Statement by the representative of the Secretary-General

1. The Temporary Chairperson, speaking on behalf of the Secretary-General, said that, since the third meeting in 2007, the number of States parties to the Convention had increased from 37 to 42. The Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR) would use the occasion of the twentieth anniversary, in 2010, of the adoption of the Convention to promote its ratification, given that protection of human rights in the context of migration was one of the six thematic priorities for OHCHR for the biennium 2010-2011.

2. The Committee on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families had now examined 12 initial reports; 2 further reports were pending. Ecuador was the first State party to have submitted its second periodic report to the Committee. The initial reports of 25 other States were overdue and should be presented without delay in order to enhance the Committee's monitoring function.

3. On 15 September 2008, Mexico had become the second State party to make a declaration under article 77 of the Convention recognizing the Committee's competence to consider communications from individuals about violations of the Convention. The communications procedure would enter into force when 10 States parties had made such a declaration. During its eleventh session the Committee had held a Day of General Discussion on Migrant Domestic Workers and had started work on elaborating a general comment on that subject.

Election of the Chairperson

4. Ms. Čolaković (Bosnia and Herzegovina) nominated Mr. Gutiérrez (Peru) as Chairperson.

Adoption of the agenda (CMW/SP/8)

Rule 2 provided that the credentials of representatives and the names of members of delegations should be submitted to the Secretary-General not less than one week before the date of the opening of the meeting. As he had yet to receive proper credentials from some of the States parties represented at the meeting, he suggested that, in accordance with rule 3, the representatives of those States parties should be entitled provisionally to participate in the meeting and urged them to submit their credentials as soon as possible.

9. It was so decided.

Biographical data on three additional candidates, which had been received after the deadline of 4 September 2009, were contained in documents CMW/SP/9/Add.1 and Add.2.
