UNITED APPROACH TO DEVELOPMENT ANALYSIS AND PLANNING

Draft decision proposed by the Chairman

Unified approach to development analysis and planning

The General Assembly:

(a) Takes note of the report of the Secretary-General on a unified approach to development analysis and planning, 1/

(b) Decides to invite those countries that have not yet done so, but would be willing to do so to send their replies to the aide-memoire of the Secretary-General dated 27 February 1976 on a unified approach to development analysis and planning,

(c) Decides to request the Secretary-General, on the basis of those and earlier replies, to prepare a new report containing practical conclusions and recommendations on the application of a unified approach in the process of socio-economic development and to submit it to the General Assembly at its thirty-sixth session, through the Commission for Social Development at its twenty-seventh session and the Economic and Social Council at its first regular session in 1981.

(d) Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its thirty-sixth session the item entitled "Unified approach to development analysis and planning".
