The past five years have also seen the further beneficial development of Poland's friendly relations with the other socialist countries: the German Democratic Republic, Czechoslovakia, Bulgaria, Hungary, Romania, Yugoslavia, Mongolia, Cuba, the Democratic Republic of Viet-Nam and the Democratic People's Republic of Korea. These relations involve all spheres of life and produce substantial mutual benefits. The Polish United Workers' Party will continue to strive to develop and enrich the forms of this co-operation and raise it to an ever-higher level in accordance with the growing material and spiritual needs of our nations.
