Agenda item 14 (g)

Social and human rights questions: human rights

Programme budget implications of resolutions and decisions recommended for adoption by the Economic and Social Council contained in the report of the Commission on Human Rights at its sixty-first session

Statement submitted by the Secretary-General in accordance with rule 31 of the rules of procedure of the Economic and Social Council

I. Introduction

1. At its sixty-first session, the Commission on Human Rights adopted a number of resolutions and decisions for adoption by the Economic and Social Council entailing statements of programme budget implications. In accordance with rule 28 of the rules of procedure of the functional commissions of the Economic and Social Council, the Commission was informed of these programme budget implications through oral statements.

II. Resolution 2005/2 on the use of mercenaries as a means of violating human rights and impeding the exercise of the right of peoples to self-determination

2. Under operative paragraph 11 of resolution 2005/2, the Commission decided to end the mandate of the Special Rapporteur on the question of the use of mercenaries and to establish a working group on the question of the use of mercenaries as a means of violating human rights and impeding the exercise of the right of peoples to self-determination, to be made up of five independent experts, one from each regional group, for a period of three years.

3. The Commission, in operative paragraphs 12 and 14, respectively, requested the working group to meet for five working days before its next session and to report annually on the progress made in the fulfilment of its mandate to the Commission and to the General Assembly.

4. By ending of the mandate of the Special Rapporteur, an amount of $49,100 would be available for other mandates under the category of activities considered to be of a perennial nature.

5. Activities envisaged in connection with the establishment of a working group under operative paragraph 11 of the resolution, would require provisions for consultancies as well as travel and subsistence for the experts to attend the meetings of the group and to undertake annual field missions. Total full costs of requirements under section 24, Human rights, of the programme budget for the biennium 2004-2005 are as follows: (a) $15,000 per year for consultancies or $45,000 for the 3-year mandate, and (b) $49,300 annually for travel and subsistence or a total of $147,900 for the 3-year mandate.

6. Activities envisaged under operative paragraph 14 would require provisions for travel and subsistence for the chairman of the working group. Total full costs of such travel and subsistence would amount to $13,300 annually or a total of $39,900 for the 3-year mandate under section 24, Human rights of the programme budget.

7. The holding of meetings of the working group, as requested in operative paragraph 12, would further require annual provisions for conference services for 5 days duration in the total amount of $107,100 as follows:

United States dollars
Section 2. General Assembly affairs and conference services	103 800
Section 29E. Administration, Geneva	3 300
Total	107 100

Total conference servicing requirements for the 3-year mandate would amount to $321,300.

8. No provisions have been made under the programme budget for the biennium 2004-2005 for the travel requirements of the working group and of the chairman of the working group, as well as for the associated consultancy and conference servicing requirements. Should the resolution be adopted, it will not be possible to absorb these additional requirements of the working group. Therefore, an additional appropriation by the General Assembly of $77,600 would be required under section 24, Human rights, as well as $103,800 under section 2, General Assembly affairs and conference services, and $3,300 under section 29E, Administration, Geneva, for the biennium 2004-2005.

9. No provisions have been made for the travel and conference servicing requirements of the working group in 2006-2007 in the proposed programme budget for 2006-2007. It is estimated that additional requirements would amount to $155,200 under section 23, Human rights, $207,600 under section 2, General Assembly affairs and conference services, and $6,600 under section 28E, Administration, Geneva.

III. Resolution 2005/4 on the right to development

10. Under the terms of operative paragraph 6 of resolution 2005/4, the Commission requested the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR) to provide all necessary administrative support and financial and human resources to the High-level Task Force on the Implementation of the Right to Development. Furthermore, under the terms of operative paragraph 9, the Commission requested OHCHR to continue to provide all necessary administrative support as well as financial and human resources to the Subcommission in its work on the concept document requested by the Commission in its resolution 2003/83.

11. In this connection, it is recalled that, by its resolution 59/277 A of 23 December 2004, the General Assembly approved, under the regular budget for the biennium 2004-2005, resources for OHCHR of $64,571,300 under section 24, Human rights. In addition, at the time of approval of resolution 58/271 A of 23 December 2003, the Assembly was informed that OHCHR projected extrabudgetary resources in the amount of $90,106,500 for the same period.

12. The attention of the Commission is also drawn to the provisions of resolution 45/248 B, section VI, in which the General Assembly reaffirmed that administrative and budgetary matters should be dealt with by the Fifth Committee and the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions.

13. Under operative paragraph 11 of resolution 2005/4, the Commission decided to renew the mandate of the Working Group on the Right to Development for one year and to convene its seventh session before the sixty-second session of the Commission for a period of 10 working days, 5 of which will be allocated to the second meeting of the high-level task force to be held well in advance of the session of the Working Group.

14. The 5-day task force meeting and 5-day session of the Working Group, as proposed under operative paragraph 11, would require provisions for conference servicing as follows:

United States dollars
Section 2. General Assembly affairs and conference services	341 600
Section 29E. Administration, Geneva	6 600
Total	348 200

15. Provisions related to the extension of the mandate of the Working Group and the meetings of the High-level Task Force and the Working Group have been included under section 2, General Assembly affairs and conference services, and section 29E, Administration, Geneva, of the programme budget for the biennium 2004-2005 and the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2006-2007, respectively. Hence, the adoption of the resolution would not entail additional conference servicing requirements.

16. Activities envisaged under operative paragraph 11 in connection with the meeting of the Task Force would require provisions for travel and subsistence and the commissioning of four expert papers. Total full costs of such requirements amount to $89,300 under section 24, Human rights, in the biennium 2004-2005. No provisions have been made under the programme budget for the biennium 2004-2005 for these requirements. Should the resolution be adopted, it will not be possible to absorb the additional requirements of the Task Force. Therefore, an additional appropriation by the General Assembly of $89,300 would be required under section 24, Human rights.

17. Resources for travel and subsistence would also be required in connection with the report of the chairman of the High-level Task Force to the Working Group at its meeting in early 2006. No provisions have been made for these requirements in the proposed programme budget for 2006-2007. It is estimated that additional requirements would amount to $6,500 under section 23, Human rights, of the proposed programme budget for 2006-2007.

19. Total full costs of the activities envisaged under the resolution would amount to $76,300 in the biennium 2004-2005 under section 24, Human rights.

20. The mandate of the Special Rapporteur falls under the category of activities considered to be of a perennial nature. Provisions have already been included in the programme budget for the biennium 2004-2005 for activities of this nature. Hence, no additional appropriation would be required as a result of the adoption of the resolution.

V. Resolution 2005/11 on the situation of human rights in the Democratic People's Republic of Korea

21. Under operative paragraphs 10 and 12 of resolution 2005/11, the Commission decided to extend the mandate of the Special Rapporteur on the situation of human rights in the Democratic People's Republic of Korea, as contained in Commission resolution 2004/13 of 15 April 2004, for a further year and requested the Special Rapporteur to report his findings to the General Assembly at its sixtieth session and to the Commission at its sixty-second session.

22. Total full costs of the activities envisaged under resolution 2005/11, if adopted, would amount to $77,100 in the biennium 2004-2005 under section 24, Human rights.

23. The mandate of the Special Rapporteur falls under the category of activities considered to be of a perennial nature. Provisions have already been included in the programme budget for the biennium 2004-2005 for activities of this nature. Hence, no additional appropriation would be required as a result of the adoption of the resolution.

VI. Resolution 2005/13 on the situation of human rights in Belarus

24. Under operative paragraph 4 of resolution 2005/13, the Commission decided to extend the mandate of the Special Rapporteur on the situation of human rights in Belarus for a further year, from within existing resources, and requested him to continue his efforts to establish direct contacts with the Government and the people of Belarus, with a view to examining the situation of human rights in Belarus and following any progress made towards the elaboration of a programme on human rights education for all sectors of society, in particular law enforcement, the judiciary, prison officials and civil society, and to report to the Commission at its sixty-second session.

25. Total full costs of the activities envisaged under operative paragraph 4 of the resolution would amount to $68,100 in the biennium 2004-2005 under section 24, Human rights.

26. The mandate of the Special Rapporteur falls under the category of activities considered to be of a perennial nature. Provisions have already been included in the programme budget for the biennium 2004-2005 for activities of this nature. Hence, no additional appropriation would be required as a result of the adoption of the resolution.

27. As regards the extension of the mandate of the Special Rapporteur “from within existing resources”, the attention of the Commission is drawn to the provisions of General Assembly resolution 45/248 B, section VI, in which the Assembly reaffirmed that administrative and budgetary matters should be dealt with by the Fifth Committee and the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions.

VII. Resolution 2005/19 on the effects of economic reform and foreign debt on the full enjoyment of all human rights

28. Under operative paragraph 22 of resolution 2005/19, the Commission decided to convene an expert consultation of 3 working days with the participation of experts from the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP), the United Nations Population Fund (UNFPA), the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD), the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations (FAO), the International Labour Organization (ILO), the World Health Organization (WHO) and other relevant United Nations agencies, the Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, the regional economic commissions, the international financial institutions, the special rapporteurs on economic, social and cultural rights, creditor and debtor States and non-governmental organizations to contribute to the work of the independent expert to finalize draft general guidelines.

29. Under operative paragraph 25, the Commission requested the independent expert on the effects of structural adjustment policies and foreign debt on the full enjoyment of human rights to report to the General Assembly on the issue of the effects of economic reform policies and foreign debt on the full enjoyment of human rights, particularly economic, social and cultural rights.

30. Under operative paragraph 27, the Commission requested the Secretary-General to provide the independent expert with all necessary assistance, in particular the staff and resources required to carry out his functions; as well as to facilitate his participation and contribution in the follow-up process of the International Conference on Financing for Development, including in the multi-stakeholder consultations to be organized in 2005 on issues relevant to his mandate.

31. In connection with operative paragraph 27, it is recalled that by its resolution 59/277 A, the General Assembly approved, under the regular budget for the biennium 2004-2005, resources for OHCHR of $64,571,300 under section 24, Human rights. Therefore, an additional appropriation by the General Assembly of $82,600 would be required under section 2, General Assembly affairs and conference services and of $1,900 under section 29E, Administration, Geneva.

35. In addition, provisions for travel and subsistence for four experts (including two from debtor countries) and for consultancy would be required in connection with the expert consultation under the terms of operative paragraph 22. Total costs of such requirements would amount to $43,400. No provisions have been made for these activities in the programme budget for the biennium 2004-2005. 36. The provision of $17,500 for travel and subsistence for the independent expert, an expert of the Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights and the special rapporteurs on economic, social and cultural rights would also be required in connection with the expert consultation under the terms of operative paragraph 22.

XXXIII. Decision 2005/109 on discrimination based on work and descent

162. Under the terms of decision 2005/109, the Commission decided to endorse the decision of the Subcommission on the Promotion and Protection of Human Rights to appoint Mr. Yozo Yokota and Ms. Chin-Sung Chung as Special Rapporteurs with the task of preparing a comprehensive study on discrimination based on work and descent, on the basis of the three working papers submitted to the Subcommission on this topic (E/CN.4/Sub.2/2001/16, E/CN.4/Sub.2/2003/24 and E/CN.4/Sub.2/2004/31), the comments made during the sessions of the Subcommittee at which those working papers were submitted and the provisions of the above-mentioned resolution, as well as on responses from Governments, national human rights institutions, relevant organs and agencies of the United Nations system and non-governmental organizations to a questionnaire to be elaborated and circulated by the Special Rapporteurs. The Commission also approved the request to the Special Rapporteur to submit a preliminary report to the Subcommittee at its fifty-seventh session, a progress report at its fifty-eighth session and a final report at its fifty-ninth session, as well as the request to the Secretary-General and the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights to provide the Special Rapporteurs with all the assistance necessary to enable them to accomplish this task.

163. Total full costs of the activities envisaged under decision 2005/109 would amount to $42,100 in the biennium 2004-2005 under section 24, Human rights, and $84,200 in the biennium 2006-2007.

164. The mandate of the Special Rapporteurs falls under the category of activities considered to be of a perennial nature. Provisions have already been included in the programme budget for the biennium 2004-2005 and in the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2006-2007 for activities of this nature. Hence no additional appropriation would be required as a result of the adoption of the decision.

XXXIV. Decision 2005/110 on the final report on the study on indigenous peoples' permanent sovereignty over natural resources

165. Under the terms of decision 2005/110, the Commission decided, inter alia:

(b) To recommend to the Economic and Social Council that it authorize OHCHR to convene an expert seminar during 2005, to which representatives of indigenous peoples and Governments as well as the Special Rapporteur would be invited, in order to give further attention to and to discuss in detail the many political, legal, economic, social and cultural aspects and matters raised in the above-mentioned study, as well as to the study of the Special Rapporteur entitled "Indigenous peoples and their relationship to land" (E/CN.4/Sub.2/2001/21);

(c) Also to recommend to the Council, mindful of the importance of the studies, which may, inter alia, be used as a basis for reconciliation between Governments and indigenous peoples, that they be issued as United Nations publications as part of the Human Rights Study Series.

166. The activities envisaged under subparagraph (b) of decision 2005/110 would require provisions of $55,200 to cover travel and subsistence requirements for the participants in the seminar, including the Special Rapporteur, and conference servicing provisions of $57,000.

167. It is anticipated that the above total costs of $112,200 would be covered from extrabudgetary resources available to OHCHR. Hence, no additional appropriation would be required.

168. As regards subparagraph (c) of decision 2005/110, the Secretariat would respectfully draw the attention of the Commission to the fact that all the reports of the Special Rapporteur are available in the Official Document System of the United Nations, to which free public access has been provided via the Internet. The hard copies of the reports could be obtained from the United Nations information centres and libraries around the world and from the information desk of OHCHR and its field offices.

XXXV. Decision 2005/113 on enhancing and strengthening the effectiveness of the special procedures of the Commission on Human Rights

169. Under the terms of operative paragraph (d) of decision 2005/113, the Commission decided to request the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights to organize, from within existing resources, an open-ended seminar to be held in 2005, in consultation with the expanded bureau of the Commission, as a part of enhancing and strengthening the effectiveness of the special procedures.

170. The activities envisaged in connection with organizing the open-ended seminar under operative paragraph 4 would require provisions under section 24, Human rights, of the programme budget for the biennium 2004-2005 for: (a) travel and subsistence for the eight special procedures mandate-holders, totalling $43,800 and (b) communications and miscellaneous administrative costs of $1,500.

171. No provisions have been made under the programme budget for the biennium 2004-2005 for the travel, subsistence and miscellaneous requirements. However, it is anticipated that the costs could be absorbed within overall resources included in the programme budget for this biennium under section 24, Human rights.

172. Preparation of the seminar would also require consultancy provisions of $15,000 under section 24, Human rights, of the programme budget for the biennium 2004-2005. It is anticipated that these costs could be absorbed within the overall extrabudgetary resources of OHCHR.

173. Total full costs for activities envisaged in connection with organizing the open-ended seminar under operative paragraph would amount to $60,300.

174. The attention of the Commission was also drawn to the provisions of resolution 45/248 B, section VI, in which the General Assembly reaffirmed that administrative and budgetary matters should be dealt with by the Fifth Committee and the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions.

XXXVI. Decision 2005/115 on the organization of work of the sixty-second session of the Commission on Human Rights

175. Under the terms of decision 2005/115, the Commission recommended to the Economic and Social Council that it authorize six fully serviced additional meetings, including the provision of summary records, in accordance with rules 29 and 31 of the rules of procedure of the functional commissions of the Council, for the Commission's sixty-second session.

176. Total full costs of conference servicing envisaged under decision 2005/115, if adopted, would amount to $169,400 in 2006, broken down as follows:

United States dollars
Section 2. General Assembly affairs and conference services	162 800
Section 29E. Administration, Geneva	6 600
Total	169 400

177. No conference servicing provisions have been made for these six additional meetings in the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2006-2007. It is estimated that additional requirements would amount to $162,800 under section 2, General Assembly affairs and conference services and $6,600 under section 28E, Administration, Geneva.

XXXVII. Decision 2005/116 on the reform proposed by the Secretary-General in the area of human rights

178. Under the terms of decision 2005/116, the Commission decided to establish an open-ended working group to be chaired by its current Chairperson, which will convene a 5-day intersessional meeting in June 2005 to reflect coherently on the recommendations on human rights contained in the report of the Secretary-General, with a view to contributing to the intergovernmental deliberations on the proposed reform of the United Nations in the General Assembly, and to this end recommended that the Commission should convene a one-day session to formally adopt the outcome of the open-ended working group and transmit its outcome to the Secretary-General through the Economic and Social Council.

179. The five-day session of the open-ended working group would require provisions for conference servicing as follows:

United States dollars
Section 2. General Assembly affairs and conference services	157 200
Section 29E. Administration, Geneva	3 300
Total	160 500

180. The one-day session of the Commission would require provisions for conference servicing as follows:

United States dollars
Section 2. General Assembly affairs and conference services	104 000
Section 29E. Administration, Geneva	1 000
Total	105 000

181. The Commission was informed that no provisions have been made under the programme budget for the biennium 2004-2005 to convene the two meetings envisaged and that it would not be possible to absorb additional conference servicing requirements detailed in paragraphs 179 and 180 above. Therefore, an additional appropriation by the General Assembly of $261,200 would be required under section 2, General Assembly affairs and conference services, and of $4,300 under section 29E, Administration, Geneva.

182. At its resumed organizational session in May 2005, decision 2005/116 and the related statement of programme budget implications was presented to the Council in document E/2005/55. Council decision E/2005/L.11/Rev.1 was adopted after the Council was informed that the decision entailed additional appropriations of $55,900 under section 2, General Assembly affairs and conference services, and $1,400 under section 29E, Administration, Geneva.
