Addendum No. 2

Agreement has been reached between the Secretary-General and the Governments concerned regarding the addition to the United Nations Force in the Congo of one battalion from Ghana, 2 battalions from Ethiopia, one battalion from Morocco and one battalion from Tunisia. This would bring the present strength of the Force up to 12 African battalions and one Swedish battalion.

The new troops will be airlifted to the Congo as soon as possible.

As stated in the report, an offer of troops, amounting to 4 companies, from the Federation of Mali has been accepted. The transfer will take place as soon as the unit is fully organized which is expected to be the case around 1 August.
