REPORT OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE ISRAELI PRACTICES
AFFECTING THE HUMAN RIGHTS OF THE POPULATION OF THE OCCUPIED TERRITORIES

Report of the Secretary-General

1. At its thirty-eighth session, the General Assembly adopted resolutions 38/79 A to H of 15 December 1983 concerning the report of the Special Committee to Investigate Israeli Practices Affecting the Human Rights of the Population of the Occupied Territories (A/38/409). In paragraph 17 of resolution 38/79 D, the Assembly requested the Secretary-General:

"(a) To provide all necessary facilities to the Special Committee, including those required for its visits to the occupied territories, with a view to investigating the Israeli policies and practices referred to in the present resolution;

"(b) To continue to make available additional staff as may be necessary to assist the Special Committee in the performance of its tasks;

"(c) To ensure the widest circulation of the reports of the Special Committee, and of information regarding its activities and findings, by all means available through the Department of Public Information of the Secretariat and, where necessary, to reprint those reports of the Special Committee which are no longer available;

"(d) To report to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session on the tasks entrusted to him in the present paragraph."

2. The present report is submitted in accordance with paragraph 17 of resolution 38/79 D.

3. The Secretary-General continued, as in previous years, to provide the facilities required by the Special Committee. In response to the request addressed to him by the General Assembly in paragraph 17 (b) of resolution 38/79 D, the services of an additional staff member and of staff on temporary assistance were made available to assist the Special Committee.

4. In response to paragraph 17 (c) and (d) of General Assembly resolution 38/79 D, the Department of Public Information of the Secretariat undertook the following activities to ensure the widest circulation of the reports of the Special Committee to Investigate Israeli Practices Affecting the Human Rights of the Population of the Occupied Territories.

5. Coverage was given in press releases, in English and French, of the activities of the Special Committee in Geneva, Amman and Damascus. Consideration of the Committee's report by the Commission on Human Rights and the General Assembly was reported in press releases as well as in the first two issues of 1984 of the UN Chronicle. The 1984 Yearbook of the United Nations will also report on the activities of the Special Committee.

6. Radio coverage continued to be given to the activities of the Special Committee in news programmes broadcast on short wave and in some feature programmes distributed on tape. Television and video coverage of the activities of the Special Committee in the form of video feeds, regional magazines, interviews, statements and news packages, was provided to news syndicates and other interested news broadcasters.

7. Copies of the report of the Special Committee and of the pertinent resolution of the General Assembly were sent to all United Nations information centres for wide dissemination.
