1. The Committee of Trustees of the United Nations Trust Fund for South Africa is composed of the following members:

Mr. Anders Ferm (Sweden), Chairman

Major General Joseph N. Garba (Nigeria), Vice-Chairman

Mr. Pedro Daza (Chile)

Mr. Ali Bengelloun (Morocco) a/

Mr. S. Shah Nawaz (Pakistan)

2. Since the date of the last report (A/38/455), the Committee of Trustees has decided on five grants from the Trust Fund for purposes within its terms of reference as laid down in General Assembly resolutions 2397 (XXIII) of 2 December 1968 and 2671 E (XXV) of 8 December 1970 as follows:

3. The Committee has continued to encourage direct contributions to voluntary organizations engaged in providing assistance to the victims of apartheid and racial discrimination in South Africa and Namibia. It has been informed that direct contributions were made to the International Defence and Aid Fund for Southern Africa by the Byelorussian Soviet Socialist Republic, Canada, Czechoslovakia, Denmark, the European Economic Community (EEC), Finland, the German Democratic Republic, the Netherlands, Norway, Sweden, the Syrian Arab Republic, the Ukrainian Soviet Socialist Republic and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics. Denmark and Greece have informed the Committee of Trustees of their direct contributions to the world Council of Churches.

4. During the period under review, the Committee followed with grave anxiety the increasing repression in South Africa in response to resistance to the new racist constitution and peaceful demonstration against rent increases and forced removals or for trade union rights. Scores of people have been killed, hundreds injured and and a large number of opponents of apartheid, including trade unionists, journalists, religious and community leaders, students and conscientious objectors, have been detained or otherwise persecuted throughout South Africa. Political trials have increased and harsh sentences have been imposed on those convicted.

5. In the face of the continued and extensive hardships faced by the opponents of apartheid and their families in South Africa and Namibia, the Committee of Trustees feels that additional efforts should be made to promote greater contributions to the Trust Fund and to voluntary organizations providing assistance to the victims of repressive and discriminatory legislation in South Africa and Namibia.

6. The Committee wishes, once again, to express its appreciation and gratitude to the Secretary-General for his encouragement and assistance. It also wishes to express its appreciation to the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees and to the voluntary organizations concerned for their continued co-operation.
