Eighteenth session

Agenda item 10

Technical assistance and capacity-building

South Sudan*, Senegal (on behalf of the African Group): revised draft resolution

18/... Technical assistance and capacity-building for South Sudan in the field of human rights

The Human Rights Council,

Welcoming the Republic of South Sudan as a new State and member of the United Nations,

Guided by the Charter of the United Nations, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the African Charter on Human and People's Rights and relevant human rights treaties,

Reaffirming that all States are bound to promote and protect human rights and fundamental freedoms as enshrined in the Charter of the United Nations, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the International Covenants on Human Rights and international human rights treaties to which they are a party,

Welcoming the commitment of the Government of South Sudan to promote and respect human rights and fundamental freedoms,

Reaffirming that States have the primary responsibility for the promotion and protection of human rights,

Recalling the reports of the Special Rapporteur and the independent expert on the situation of human rights in the Sudan, and the findings and recommendations contained therein;

1. Welcomes the establishment of the Republic of South Sudan on 9 July 2011 upon its proclamation as an independent State;

2. Also welcomes the commitments made by the Government of South Sudan to strengthen national mechanisms of promotion and protection of human rights, and calls on the Government to implement those commitments;

* Non-Member State of the Human Rights Council.

3. Calls upon the Government of South Sudan to strengthen ongoing cooperation with the United Nations Mission in South Sudan on issues pertaining to the promotion and protection of human rights, and calls upon all parties to make every effort to prevent violence;

4. Encourages the international community to provide the Government of South Sudan with technical and financial assistance and to support its efforts to promote and protect human rights;

5. Invites the Office of the United High Commissioner for Human Rights, in collaboration with the Government of South Sudan, to identify and assess areas of assistance and to assist the Government in its efforts to promote and protect human rights;

6. Calls upon States Members of the United Nations, in the framework of international cooperation, relevant United Nations agencies and international financial institutions, to provide the Government of South Sudan, upon its request, with appropriate technical assistance and capacity-building to promote respect for human rights;

7. Requests the Office of the High Commissioner to present a report on the implementation of the present resolution to the Human Rights Council at its twentieth session;

8. Decides to remain seized of the matter.
