NOTE BY THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

At the 56th plenary meeting of its thirty-eighth session, on 15 November 1983, the General Assembly adopted resolution 38/11, entitled "Proposed new racial constitution of South Africa". 1/ In paragraph 6 of that resolution, the General Assembly

"Requests the Security Council, as a matter of urgency, to consider the serious implications of the so-called "constitutional proposals" and to take all necessary measures, in accordance with the Charter, to avert the further aggravation of tension and conflict in South Africa and in southern Africa as a whole".
