

Having in mind the provisions of the Geneva Convention relative to the Protection of Civilian Persons in Time of War of 12 August 1949 and other relevant conventions and regulations,

Deeply concerned by the persistence of violations of human rights and fundamental freedoms as a result of foreign occupation,

Decides to examine the question of the violation of human rights and fundamental freedoms in Western Sahara at its thirty-sixth session as a matter of high priority.