Letter dated 28 June 1984 from the Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Islamic Republic of Iran addressed to the Secretary-General

As the Government of the Islamic Republic of Iran, according to the past record of Iraqi atrocities, has anticipated, the Baathi régime of Iraq once again did not honour its own commitment and proved, beyond a shadow of a doubt, to be totally untrustworthy. The Iraqi régime, after the effective date of the moratorium regarding the cessation of attacks on residential areas, has disgracefully violated the agreement in many instances, some of which have already been reported. I would like to bring to your attention a list of all such Iraqi attacks up until 26 June, for your consideration.

1. Attack on the city of Abadan on 14 June at 2140 hours, local time with RPG 7, which damaged and set ablaze the Imam Khomeini Hospital.
2. Attack on Khosro Abad in the same day with mortars which injured seven civilians.
3. Attack on Khorramshahr in the same day at 1130 and 1900 hours, local time, which damaged a number of residential units.
4. Attacks on Abadan on 17 June at 1000 and 1100 hours, local time, which destroyed and set ablaze many residential units.
5. Attack on Abadan on 18 June, which injured one civilian and damaged a school and many residential units.
6. Attacks on Khorramshahr on 18 June at 1932, 1943, 2125, 2240 and 2400, local time, which damaged the Jami Mosque, the Governorate building and a service station.
7. Attack on Abadan on 21 June between 1800 to 1900 hours, local time, which ruined the city's hospital and some residential units and set ablaze four sections of the city.
8. Attack on Abadan on 22 June, setting ablaze three sections of the city.
9. Attack on Abadan on 24 June, which damaged 18 residential units and shops, setting ablaze eight sections of the city.
10. Attack on Sardasht on 26 June 1984 at 1400 hours, local time, which injured one civilian and ruined one residential unit.

11. Attack on Abadan on 26 June between 1700 to 1900 hours, local time, which ruined eight residential units and set ablaze two sections of the city.
