2. Republican Decree No. 19 of 2006 establishing the Darfur Compensation Commission for War-affected Persons

The President of the Republic,

In accordance with the provisions of article 58 (1) (m) of the Interim Constitution of the Sudan of 2005 and after consideration of article 21, paragraphs 200 and 201, of the Darfur Peace Agreement, has promulgated the Decree of which the text is as follows:

Name and entry into force of the Decree

1. This Decree shall be called Republican Decree No. 19 of 2006 establishing an independent and impartial commission named the Darfur Compensation Commission for War-affected Persons and it shall enter into force from the date of its signature.

Objectives of the Compensation Commission for War-affected Persons in Darfur

2. The objectives of the Commission shall be as follows:

- (a) To affirm the inalienable right of war-affected persons in Darfur to have their grievances addressed and ensure that they are compensated for harm, including physical and moral injury, and all matters relating to the armed conflict in Darfur;
- (b) To act in conjunction with the competent bodies in order to procure resources for the process of restituting property and providing compensation.

Constitution of the Commission

3. (1) The membership of the Commission shall, in accordance with article 21, paragraph 202, of the Darfur Peace Agreement, be constituted in the following manner:

- (a) A number of persons appointed by the Parties;
- (b) A number of persons representing war-affected groups;
- (c) A number of leaderships from the civilian administration;
- (d) An effective representation of women.

(2) The Commission members referred to in paragraphs (b), (c) and (d) shall be appointed by consensus.

(3) The Commission chairman and members referred to in paragraphs (1) and (2) above shall be appointed by decree of the President of the Republic.

Competencies of the Commission

4. Without prejudice to the authority of the courts, the Compensation Commission shall have the following competencies and powers:

- (a) It may process compensation claims submitted by Darfurians having suffered harm, including physical, mental and emotional injury or human, economic or other losses relating to the armed conflict in Darfur;
 - (b) It may settle claims through conciliation or through the application of laws and traditional or customary practices;
 - (c) It may issue liability orders for the restitution of or payment of compensation for property against persons proven by the Committee to be jointly liable for compensable loss or damage to property;
 - (d) It may set a time limit for the payment of monetary compensation awarded by the Commission;
 - (e) It may establish local branches and specialized chambers to assist it in the performance of its work;
 - (f) It may appoint experts to work under its supervision.
5. (1) Awards made by the Commission within its competence for the restitution of or compensation for property shall be binding.
- (2) Awards made by the Commission shall include the payment of one or more of the following forms of compensation:
- (a) Restitution of stolen, lost or damaged property;

 - (d) Provision of legal assistance and social services;
 - (e) Acknowledgement and acceptance of liability;
 - (f) Guarantees of non-repetition;
 - (g) Traditional forms of compensation.

Procedures of the Compensation Commission

6. (1) The Compensation Commission shall elaborate its own rules of procedure on the basis of international principles and practices, national law, other laws and customary practices.
- (2) Without prejudice to any of the above, the Commission shall have regard for, inter alia, the following principles and considerations:
- (a) The principle of fair and just restitution for lost or damaged property;
 - (b) The principle of providing other compensation where the restitution of property is impossible;
 - (c) The principle of no double payment of compensation for the same lost property;
 - (d) The principle of a distinction between an award for restitution of or compensation for property and punishment under criminal law;
 - (e) Due consideration for the needs of vulnerable groups such as women and children;

(f) Regard for the ability of the perpetrator(s) of the misdemeanour to pay monetary compensation.

(3) The Commission shall coordinate its work with the Darfur Rehabilitation and Resettlement Commission and the Property Claims Committees.

(4) The Commission shall refer property-related disputes arising from the restitution process to the Property Claims Committees.

Dispute between the Commission and Committees

7. Any dispute arising between the Compensation Commission and the Property Claims Committees that cannot be settled between them shall be referred to the Darfur Rehabilitation and Resettlement Commission for settlement.

Powers of the Compensation Commission

8. The Compensation Commission shall have the following powers:

(a) Awards made by the Commission within its competence for the restitution of or compensation for property shall be binding;

(b) It may withdraw sums of money from the Darfur Compensation Fund for War-affected Persons in order to satisfy awards that it makes for the payment of monetary compensation on an interim basis insofar as the sums awarded must be paid within 60 days of the issuance of the compensation award.

Statute of limitations

9. The Compensation Commission may not consider any claim for compensation submitted more than 10 years after the date of entry into force of the Darfur Peace Agreement.

Review and enforcement of awards made by the Commission

10. (1) Awards made by the Commission shall be appealed before the court of appeal in accordance with the Code of Civil Procedures of 1983.

(2) The competent criminal court shall be responsible for the enforcement of awards made by the Compensation Commission.

Headquarters of the Commission

11. The official headquarters of the Compensation Commission shall be as agreed by the Parties.

Budget of the Commission

12. The Ministry of Finance and National Economy shall provide the funds necessary for the activities of the Compensation Commission.

Secretariat

13. The Commission may designate a secretariat to assist it in performing its activities and monitoring the enforcement of its awards.

Regulations

14. The Commission may elaborate such regulations as are necessary for the implementation of this Decree.

Issued under my signature on the second day of the month of Ramadan A.H. 1427, corresponding to the twenty-fourth day of the month of September A.D. 2006.
