Each Seminar participant was assigned to one of them. Three members of the Commission, Ms. Concepción Escobar Hernandez, Mr. Sean D. Each participant was presented with a certificate attesting to his or her participation in the forty-seventh session of the Seminar.
11. The Commission noted with particular appreciation that since 2010 the Governments of Austria, China, Finland, India, Ireland, Sweden, and Switzerland had made voluntary contributions to the United Nations Trust Fund for the International Law Seminar. The financial situation of the Fund allowed awarding a sufficient number of fellowships to deserving candidates especially from developing countries in order to achieve adequate geographical distribution of participants. This year, fellowships (travel and subsistence allowance) were awarded to 15 candidates.

12. Since 1965, year of the Seminar inception, 1,093 participants, representing 170 nationalities, have taken part in the Seminar. Of them, 669 have received a fellowship.

13. The Commission stresses the importance it attaches to the Seminar, which enables young lawyers, especially from developing countries, to familiarize themselves with the work of the Commission and the activities of the many International Organizations, which have their headquarters in Geneva. The Commission recommends that the General Assembly should again appeal to States to make voluntary contributions in order to secure the holding of the Seminar in 2013 with as broad participation as possible.

14. The Commission noted with satisfaction that in 2012 comprehensive interpretation services were made available to the Seminar. It expresses the hope that the same services will be provided at the next session of 2013, within existing resources.
