Chapter four - The way ahead
26. To build an Information Society will require unremitting effort. We thus commit ourselves to keep fully engaged, nationally, regionally and internationally, to ensure sustainable follow-up to the implementation of agreements and commitments reached during WSIS process and its Geneva and Tunis summits. Taking into account the multifaceted nature of building the Information Society, effective cooperation among all stakeholders is needed, based on respect for their mandates and leveraging on their expertise.	United States, Turkey	26. ..., to ensure sustainable follow-up to the implementation of agreements decisions and commitments reached during WSIS process and its Geneva and Tunis summits....
27. [We agree that the follow-up to Internet governance should be separated from the other issues and organized as outlined in Chapter Three.]	Turkey, Saudi Arabia Russian Federation	[Disagree with the separation of the follow-up to Internet Governance from the other issues; propose the deletion or the rewriting of this paragraph] [Delete the paragraph]
28. We request the Secretary-General of the Summit to report to the General Assembly of the United Nations on its outcome.	No changes
