CABLE DATED 10 JUNE 1965 FROM THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY GENERAL OF THE ORGANIZATION OF AMERICAN STATES ADDRESSED TO THE SECRETARY-GENERAL OF THE UNITED NATIONS

In accordance with Article 54 United Nations Charter, I have the honour to transmit, for information Security Council, following text of cabled message No. 127 from the Secretary General Organization American States to the Chairman of Tenth Meeting of Consultation of Ministers of Foreign Affairs:

"OAS, Santo Domingo

"9 June 1965

"Message No. 127

"Message from the Secretary General, addressed to Ambassador Guillermo Sevilla Sacasa, Chairman of the Tenth Meeting of Consultation.

"I have the honour to transmit to you the texts of two statements signed by the Government of National Reconstruction and the Constitutionalist Government, undertaking to respect human rights proclaimed in American Declaration of the Rights and Duties of Man and guaranteeing all the facilities required by the Commission on Human Rights for the accomplishment of its mission. Government of National Reconstruction text is as follows:

'The Government of National Reconstruction reaffirms the following to the Inter-American Commission on Human Rights:

'That, faithful to its intention to comply with all the laws of the Republic, especially those concerning human rights, and with all the international commitments assumed by the Dominican Republic, it has respected, will respect and will ensure respect for the human rights embodied in the American Declaration of the Rights and Duties of Man, adopted at the Ninth International Conference of American States held at Bogotá, Colombia, in 1948;

'That the Government of National Reconstruction will therefore continue to provide the Inter-American Commission on Human Rights, as it has done so far, with all the facilities necessary for the effective accomplishment of its mission.

(Signed) Horacio VICIOSO SOTO
Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs'

"The text of the Constitutionalist Government's statement reads as follows:

'The Constitutionalist Government deems it its duty to affirm the following to the Inter-American Commission on Human Rights;

'1. That it has respected and will continue to respect the human rights embodied in the American Declaration of the Rights and Duties of Man, proclaimed at the Ninth International Conference of American States, held at Bogotá in 1948;

'2. That it has respected and will continue to respect, as fundamental principles, the right to life, the right to be tried by competent courts, the right to protection against arbitrary detention and the right of every individual to humane treatment during the time he is in custody;

'3. That it will make available to the Inter-American Commission on Human Rights or to the representative thereof whatever facilities are necessary for the effective accomplishment of its mission.

'Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic, 8 June 1965.

'For the Constitutional Government (Signed) Dr. Jottin CURY
Minister for Foreign Affairs

'For the Inter-American Commission on Human Rights

(Signed) Manuel BIANCHI
Chairman of the Inter-American
Commission on Human Rights'

(Signed) José A. MORA
Secretary-General"
