In a letter dated 30 June 1961 (S/4852), the State Secretary of Kuwait submitted the application of Kuwait for admission to membership in the United Nations.

At its 984th meeting on 30 November, convened pursuant to a request dated 19 November (S/5001) by the representative of the United Arab Republic, the Security Council decided to include the question in its agenda, note being taken of the objection expressed by the representative of the USSR. The Council further decided, pursuant to his request, to invite the representative of Iraq to participate without vote in its consideration of the application.

A draft resolution (S/5006) was submitted by the representative of the United Arab Republic, whereby the Council would recommend to the General Assembly that Kuwait be admitted to membership in the United Nations.

The representative of the USSR moved under rule 33 that consideration of the question be postponed.

At the 985th meeting, on the same day, the Council voted on the proposals before it. The USSR motion to postpone consideration received 1 vote in favour (USSR) and none against, with 10 abstentions, and was not adopted, having failed to receive the required majority. The draft resolution of the United Arab Republic (S/5006) received 10 votes in favour to 1 against (USSR), and was not adopted owing to the negative vote of a permanent Member. The Council then agreed, pursuant to rule 60 of its provisional rules of procedure, to submit a special report to the General Assembly regarding its consideration of the application of Kuwait.
