Permanent Representative of the Central African Republic, Ambassador Fernand Poukré-Kono, and Permanent Representative of Belgium, Ambassador Jan Grauls, in his capacity as Chair of the Peacebuilding Commission country configuration on the Central African Republic, participated in this dialogue.

On 10 August, the Council members were briefed by Special Representative of the Secretary-General and Head of MINURCAT Youssef Mahmoud on the report of the Secretary-General on this Mission. Minister for Foreign Affairs, Regional Integration and Francophone World of the Central African Republic Antoine Gambi and Permanent Representative of Chad, Ambassador Ahmad Allam-mi, addressed the Council.

In the consultations of the whole that followed, members of the Council welcomed the briefing of Mr. Mahmood, and discussed the security and humanitarian situation in eastern Chad and north-eastern Central African Republic, which continues to be volatile. It was emphasized that the improved relations between Chad and the Sudan are of particular importance for subregional stability. They expressed appreciation for the efforts of the Governments of Chad and the Central African Republic to exercise their responsibility to protect civilians and humanitarian workers. In this context, the members of the Council encouraged the Government of Chad to continue efforts to ensure the effectiveness and sustainability of the Détachement intégré de sécurité (DIS) and to keep the Council informed. They also discussed the consequences of the withdrawal of MINURCAT from the Central African Republic and the need to avoid any vacuum of security in the subregion.

On 11 August, the Council held consultations of the whole on the item “Strengthening cooperation between the United Nations system and the Central African region in the maintenance of peace and security” and heard a briefing of Assistant Secretary-General for Political Affairs Tayé-Brook Zerihoun on the proposal of the Secretary-General to establish a United Nations Office for Central Africa in Libreville, Gabon.

On 18 August, the members of the Council adopted a press statement of its President on the Democratic Republic of Congo, in which the members of the Council condemned in the strongest terms attacks on United Nations Organization Stabilization Mission in the Democratic Republic of Congo (MONUSCO) peacekeepers in Kirumba on 18 August, which resulted in the deaths of three Indian soldiers and left at least six more wounded. They expressed their condolences to the families of those killed in the attack and to the Government of India, encouraged the Government of the Democratic Republic of Congo to ensure that the perpetrators are swiftly brought to justice, reiterated their support for MONUSCO and demanded that all parties cooperate fully with the operations of MONUSCO.

On 23 August, in consultations of the whole, the Council heard briefings by Assistant Secretary-General for Peacekeeping Operations Atul Khare and Under-Secretary-General for Humanitarian Affairs and Emergency Relief Coordinator John Holmes, on the security and humanitarian situation in Darfur, particularly in Kalma camp for internally displaced persons in southern Darfur. Tensions sparked by deadly clashes over IDPs’ participation in the Doha peace process escalated sharply there with some IDPs protesting the peace talks and others supporting them. Mr. Khare informed that the situation in Kalma had improved but remained tense and insecure, with continuing incidents of sporadic shooting. Mr. Holmes expressed serious concern over an intention of the Sudanese authorities to relocate the IDPs from Kalma to new camps, stressing that the IDPs relocation or return should be voluntarily.

The members of the Council condemned the instigation of violence in Kalma and welcomed UNAMID efforts to increase patrols and restore calm. They stressed the need for a demilitarized status of this and other IDP camps and condemned any attacks against humanitarian or United Nations personnel in Darfur, expressing deep concern at the trend of kidnapping and intimidation. The members of the Council recalled the obligation of the Sudanese authorities and all other parties to ensure timely and unhindered humanitarian access and called for enhanced cooperation among all parties concerned to ensure that assistance is given to the people in need. They reiterated the importance of ensuring an effective and inclusive process of political settlement in Darfur and urged all parties to join the Doha process, resolve their differences through dialogue and refrain from violence.

On 24 August, the Security Council adopted a press statement of its President condemning in strongest terms the attack of the extremists on the Muna Hotel in Mogadishu, which resulted in the death and injury of both civilians and members of the Somali Parliament.

The Security Council called for the perpetrators to be brought swiftly to justice and reiterated its full support to the Transitional Federal Government and the African Union Mission in Somalia (AMISOM).

On 24 August, the Security Council held a debate on piracy off the coast of Somalia. A number of States, and representatives of two international organizations were invited to participate under rules 37 and 39 of the Council's provisional rules of procedure.

Secretary-General Ban Ki-Moon addressed the Council, calling for enhanced international cooperation in order to effectively fight the threat piracy poses to the safety of maritime navigation and stability in the region. The Council was briefed by Under-Secretary-General for Legal Affairs, the Legal Counsel, Patricia O'Brien, who laid out the key points of the report of the Secretary-General on possible options to further the aim of prosecuting and imprisoning persons responsible for acts of piracy and armed robbery at sea off the coast of Somalia.

Ambassador Vitaly Churkin read out the presidential statement (S/PRST/2010/16) on behalf of the Council.

The exchange of views that followed reaffirmed that piracy derived from general instability and lack of law and order in Somalia and, consequently, peace, stability, development and the respect for human rights were necessary to create the conditions for its durable eradication. Participants welcomed the report by the Secretary-General setting out various options for bringing pirates and their supporters to justice as a solid foundation for future work in this regard, as well as his intention to appoint a Special Adviser on legal issues related to piracy off the coast of Somalia. They commended the ongoing efforts of States to prosecute suspected pirates in their national courts, while stressing the need for their continued commitment to address challenges such as the limited judicial and prison capacity of States in the region. The need for regular review of progress achieved in prosecution and imprisonment of persons responsible for acts of piracy and armed robbery at sea was also emphasized, with a view to considering possible future steps to ensure that such persons are held accountable.

On 25 August, in consultations of the whole, the members of the Council, while discussing "Other matters", reached a consensus to respond positively to the proposal of the Secretary-General to establish a United Nations regional office for Central Africa in Libreville, Gabon.

The members of the Council agreed on a press statement of its President on this issue, in which they expressed their outrage at this recent case of mass rape allegedly perpetrated by elements of the Forces démocratiques de libération du Rwanda (FDLR) and Mai Mai. They reiterated their demand that all parties to armed conflict immediately cease completely all forms of sexual violence and all human rights abuses against the civilian population of the Democratic Republic of the Congo, in particular gender-based violence, including rape and other forms of sexual abuse.

The members of the Council recalled that it is of the utmost importance that the Government of the Democratic Republic of the Congo continues to pursue its efforts to fight impunity and called upon the Government of the Democratic Republic of the Congo to swiftly investigate these attacks and ensure that the perpetrators are brought to justice. They welcomed the decision of the Secretary-General to dispatch immediately Assistant Secretary-General Atul Khare to the Democratic Republic of the Congo to consult with relevant national authorities, the Special Representative of the Secretary-General for the Democratic Republic of the Congo and United Nations personnel on the ground, to ascertain to the fullest extent possible the facts and circumstances surrounding this incident and to assess what more could be done in order to ensure more effective protection of civilians. They also welcomed the instruction of the Secretary-General to his Special Representative on Sexual Violence in Conflict, Margot Wallstrom, to coordinate the United Nations response and follow-up on this incident and expressed the intention to be briefed by Mr. Khare and Ms. Wallstrom on their findings. ## Europe

Security Council resolutions 1160 (1998), 1199 (1998), 1203 (1998), 1239 (1999) AND 1244 (1999)

On 3 August, the Council held a debate on Kosovo, during which Special Representative of the Secretary-General and Head of the United Nations Interim Administration Mission in Kosovo (UNMIK) Lamberto Zannier briefed the Council on the situation on the ground and the work of UNMIK. He said that the situation in Kosovo had been relatively stable, although the potential for instability, especially in northern Kosovo, remained. He noted that slow progress towards reconciliation between the communities and the unresolved issues that hampered such reconciliation, coupled with slow economic development, continued to present the risk of social unrest. Touching upon the advisory opinion of the International Court of Justice of 22 July 2010 regarding the unilateral declaration of independence in respect of Kosovo, Mr. Zannier stressed that the United Nations preliminary legal assessment was that the opinion did not affect the status of UNMIK or a status-neutral policy. He also added that the judgment confirmed the applicability of resolution 1244 (1999). Ministers for Foreign Affairs of Serbia Vuk Jeremić and Skender Hyseni of Kosovo addressed the Council. Members of the Council exchanged views on the situation in Kosovo and provided their assessments.

Thematic issues

United Nations peacekeeping operations

On 6 August, the Security Council held an open debate on peacekeeping attended by force commanders of 13 United Nations peacekeeping missions.

The Council was briefed by Under-Secretary-General for Peacekeeping Operations Alain Le Roy, as well as by Lieutenant General Sikander Afzal, Force Commander of the United Nations Mission in Liberia; Lieutenant General Babacar Gaye, outgoing Force Commander of MONUSCO; Major General Moses Bisong Obi, Force Commander of the United Nations Mission in the Sudan; Major General Robert Mood, Head of Mission and Chief of Staff of the United Nations Truce Supervision Organization; and Major General Luiz Guilherme Paul Cruz, Force Commander of the United Nations Stabilization Mission in Haiti. The Force Commanders gave a brief survey of developments concerning their missions, as well as an overview of current deployments. They laid out the challenges ahead and shared lessons learned.

The discussion that followed reaffirmed the importance of in-depth military assessment of the steps taken within the framework of United Nations peacekeeping, and focused on the analysis of “troubled spots” in United Nations peacekeeping activities and on a quest for concrete ways to improve them.

The problem of insufficient resources for peacekeeping operations was highlighted, especially as it tends to aggravate owing to the expanding scope of their tasks, including humanitarian assistance and protection of civilians. Participants expressed a common understanding of the need for adequate training of peacekeeping troops on the basis of uniform standards and coordinated national programmes.

The exchange of views confirmed the practical benefits of a wider feedback between the senior leadership of peacekeeping missions and members of the United Nations Security Council.
