PROPOSED PROGRAMME BUDGET FOR THE BIENNIUM 1978-1979

Compensation for certain officers serving the General Assembly

United States: draft decision

The General Assembly,

Decides to reconsider at its thirty-third regular session the proposals of the Secretary-General with regard to compensation for the two full-term Commissioners of the International Civil Service Commission contained in document A/C.5/32/28 and the relevant comments of the Advisory Committee in document A/32/8/Add.11,

Requests the Secretary-General, with such impartial advice as he deems desirable, to prepare a study on the conditions of service and compensation appropriate for those officers serving the General Assembly, other than Secretariat officials, whose terms and conditions of selection, duties and responsibilities preclude active engagement by governmental, intergovernmental or other specified entities.
