In a letter dated 8 February 1984 addressed to the Secretary-General, on behalf of the Government of Brunei Darussalam, the Head of State and Prime Minister submitted an application for membership in the United Nations (S/16353).

The Security Council considered the application at its 2517th and 2518th meetings, held on 24 February 1984.

At the 2517th meeting, in accordance with the provisions of rule 59 of the Council's provisional rules of procedure, the Council referred the application of Brunei Darussalam to the Committee on the Admission of New Members for examination and report.

At the 2518th meeting, the President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representative of Indonesia, at his request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote.

At that meeting, the Council then voted on the draft resolution contained in paragraph 3 of the report of the Committee on the Admission of New Members and adopted it unanimously as resolution 548 (1984).

Resolution 548 (1984) reads as follows:

The Security Council,

Having examined the application of Brunei Darussalam for admission to the United Nations (S/16353),

Recommends to the General Assembly that Brunei Darussalam be admitted to membership in the United Nations.
