Information circular*

To: Members of the staff

From: The Assistant Secretary-General for Human Resources Management

Subject: United Nations sabbatical leave programme for 2010

1. The purpose of the present information circular is to invite staff to apply for the sabbatical leave programme in 2010, in accordance with the provisions of administrative instruction ST/AI/2000/4 of 5 April 2000.

Eligibility

2. Administrative instruction ST/AI/2000/4 defines the conditions under which staff members may be granted sabbatical leave. For purposes of eligibility for the 2010 sabbatical leave programme, section 2 of instruction ST/AI/2000/4 provides that the programme is “open to staff members with five years of service with the United Nations Secretariat and who are expected to serve for no less than two years after the completion of the sabbatical leave”.

Selection of institution

3. Interested staff members are responsible for identifying the institution or organization in which they propose to carry out their research or study project and for securing their acceptance by that institution or organization. In addition to universities and independent institutions worldwide, including participating research and training centres of the United Nations University and institutions that are members of the Academic Council on the United Nations System, research or study projects may also be pursued in other relevant organizations and institutions. Staff members may wish to consult the list of institutions that are members of the Academic Council on the United Nations System contained in annex II to the present circular and the list of participating research and training centres of the United Nations University contained in annex III.

* Expiration date of the present information circular: 31 December 2010.

Application procedures

4. Each application must include the following documents:

- (a) Application form contained in annex I to the present circular;
- (b) Proposal describing the research project;
- (c) Written endorsement by the head of department or office or chief mission support responsible for the work of the applicant during the proposed research or study project, which must be attached;
- (d) Two signed letters of recommendation;
- (e) Written correspondence on potential acceptance from the proposed sabbatical institution.

Applicants are requested to submit all of the above documents through their respective head of department or office or chief mission support to the Officer-in-Charge, Sabbatical leave programme, Room M-14033E, Learning, Development and Human Resources Services Division, Office of Human Resources Management, New York, NY 10017, by 17 November 2009.

5. The proposal, which should not exceed four pages, should contain the following information:

- (a) Title of the research or study project;
- (b) Field of the research or study project;
- (c) Rationale for the research or study project;
- (d) Relationship of the research or study project to the work of the individual and to the work of the Organization;
- (e) Outline of topic or topics to be covered;
- (f) Study or research activities;
- (g) Detailed methodology;
- (h) Schedule of work of the research or study project, with an indication of any preparatory work already accomplished;
- (i) Usefulness of the expected outcome of the research or study project and its practical implications for the individual and the Organization.

Applicants should indicate in the application form the name and address of the institution or organization in which they wish to carry out their research or study project, specifying the type of support services and facilities that the institution or organization is prepared to provide during the period of the sabbatical leave.

6. All proposals will be evaluated by a selection committee on the basis of the criteria set out in administrative instruction ST/AI/2000/4. The terms of the proposal shall be binding for the staff member. Late or incomplete applications will not be considered.

7. Each applicant and his/her head of department or office or chief mission support will be informed of the decision of the Selection Committee. The selected staff members will be requested to accept in writing the specified conditions of the award.

8. The application form contained in annex I is also available online in English and French (United Nations Intranet — Forms) as form P.298 (8-02)-E or -F (the English version is attached).
