International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination

The General Assembly,

Recalling its previous resolutions on the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination, 1 most recently resolution 63/243 of 24 December 2008,

Bearing in mind the Vienna Declaration and Programme of Action adopted by the World Conference on Human Rights on 25 June 1993,² in particular section II.B of the Declaration, relating to equality, dignity and tolerance,

Reiterating the need to intensify the struggle to eliminate all forms of racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance throughout the world,

Reiterating also the importance of the Convention, which is one of the most widely accepted human rights instruments adopted under the auspices of the United Nations,

Reaffirming that universal adherence to and full implementation of the Convention are of paramount importance for promoting equality and non-discrimination in the world, as stated in the Durban Declaration and Programme of Action adopted by the World Conference against Racism, Racial Discrimination, Xenophobia and Related Intolerance on 8 September 2001,³

³ See A/CONF.189/12 and Corr.1, chap. I.

² A/CONF.157/24 (Part I), chap. III.

Mindful of the importance of the contributions of the Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination to the effective implementation of the Convention and to the efforts of the United Nations to combat racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance,

Emphasizing the obligation of all States parties to the Convention to take legislative, judicial and other measures to secure full implementation of the provisions of the Convention,

Recalling its resolution 47/111 of 16 December 1992, in which it welcomed the decision, taken on 15 January 1992 by the Fourteenth Meeting of States Parties to the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination, to amend paragraph 6 of article 8 of the Convention and to add a new paragraph, as paragraph 7 of article 8, with a view to providing for the financing of the Committee from the regular budget of the United Nations,⁴ and reiterating its deep concern that the amendment to the Convention has not yet entered into force,

Stressing the importance of enabling the Committee to function smoothly and to have all necessary facilities for the effective performance of its functions under the Convention,

Noting that, as regards the biennium 2010-2011, the budgetary requirements related to the requested extension of meeting time will be met from within the approved budgetary provision and those for the biennium 2012-2013 will be dealt with in the context of the proposed programme budget for that biennium,

Noting also the increasing number of requests for more meeting time from the human rights treaty monitoring bodies,

- 4. Expresses its concern at the fact that a great number of reports are overdue and continue to be overdue, in particular initial reports, which constitutes an obstacle to the full implementation of the Convention;
- 5. Encourages States parties to the Convention whose reports are seriously overdue to avail themselves of the advisory services and technical assistance that the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights can provide, upon their request, for the preparation of the reports;
- 6. Also encourages States parties to the Convention to take into account, in their nomination of members to the Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination, that the Committee shall be composed of persons of high moral character, acknowledged impartiality and recognized competence in the field of human rights, consideration being given to the usefulness of the participation of some persons having legal experience and to the equal representation of women and men, and that members shall serve in their personal capacity, and reiterates that, in the elections to the Committee, consideration shall be given to equitable geographical distribution in the membership and to the representation of the different forms of civilization and of the principal legal systems;
- 7. Encourages the Committee to continue to cooperate and exchange information with United Nations bodies and mechanisms, in particular with the Human Rights Council, its Advisory Committee and the Special Rapporteur on contemporary forms of racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance, and with intergovernmental organizations, as well as with non-governmental organizations;
- 8. Encourages States parties to the Convention to continue to include a gender perspective in their reports to the Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination, and invites the Committee to take into account a gender perspective in the implementation of its mandate;
- 9. Calls upon States parties to the Convention to include information on measures to prevent and combat racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance in their national reports to the universal periodic review mechanism of the Human Rights Council, and encourages States parties to the Convention to take into account the relevant recommendations derived therefrom in strengthening the implementation of the Convention;

- 13. Encourages the continued participation of members of the Committee in the annual inter-committee meetings and meetings of chairpersons of the human rights treaty bodies, especially with a view to a more coordinated approach to the activities of the treaty body system and standardized reporting as well as to solving the problem of the backlog of reports of States parties in an effective manner, including by identifying efficiencies and maximizing the use of their resources as well as learning and sharing best practices and experiences in this regard;
- 14. Notes the persistent backlog of reports of States parties awaiting consideration, which prevents the Committee from considering the periodic reports of States parties in a timely manner and without undue delay;
- 15. Recalls the decision by the General Assembly, in its resolution 63/243, to allow the Committee to meet twice a year for four weeks until the end of 2011, and notes the request of the Committee that the Assembly extend the authorization of the per session meeting time starting in 2012;
- 16. Welcomes the evaluation of the use of additional meeting time by the human rights treaty bodies, 9 taking into account a more comprehensive approach to the backlog of human rights treaty bodies and the increasing number of reports of States parties to the human rights conventions prepared by the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights, and stresses its conclusion that the additional meeting time has allowed the Committee to reduce the backlog of reports and that a return to the normal three-week sessions would immediately increase the backlog, which would then have serious consequences for the effectiveness and credibility of the Committee;
- 17. Decides to extend the authorization to the Committee to meet, on a temporary basis, starting from 2012 until the end of 2013, for four weeks per session;
- 18. Requests the Secretary General to submit to the General Assembly at its sixty-sixth session concrete proposals on the human rights treaty monitoring bodies, building on the work of the Secretary-General pursuant to Human Rights Council resolution 9/8¹⁰ of 24 September 2008, to increase their effectiveness and to identify efficiencies in their working methods and costs in order better to manage their workloads and programmes of work, bearing in mind budgetary constraints and taking account of the varying burdens on each Committee;
