Corrigendum

1. On page 5, Chapter III, Implementation, third paragraph, line 3, the word "rights" should read "principles" so that the phrase would read "and in a convention on human rights under the United Nations those principles can be effectively guaranteed only if all or almost all the Members of the Organization become parties to the convention."
2. On page 6, line 6, the words "gave us" should read "favour", so that the phrase would read: "being precisely those which favour State jurisdiction over the individual of a right to an international existence on the part of the individual".
