

Believing that the codification of the rules of international law in this field would assist in promoting the purposes and principles of the Charter of the United Nations,

1. Decides that an international conference of plenipotentiaries shall be convoked to consider the question of diplomatic intercourse and immunities and to embody the results of its work in an international convention, together with such ancillary instruments as may be necessary;

2. Requests the Secretary-General to convoke the conference at Vienna not later than the spring of 1961;

3. Invites all States Members of the United Nations, States members of the specialized agencies and States parties to the Statute of the International Court of Justice to participate in the conference and to include among their representatives experts competent in the field to be considered;

4. Invites the specialized agencies and the interested inter-governmental organizations to send observers to the conference;

5. Requests the Secretary-General to present to the conference all relevant documentation, and recommendations relating to its methods of work and procedures and to other questions of an administrative nature;

6. Requests the Secretary-General to arrange also for the necessary staff and facilities which would be required for the conference;

7. Refers to the conference chapter III of the report of the International Law Commission covering the work of its tenth session,³ as the basis for its consideration of the question of diplomatic intercourse and immunities;

8. Expresses the hope that the conference will be fully attended.

847th plenary meeting,
7 December 1959.

1451 (XIV). Question of the publication of a United Nations juridical yearbook

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 1291 (XIII) of 5 December 1958 regarding the question of the publication of a United Nations juridical yearbook,

Taking note of the report of the Secretary-General on the matter,⁴

Considering that it would be highly desirable that documentary materials of a legal character relating to the United Nations should be made available in a yearly volume for the use of Governments as well as organizations and all persons interested in the development of international law,

1. Decides that a United Nations juridical yearbook which would include documentary materials of a legal character relating to the United Nations should be published;

2. Requests the Secretary-General, as a first step, to submit a report to the General Assembly at its fifteenth session containing a detailed outline of such a yearbook;

³ Ibid., Thirteenth Session, Supplement No. 9 (A/3859 and Corr.1).

⁴ Ibid., Fourteenth Session, Annexes, agenda item 57, document A/4151.

3. Decides to consider this report at its fifteenth session.

847th plenary meeting,
7 December 1959.

1452 (XIV). Reservations to multilateral conventions: the Convention on the Inter-Governmental Maritime Consultative Organization

A

The General Assembly,

Having considered the item entitled "Reservations to multilateral conventions: the Convention on the Inter-Governmental Maritime Consultative Organization", as well as India's instrument of acceptance of the Convention on the Inter-Governmental Maritime Consultative Organization and the report of the Secretary-General,⁵

Noting that the Secretary-General of the United Nations acts as the depositary authority in respect of that Convention,

Noting the statement made on behalf of India at the 614th meeting of the Sixth Committee on 19 October 1959, explaining that the Indian declaration was a declaration of policy and that it does not constitute a reservation,

1. Expresses its appreciation of the information and materials made available to the General Assembly;

2. Expresses the hope that, in the light of the above-mentioned statement of India, an appropriate solution may be reached in the Inter-Governmental Maritime Consultative Organization at an early date to regularize the position of India;

3. Requests the Secretary-General to transmit to the Inter-Governmental Maritime Consultative Organization the present resolution together with the relevant records and documentation.

847th plenary meeting,
7 December 1959.

B

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 598 (VI) of 12 January 1952,

1. Decides to amend paragraph 3 (b) of that resolution by requesting the Secretary-General to apply the aforesaid paragraph to his depositary practice, until such time as the General Assembly may give further instructions, in respect of all conventions concluded under the auspices of the United Nations which do not contain provisions to the contrary;

2. Requests the Secretary-General to obtain information from all depositary States and international organizations with respect to depositary practice in relation to reservations, and to prepare a summary of such practices, including his own, for use by the International Law Commission in preparing its reports on the law of treaties and by the General Assembly in considering these reports.

847th plenary meeting,
7 December 1959.

⁵ Ibid., agenda item 65, document A/4235.
