At its 1125th and 1126th meetings, held on 3 and 4 June 1964, the Security Council continued its consideration of the question. A draft resolution was submitted by the Ivory Coast and Morocco (S/5735) on 2 June, under the operative paragraphs of which the Security Council would (1) deplore the incidents caused by the penetration of units of the Army of the Republic of Viet-Nam into Cambodian territory; (2) request that just and fair compensation should be offered to the Royal Government of Cambodia; (3) invite those responsible to take all appropriate measures to prevent any further violation of the Cambodian frontier; (4) request all States and Authorities and in particular the members of the Geneva Conference to recognize and respect Cambodia's neutrality and territorial integrity; and (5) decide to send three of its members to the two countries and to the places where the most recent incidents had occurred in order to consider such measures as might prevent any recurrence of such incidents. The draft resolution further provided that they would report to the Council within forty-five days.

At the 1126th meeting on 4 June, the Security Council proceeded to vote on the joint draft resolution. Operative paragraph 5 was voted upon separately at the request of the USSR and was adopted by 9 votes to none, with 2 abstentions (Czechoslovakia and USSR). The draft resolution as a whole was adopted unanimously (see S/5741).

On 5 June, the President announced (S/5749) that as a result of consultation with the members of the Council, he had appointed Brazil, the Ivory Coast and Morocco to carry out the mission decided upon in paragraph 5 of the resolution adopted at the 1126th meeting.
