

Security Council

Distr.
GENERAL

S/16185
25 November 1983

ORIGINAL: ENGLISH

---

LETTER DATED 25 NOVEMBER 1983 FROM THE PERMANENT REPRESENTATIVE OF THE ISLAMIC REPUBLIC OF IRAN TO THE UNITED NATIONS ADDRESSED TO THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

Upon instructions from my Government, and pursuant to my previous letters, I have the honour to enclose 10 photographs of damage to civilian sectors of the towns of Behbahan, Dezful, Marivan and Masjed-Soleiman inflicted by recent Iraqi missile attacks.

I would appreciate it if the attached photographs could be distributed as a document of the Security Council.

(Signed) Said RAJAIE KHORASSANI
Ambassador
Permanent Representative

Iraqi forces attacked the city of Behbahan, south Iran, on Oct. 26, 1983, with long-range missiles, when several people were martyred and wounded. The main target was a school in which over 80 students were martyred.

/...

Dezful was the target of the attack of the Iraqi Baathist forces in which a number of people were martyred and wounded on Oct. 23, 1983

/...

Annex III

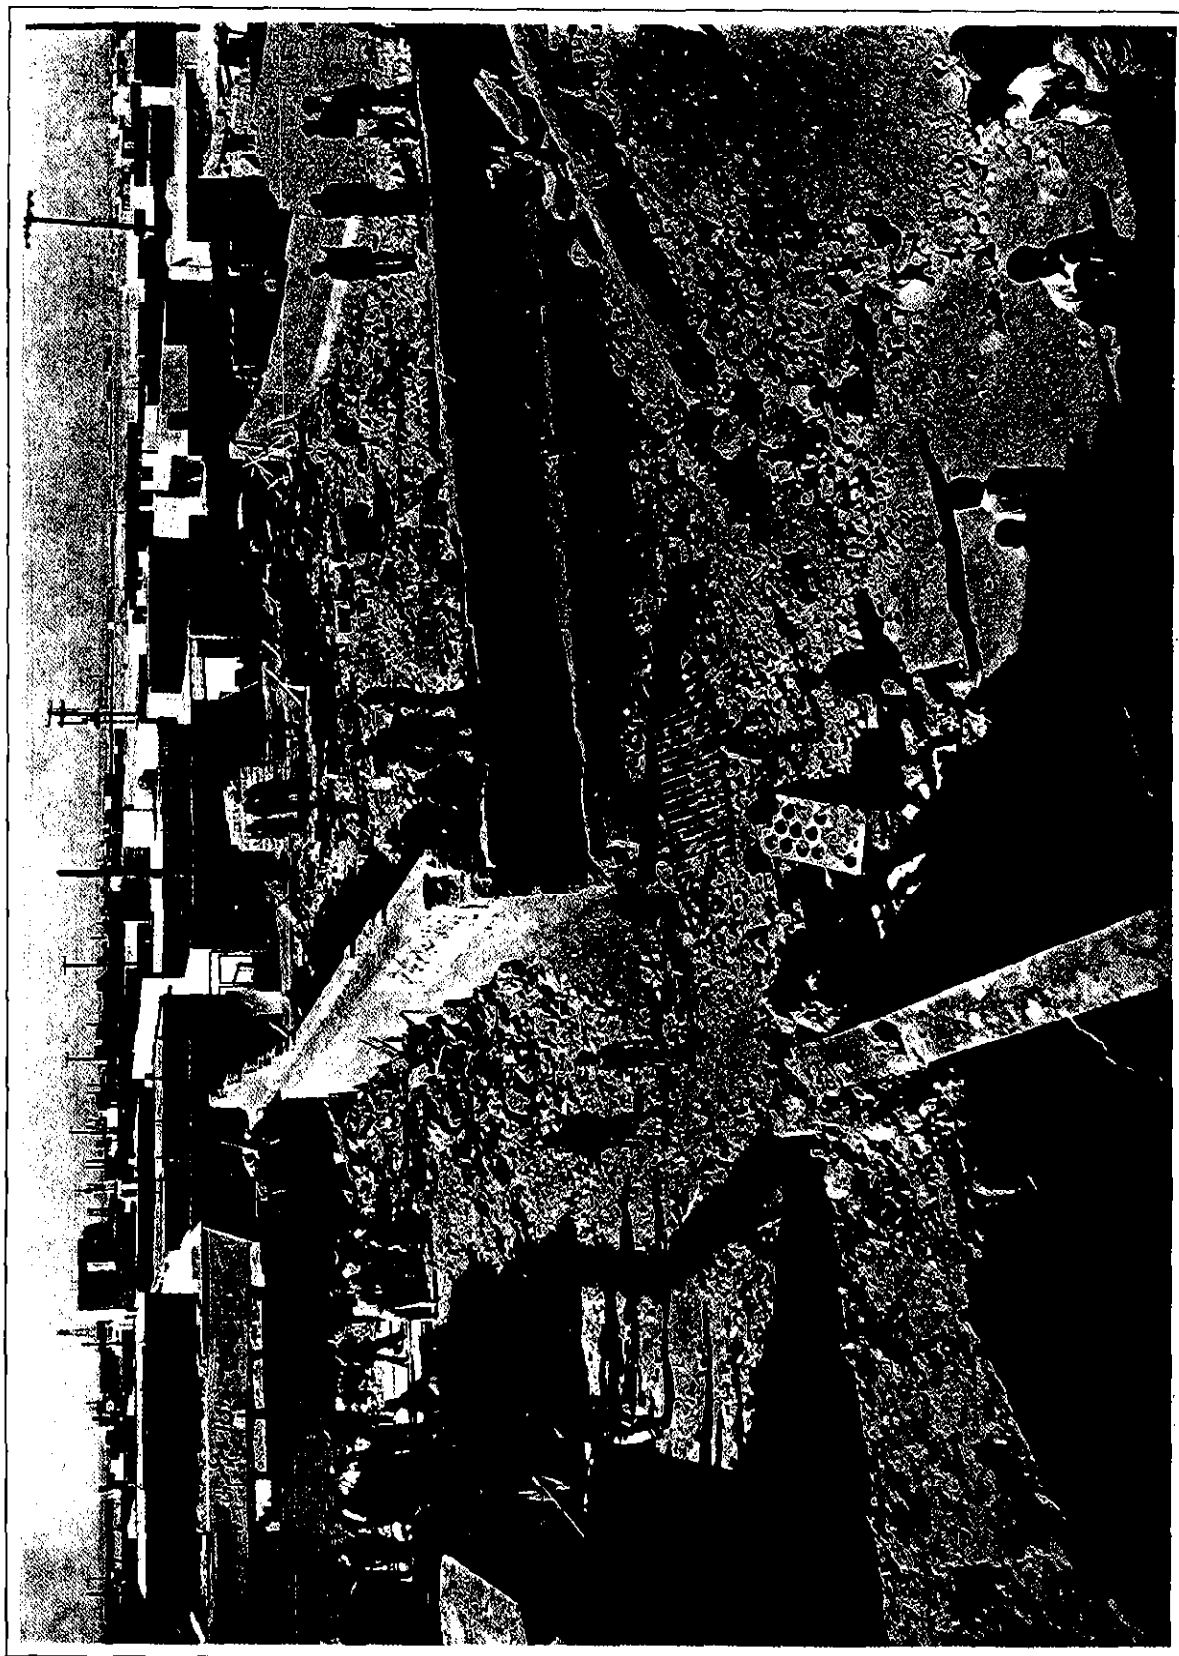

War Information HQ, Supreme Defence Council

MASJID SOLEIMAN, OCTOBER 23, 1983 -
The civilian areas of the Iranian city of Masjid Soleiman, 120 kms east of the Iraqi border, was attacked by three Soviet-made missiles on October 22, martyring 94 people and wounding 140 others. Since the start of the Iraqi imposed war on September 23, 1980, the city have been attacked at least in five other instances, martyring 40 and wounding 134 others.

/...

Annex IV

Behbahan, Oct. 27, IRNA Telephoto - 'Martyr Hamdollah Pirouz' junior High-school which was completely wrecked in a missile attack by the Iraqi regime on Oct. 26, 1983, while the students were attending classes. Some 74 people, mainly students, were martyred and 400 others were wounded during the incident, which took place at 17:15 hours (local time).

War Information H.Q.

/...

Annex V

War Information Headquarters

MARIVAN, October 21, 1983.
As a result of numerous Iraqi air raids and artillery attacks on the border town of Marivan, in Iran's Kurdistan Province, one out of every 15 buildings in the city has been totally destroyed, one out of every 6 buildings has been generally damaged and one out of every 5 buildings has received minor damage.

/...

Annex VI

On September 1, 1983, the invading Iraqi fighter aircraft bombarded four times the residential and civilian areas of Marivan, a western town of Iran. According to the latest statistics, a total of 46 civilians were martyred and 200 wounded.
The following day the Iraqi forces once again repeated the attack and wrought more damage.
The above picture shows the devastated residential areas of Marivan.

/...

Annex VII

MARIVAN, October 21, 1983.

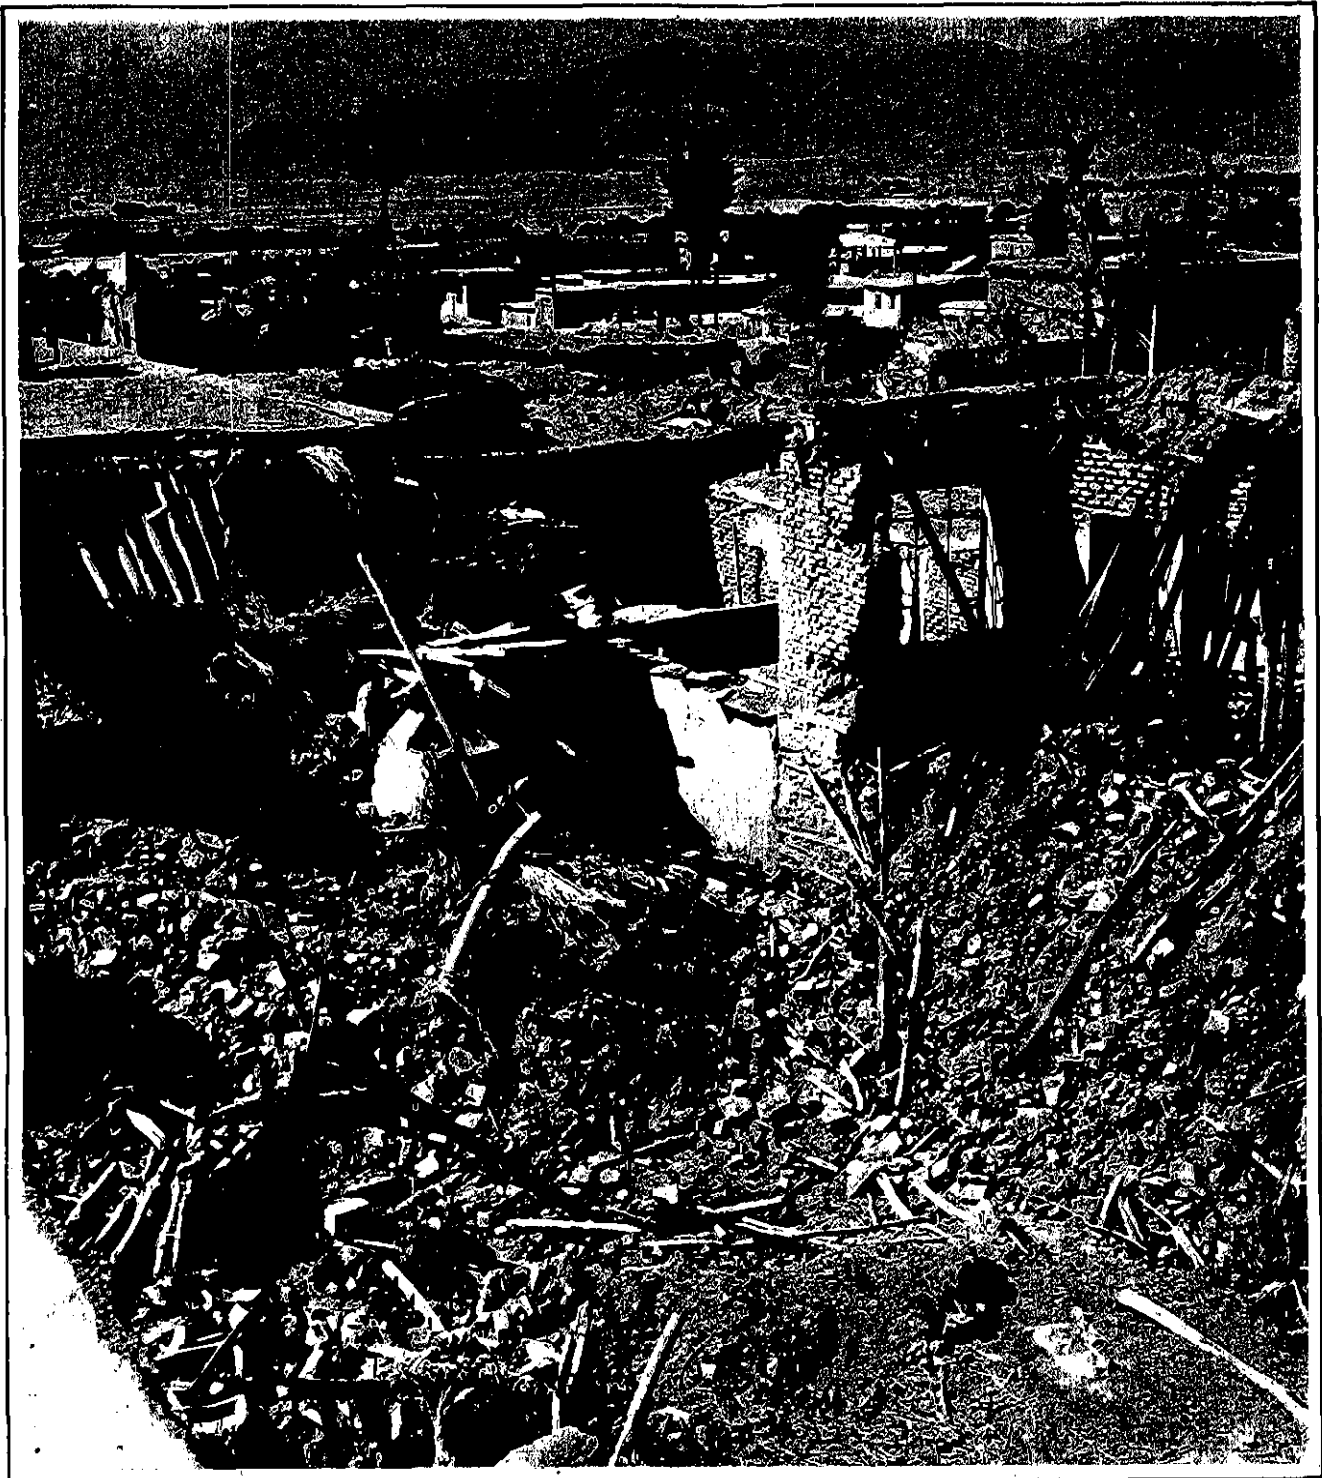

Three schools and six mosques have been badly damaged in numerous Iraqi artillery attacks and air raids against the Kurdish city of Marivan. The Ayatollah Taleqani High School (seen in these photos) has received the worst damage by the Iraqi attacks. Also three women school teachers from the Shohada Elementary School have been martyred in recent Iraqi bombardments. Educational activity in the city has come to a standstill because of continuous Iraqi attacks since the beginning of the Academic year.

War Information Headquarters

/...

Annex VIII

On September 1, 1983, the invading Iraqi fighter aircraft bombarded four times the residential and civilian areas of Marivan, a western town of Iran. According to the latest statistics, a total of 46 civilians were martyred and 200 wounded.

The following day the Iraqi forces once again repeated the attack and wrought more damage. The above picture shows the devastated residential areas of Marivan.

/...

Annex IX

War Information HQ, Supreme Defence Council

MASJED SOLEIMAN, OCTOBER 23, 1983 -
An elderly resident of Masjed Soleiman, in Iran's Khuzestan Province, searches for his belongings after a missile attack by Iraq demolished his home.
Three Soviet-made missiles hit the residential quarters here in the afternoon of October 22, martyring 94 people and wounding 140 others.

/...

Annex X

On September 1, 1983, the invading Iraqi fighter aircraft bombarded four times the residential and civilian areas of Marivan, a western town of Iran. According to the latest statistics, a total of 46 civilians were martyred and 200 wounded.

The following day the Iraqi forces once again repeated the attack and wrought more damage. The above picture shows the devastated residential areas of Marivan.

-----