantive contribution to the work of the Conference of the Parties to the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime,<sup>2</sup> as well as to advance the ratification process of the United Nations Convention against Corruption<sup>4</sup> and the universal instruments against terrorism;

5. Requests the Secretary-General to bring the conclusions and recommendations of the Summit to the attention of the Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice.
