- Stressing on the importance of commitment to achieve Iraqi national reconciliation and accord, praising the role of the Iraqi government in this regard, and calling on the Arab League to continue its efforts in this regard in coordination and cooperation with the Iraqi government and parties concerned.

Ad-hoc Support Mechanism for Expanded Ministerial Conference of Neighboring States to Iraq

Introduction

The first expanded ministerial conference of neighboring states to Iraq held in Sharm el-sheikh, Egypt on 4 May 2007 supported the establishment of regional working groups headed by the government of Iraq in the areas of energy, security and Iraqi refugees. The meeting also called for the establishment of a "follow-up group" to regularly review progress in implementing the conclusions" reached at the conference. The initial meetings of the three working groups were held in Istanbul from 28 to 29 June 2007, Amman on 22 July 2007 and Damascus from 8 to 9 August 2007. These meetings were important practical steps in promoting regional cooperation in the areas of common interest. The outcomes also underlined the need for a proper follow-up mechanism. Ideas for such a mechanism were discussed at the Preparatory Conference in Baghdad on 9 September 2007.

Following those discussions, the Secretary-General of the United Nations proposed at the High-Level meeting on Iraq on 22 September 2007 in New York that a Support Mechanism be established to assist in the work of the expanded ministerial process and the regional working group. The expanded Neighboring Countries Ministerial Conference decided to establish An Ad-Hoc Support Mechanism within the Iraqi Ministry of Foreign Affairs to review progress in implementing the conclusions reached at the Ministerial Conferences and disseminate information in a timely manner. The Ministerial conference welcomed the UN's offer to provide resources to such a 'Support Mechanism' the terms and the mission to be agreed upon by the members of the Expanded Neighbors process.

Concept

The Ad-Hoc Support Mechanism is an integral part of the government of Iraq and actively assisted by the United Nations on technical and organizational issues. The government of Iraq has designated a senior official as Coordinator under the authority of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Baghdad. The United Nations has designated a senior official as a principle contact with the Ad-Hoc Support Mechanism as well as established a unit in UNAMI tasked with support functions.

Functions

The Ad-Hoc Support Mechanism shall be responsible for the following;

- I – Assist in Preparing draft plans and schedules for future expanded ministerial conferences, as well as regional working group meetings to be considered by participants in consultation with the hosting countries.
- II – Consult participants on the objectives and expected outcomes of the conferences and meetings and ensure timely distribution of all relevant documents to all participants.
- III – Assist in Preparing draft programs, agendas, position papers and outcome documents in consultation and cooperation with the hosting countries. For consideration by participants.
- IV – Liaise with the participants on organizational and logistic matters related to the preparation of ministerial conferences and working group meetings.
- V - Assist the host countries by providing relevant information and identifying possible options for consideration by the working groups.
- VI – Record decisions reached, distribute minutes of the meetings and archive key documents.

VII – Help to ensure proper follow-up by maintaining a record of all decisions reached and facilitate their implementation by contacts with relevant international and regional organizations.

United Nations Role in assisting the Ad-Hoc Support Mechanism

In accordance with paragraph 2(a) (IV) of the Security Council Resolution 1770(2007), the United Nations, shall provide the Ad-Hoc Support Mechanism with the following assistance;

I – Provide technical inputs for draft programs, agendas, position papers and outcome documents as well as policy advice.

II – Contribute to the resourcing the Ad-Hoc Support Mechanism.

III – Identify qualified technical experts to advise the Government of Iraq.

IV – Offer training on multilateral and regional diplomacy to Iraq.

V – Maintain contacts with neighboring states on organizational and logistic issues related to the work of the Ad-Hoc Support Mechanism.

VI – Assist in the following-up of the recommendations of the Working Groups and the decisions of the Ministerial conferences.
