I have the pleasure to transmit herewith the text of the Madrid Declaration and Plan of Action on strengthening the legal regime against terrorism in West and Central Africa. These two documents were adopted at the conclusion of the Ministerial Round Table held in Madrid on 25 and 26 May 2006 with the participation of 26 countries of the region (see annex).

The Plan of Action sets out a programme of work to be implemented over the next two years with a view to strengthening, through bilateral technical assistance programmes and in cooperation with the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime and other international donors, national and regional legal and institutional frameworks for the appropriate and effective implementation of counter-terrorism measures.

I should be grateful if you would have these texts circulated as a document of the General Assembly under item 98 ("Crime prevention and criminal justice") and item 100 ("Measures to eliminate international terrorism") of the agenda for the sixty-first session, and of the Security Council.
