

Saudi Arabia: draft resolution

[Original: English]
[25 October 1974]

The Security Council,

Recalling that it is currently considering the item entitled "Relationship between the United Nations and South Africa" and noting that the question of Namibia is of great relevance to this item,

Recalling further that the Territory now known as Namibia was placed under the Mandate of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland by a decision taken by the League of Nations in 1920,

Noting that the United Kingdom entrusted the Mandate over the Territory to South Africa with a view to preparing the people for self-determination and eventual independence in conformity with the spirit and letter of the decisions of the League of Nations pertaining to mandated territories,

Taking into account that over half a century has elapsed since South Africa assumed the responsibility of preparing the people of Namibia to govern themselves, during which period all other mandated territories have gained full independence,

Mindful of the fact that, through the Trusteeship Council, the United Nations has assumed the responsibility of accelerating the process of liberation of non-self-governing territories,

1. Urges South Africa to transfer without undue delay its authority over Namibia to the Trusteeship Council;

2. Requests the Secretary-General, after consultation with the Security Council, to appoint two co-administrators from neutral countries to administer Namibia together with South Africa during the period of transfer, which should be completed within a period of two years or less;

3. Requests the United Nations Commissioner for Namibia to assist by co-ordinating the transfer of power from South Africa to the Trusteeship Council.

Letter dated 26 October 1974 from the representative of Greece to the Secretary-General

[28 October 1974]

As was confirmed by the United Nations Peace-keeping Force in Cyprus (UNFICYP) during the past two days, the Turkish army in Cyprus has advanced its positions in the region of Dherinia. More specifically, UNFICYP has confirmed an advancement of several hundred metres to the south of the demarcation line near Dherinia and the fact that Turkish units were in the process of entrenching themselves in the new positions. In another locality of the same region, the Turkish army, after having advanced its positions about 1,500 metres, retreated upon the arrival of the peace-keeping unit. I am sure that the above incidents were reported to you by the headquarters of UNFICYP and that the above Turkish action was duly characterized as an additional cease-fire violation by Turkey.

I should be grateful if you would kindly have this letter circulated as a document of the General Assembly and the Security Council.

Upon instructions from my Government, I have the honour to inform you about, and to lodge a strong protest against, a new grave violation of the cease-fire by the Turkish occupation forces in Cyprus which on 23 October 1974 advanced their position and established new armed control posts south of Famagusta, near Dherinia.
