NOTE BY THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

At the 13th plenary meeting of its thirty-ninth session, on 28 September 1984, the General Assembly adopted resolution 39/2, entitled "Situation in South Africa". <sup>1/</sup>

In paragraph 8 of that resolution, the General Assembly

"Requests the Security Council, as a matter of urgency, to consider the serious situation in South Africa emanating from the imposition of the so-called 'new constitution' and to take all necessary measures, in accordance with the Charter of the United Nations, to avert the further aggravation of tension and conflict in South Africa and in southern Africa as a whole".
