In accordance with rule 72 of the rules of procedure, representatives of the States parties shall be invited to attend the meetings of the Committee when their reports are examined. Representatives should be able to answer questions put to them by the Committee and make statements on reports already submitted by their States, and may also submit further information.

In accordance with rule 72 of the Committee's rules of procedure, the Secretary-General has notified the States parties concerned of the opening date, duration and place of the sixty-second session of the Committee, at which their respective reports will be examined, and has invited them to send representatives to attend these meetings of the Committee.

5. Cooperation with other United Nations bodies, specialized agencies and other competent bodies

Under this item, the Committee will pursue its discussion on how its cooperation with various relevant bodies could be further strengthened to enhance the promotion and protection of the rights of the child.

6. Methods of work of the Committee and treaty-body strengthening

Under this item, the Committee will pursue its discussion concerning the organization of its future work, as well as the procedure to be followed in the consideration of reports by States parties and their follow-up. In particular, the Committee will continue its work on the development of the rules of procedure regarding the implementation of the newly adopted Optional Protocol to the Convention on a communications procedure. Additionally, the Committee will continue its discussion on issues related to its methods of work, including the format and content of the Committee's concluding observations, following recommendations from its June 2012 retreat in Sion, Switzerland. The Committee will also discuss the work done by its newly appointed focal group on the treaty-body strengthening process. With respect to the latter, the Committee will have at its disposal the report of the High Commissioner for Human Rights on the strengthening of the United Nations human rights treaty bodies (A/66/860).

7. Days of general discussion

Under this item, the Committee decided at its sixty-first session that the theme of the 2013 day of general discussion will be “Media, social networks and the rights of the child”. The day of general discussion will be held during the sixty-fourth session at Palais des Nations, Geneva, on 27 September 2013.

8. General comments

Under this item, the Committee will continue to draft general comments based on the various principles and provisions of the Convention, more specifically on article 3, the principle of the best interests of the child; article 31, the right to play; article 24, the right to health; and on business and children’s rights; as well as continue work on the draft joint general comment on harmful practices which is being developed with the Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women.

9. Future sessions

Under this item, the Committee will be informed of any developments relating to the schedule of its future sessions.

10. Other matters

Under this item, members will discuss any other matters relating to the work of the Committee as considered necessary. In particular, the Committee will discuss the treaty body strengthening process.
