Agenda item 60

UNITED NATIONS ENVIRONMENT PROGRAMME

India: draft resolution*

Plan of action to combat desertification: restoration and improvement of the Foutah-Djallon massif

The General Assembly,

Mindful of the co-operation between the Organization of African Unity and the United Nations in general and the United Nations Environment Programme in particular.

Considering section II of Economic and Social Council resolution 1978/37 of 21 July 1978 which emphasizes the need for United Nations organizations, other international bodies and intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations to assist efforts to combat desertification,

Noting resolution CM/Res.756 (XXXIII) of the Council of Ministers of the Organization of African Unity adopted at its thirty-third session held in Monrovia from 6 to 20 July 1979, concerning the integrated biological improvement of the Foutah Djallon massif in the context of the action to combat desertification,

1. Invites the Governing Council of the United Nations Environment Programme to consider favourably the inclusion of the pilot project for the improvement and restoration of the Foutah-Djallon massif in its programme of action against desertification

2. Requests the Secretary-General to report to the General Assembly at its thirty-fifth session on the implementation of this resolution.

* The Indian delegation submits this draft resolution on behalf of the Member States of the United Nations which are members of the Group of 77.
