The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice recommends to the Economic and Social Council the adoption of the following draft resolution:

Implementation of the Programme of Action, 2006-2010, on strengthening the rule of law and the criminal justice systems in Africa

The Economic and Social Council,

Recalling the United Nations Millennium Declaration,¹ in which Heads of State and Government pledged to support the consolidation of democracy in Africa and to assist Africans in their struggle for lasting peace, poverty eradication and sustainable human development,

Recalling also General Assembly resolution 59/159 of 20 December 2004 on strengthening the United Nations Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice Programme, in particular its technical cooperation capacity,

Recalling further General Assembly resolution 60/1 of 16 September 2005 on the 2005 World Summit Outcome, in particular paragraph 68 on meeting the special needs of Africa,

Recalling its resolution 2004/32 of 21 July 2004 and decision 2005/248 of 22 July 2005 on the implementation of technical assistance projects in Africa by the

* On behalf of the States Members of the United Nations that are members of the Group of African States.

United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime, in which it requested the Office to organize a special event among interested Member States, relevant agencies and institutes providing technical assistance to Africa, as well as those promoting South-South cooperation,

Recalling also General Assembly resolution 60/175 of 16 December 2005, in which the Assembly took note of the comprehensive Programme of Action, 2006-2010, that emanated from the Round Table for Africa, held in Abuja on 5 and 6 September 2005 pursuant to Economic and Social Council decision 2005/248,

Recalling further decision EX.CL/Dec.169 (VI), adopted by the Executive Council of the African Union at its sixth ordinary session and endorsed by the Assembly of Heads of State and Government at its fourth ordinary session, held in Abuja in January 2005,

Recognizing the important role of the New Partnership for Africa's Development,² the African Peer Review Mechanism and its implementation process,

Welcoming the Paris Declaration on Aid Effectiveness, adopted at the Paris High-level Forum, held from 28 February to 2 March 2005, by the attending ministers of developed and developing countries, together with heads of bilateral and multilateral development institutions,

Welcoming also the adoption by the European Council of the EU Strategy for Africa: towards a Euro-African pact to accelerate Africa's development,³

Taking note of the report of the Secretary-General entitled "In larger freedom: towards development, security and human rights for all",⁴

1. Welcomes the publication in June 2005 of the study by the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime entitled Crime and Development in Africa;

2. Welcomes also the outcome of the Round Table for Africa: Crime and Drugs as Impediments to Security and Development in Africa: Strengthening the Rule of Law, hosted by the Government of Nigeria in Abuja on 5 and 6 September 2005, embodied in the comprehensive Programme of Action, 2006-2010, aimed at strengthening the rule of law and the criminal justice systems in Africa;

3. Expresses its appreciation to the Government of Nigeria for hosting the Round Table for Africa, to the Governments of France and the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and other development partners for their financial and related support for the meeting, as well as to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime for organizing the event;

4. Invites all African States and regional and subregional institutions to mainstream crime and drug control measures in their national and regional development strategies, to mobilize all national stakeholders and to make every effort to allocate national resources for the implementation of the Programme of Action;
