Upper Volta, Zambia and Zimbabwe: draft resolution

The Security Council,

Having considered the statement of the Permanent Representative of the People's Republic of Angola,

Recalling its resolutions 387 (1976), 418 (1977), 428 (1978), 447 (1979), 454 (1979), 475 (1980) and 545 (1983),

Gravely concerned at the renewed escalation of unprovoked bombings and persistent acts of aggression, including the continued military occupation, committed by the racist régime of South Africa in violation of the sovereignty, airspace and territorial integrity of the People's Republic of Angola,

Grieved at the tragic and mounting loss of human life and concerned about the damage and destruction of property resulting from those escalated bombings, other acts of aggression and military occupation of South Africa against the territory of the People's Republic of Angola,

Indignant at the continued military occupation of parts of the territory of Angola by South Africa in contravention of the United Nations Charter and relevant Security Council resolutions,

Conscious of the need to take effective steps for the prevention and removal of all threats to international peace and security posed by South Africa's acts of aggression,

1. Strongly condemns South Africa for its renewed, intensified premeditated and unprovoked bombings, as well as the continuing occupation of parts of the territory of the People's Republic of Angola which constitutes a flagrant violation of the sovereignty and territorial integrity of that country and pose a serious threat to international peace and security;

2. Further strongly condemns South Africa for its utilization of the international territory of Namibia as a spring board for perpetrating the armed attacks as well as sustaining its occupation of parts of the territory of the People's Republic of Angola;

3. Demands that South Africa cease immediately all bombings and other acts of aggression and unconditionally withdraw forthwith all its military forces occupying Angolan territory as well as undertake to scrupulously respect the sovereignty, airspace, territorial integrity and independence of the People's Republic of Angola;
4. Calls upon all States to implement fully the arms embargo imposed against South Africa in Security Council resolution 418 (1977);
5. Reaffirms the right of the People's Republic of Angola in accordance with the relevant provisions of the United Nations Charter, and in particular Article 51, to take all the measures necessary to defend and safeguard its sovereignty, territorial integrity and independence;
6. Requests Member States to extend all necessary assistance to the People's Republic of Angola, in order to strengthen its defence capabilities in the face of South Africa's escalating military attacks as well as its continuing occupation of parts of Angola;
7. Reaffirms further, that Angola is entitled to prompt and adequate compensation for the damage to life and property consequent upon these acts of aggression, and the continuing occupation of parts of its territory by the South African military forces;
8. Decides to meet again in the event of non-compliance by South Africa with the present resolution in order to consider the adoption of more effective measures under Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations;
9. Requests the Secretary-General to follow up and report to the Security Council on the implementation of the present resolution within forty-eight hours;
10. Decides to remain seized of the matter.
