10. Appeals to Governments, the relevant bodies of the United Nations system, organizations, institutions and individuals to make voluntary contributions to the Trust Fund established to provide travel assistance to developing countries that are members of the Commission, at their request and in consultation with the Secretary-General, in order to enable renewal of the provision of that assistance and to increase expert representation from developing countries at sessions of the Commission and its working groups, necessary to build local expertise and capacities in those countries to put in place a regulatory and enabling environment for business, trade and investment;

11. Decides, in order to ensure full participation of all Member States in the sessions of the Commission and its working groups, to continue, in the competent Main Committee during the sixty-eighth session of the General Assembly, its consideration of granting travel assistance to the least developed countries that are members of the Commission, at their request and in consultation with the Secretary-General;

12. Endorses the conviction of the Commission that the implementation and effective use of modern private law standards in international trade are essential for advancing good governance, sustained economic development and the eradication of poverty and hunger and that the promotion of the rule of law in commercial relations should be an integral part of the broader agenda of the United Nations to promote the rule of law at the national and international levels, including through the Rule of Law Coordination and Resource Group, supported by the Rule of Law Unit in the Executive Office of the Secretary-General;

13. Notes the rule of law panel discussion held at the forty-sixth session of the Commission and the comments transmitted by the Commission highlighting its role in promoting the rule of law and the peaceful settlement of international disputes through its work in the areas of arbitration and conciliation, transparency in investor-State dispute resolution and online dispute resolution and its work towards achieving universal accession to, and the effective implementation and uniform interpretation and application of, the New York Convention;<sup>15</sup>

14. Notes with satisfaction that, in paragraph 8 of the declaration of the high-level meeting of the General Assembly on the rule of law at the national and international levels, adopted by consensus as resolution 67/1 of 24 September 2012, Member States recognized the importance of fair, stable and predictable legal frameworks for generating inclusive, sustainable and equitable development, economic growth and employment, generating investment and facilitating entrepreneurship and, in this regard, commended the work of the Commission in modernizing and harmonizing international trade law and that, in paragraph 7 of the declaration, Member States expressed their conviction that the rule of law and development were strongly interrelated and mutually reinforcing;

15. Reiterates its request to the Secretary-General, in conformity with resolutions of the General Assembly on documentation-related matters,<sup>16</sup> which, in particular, emphasize that any invitation to limit, where appropriate, the length of documents should not adversely affect either the quality of the presentation or the substance of the documents, to bear in mind the particular characteristics of the mandate and functions of the Commission in the progressive development and codification of international trade law when implementing page limits with respect to the documentation of the Commission;<sup>17</sup>

16. Requests the Secretary-General to continue the publication of Commission standards and the provision of summary records of the meetings of the Commission, including committees of the whole established by the Commission for the duration of its annual session, relating to the formulation of normative texts, and takes note of the Commission's decision to continue the trial use of digital recordings, in parallel with summary records where applicable, with a view to assessing at its forty-seventh session, in 2014, the experience of using digital recordings and, on the basis of that assessment, taking a decision regarding the possible replacement of summary records by digital recordings;<sup>18</sup>

17. Recalls paragraph 48 of its resolution 66/246 of 24 December 2011 regarding the rotation scheme of meetings between Vienna and New York;

18. Notes with appreciation the work of the Secretariat on the system for the collection and dissemination of case law on Commission texts in the six official languages of the United Nations (the CLOUT system), notes the resource-intensive nature of the system, acknowledges the need for further resources to sustain and expand it, and in this regard welcomes efforts by the Secretariat towards building partnerships with interested institutions, and appeals to Governments, the relevant bodies of the United Nations system, organizations, institutions and individuals to assist the secretariat of the Commission in raising awareness as to the availability and usefulness of the CLOUT system in professional, academic and judiciary circles and in securing the funding required for the coordination and expansion of the system and the establishment, within the secretariat of the Commission, of a pillar focused on the promotion of ways and means of interpreting Commission texts in a uniform manner;

19. Stresses the importance of promoting the use of texts emanating from the work of the Commission for the global unification and harmonization of international trade law, and to this end urges States that have not yet done so to consider signing, ratifying or acceding to conventions, enacting model laws and encouraging the use of other relevant texts;

20. Welcomes the continued work of the Secretariat on digests of case law related to Commission texts, including their wide dissemination, as well as the continuing increase in the number of abstracts available through the CLOUT system, in view of the role of the digests and the CLOUT system as important tools for the promotion of the uniform interpretation of international trade law, in particular by

Revision of the Guide to Enactment of the Model Law on
Cross-Border Insolvency and part four of the Legislative Guide
on Insolvency Law of the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law

A. Revision of the Guide to Enactment of the Model Law on Cross-Border Insolvency

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 2205 (XXI) of 17 December 1966, by which it established the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law with a mandate to further the progressive harmonization and unification of the law of international trade and in that respect to bear in mind the interests of all peoples, in particular those of developing countries, in the extensive development of international trade,

Recalling also its resolution 52/158 of 15 December 1997, in which it recommended the use of the Model Law on Cross-Border Insolvency of the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law, contained in the annex thereto,

Noting that legislation based upon the Model Law on Cross-Border Insolvency has been enacted in some 20 States,

Noting also the widespread increase in the incidence of cross-border insolvency proceedings and, accordingly, the growing opportunities for use and application of the Model Law on Cross-Border Insolvency in cross-border insolvency proceedings and the development of international jurisprudence interpreting its provisions,

Noting further that courts frequently have reference to the Guide to Enactment of the Model Law on Cross-Border Insolvency for guidance on the background to the drafting and interpretation of its provisions,

Recognizing that some uncertainty with respect to the interpretation of certain provisions of the Model Law on Cross-Border Insolvency has emerged in the jurisprudence arising from its application in practice,

Convinced of the desirability, in the interpretation of those provisions, of regard to the international origin of the Model Law on Cross-Border Insolvency and the need to promote uniformity in its application,

Convinced also of the desirability of providing additional guidance through revision of the Guide to Enactment of the Model Law on Cross-Border Insolvency with respect to the interpretation and application of selected aspects of the Model Law to facilitate uniform interpretation,

1. Expresses its appreciation to the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law for revising the Guide to Enactment of the Model Law on Cross-Border Insolvency;

2. Requests the Secretary-General to publish, including electronically, the text of the Guide to Enactment and Interpretation of the Model Law on Cross-Border Insolvency, together with the text of the Model Law on Cross-Border Insolvency,<sup>1</sup> and to transmit it to Governments and interested bodies, so that it becomes widely known and available;

3. Recommends that the Guide to Enactment and Interpretation of the Model Law on Cross-Border Insolvency be given due consideration, as appropriate, by legislators, policymakers, judges, insolvency practitioners and other individuals concerned with cross-border insolvency laws and proceedings;

4. Also recommends that all States continue to consider implementation of the Model Law on Cross-Border Insolvency, and invites States that have enacted legislation based upon the Model Law to advise the Commission accordingly.

B. Part four of the Legislative Guide on Insolvency Law

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 2205 (XXI) of 17 December 1966, by which it established the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law with a mandate to further the progressive harmonization and unification of the law of international trade and in that respect to bear in mind the interests of all peoples, in particular those of developing countries, in the extensive development of international trade,

Recalling also its resolutions 59/40 of 2 December 2004, in which it recommended the use of the Legislative Guide on Insolvency Law of the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law,<sup>2</sup> and 65/24 of 6 December 2010, in which it recommended the use of part three of the Guide, on the treatment of enterprise groups in insolvency,

Considering that effective insolvency regimes, in addition to providing a predictable legal process for addressing the financial difficulties of troubled enterprises and the necessary framework for their efficient reorganization or orderly liquidation, should also permit an examination to be made of the circumstances giving rise to insolvency and, in particular, of the conduct of directors of such an enterprise in the period before insolvency proceedings commence,

Noting that the Legislative Guide, while addressing the obligations of directors of an enterprise once insolvency proceedings commence, does not address the conduct of directors in the period approaching insolvency and the obligations that might be applicable to directors in that period,

Considering that the provision of incentives for directors to take timely action to address the effects of financial distress experienced by an enterprise may be key to its successful reorganization or liquidation and that such incentives should be part of an effective insolvency regime,

1. Expresses its appreciation to the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law for developing and adopting part four of the Legislative Guide on Insolvency Law, addressing the obligations of directors of an enterprise in the period approaching the insolvency of that enterprise;<sup>3</sup>

2. Requests the Secretary-General to publish, including electronically, the text of part four of the Legislative Guide and to transmit it to Governments and other interested bodies;

3. Recommends that all States utilize the Legislative Guide to assess the economic efficiency of their insolvency law regimes and give favourable consideration to the Guide when revising or adopting legislation relevant to insolvency, and invites States that have used the Guide to advise the Commission accordingly.

Draft resolution III

United Nations Commission on International Trade Law Guide on the Implementation of a Security Rights Registry

The General Assembly,

Recognizing the importance to all States of efficient secured transactions regimes in promoting access to affordable secured credit,

Recognizing also that access to affordable secured credit is likely to assist all countries, in particular developing countries and countries with economies in transition, in their efforts to achieve economic growth, sustainable development, the rule of law and financial inclusion,

Recalling its resolution 63/121 of 11 December 2008, in which it recommended that all States give favourable consideration to the Legislative Guide on Secured Transactions of the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law<sup>1</sup> when revising or adopting legislation relevant to secured transactions,

Recognizing that an efficient secured transactions regime with a publicly accessible security rights registry of the kind recommended in the Legislative Guide on Secured Transactions is likely to increase access to affordable secured credit,

Noting with satisfaction that the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law Guide on the Implementation of a Security Rights Registry<sup>2</sup> is consistent with and usefully supplements the Legislative Guide on Secured Transactions and that the two Guides, together, will provide comprehensive guidance to States with respect to legal and practical issues that need to be addressed when implementing a modern secured transactions regime,

Noting that secured transactions law reform could not be effectively implemented without the establishment of an efficient, publicly accessible security rights registry where information about the potential existence of a security right in movable assets may be registered and that States urgently need guidance with respect to the establishment and operation of such registries,

Taking into account that the harmonization of national security rights registries on the basis of the Guide on the Implementation of a Security Rights Registry is likely to increase the availability of credit across national borders and thus facilitate the development of international trade, which, if achieved on the basis of equality and mutual benefit to all States, is an important element in promoting friendly relations among States,

Expressing its appreciation to intergovernmental and international non governmental organizations active in the field of secured transactions law reform for their participation in and support for the development of the Guide on the Implementation of a Security Rights Registry,

1. Expresses its appreciation to the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law for the completion and adoption of the Guide on the Implementation of a Security Rights Registry;<sup>2</sup>

2. Requests the Secretary-General to publish the Guide on the Implementation of a Security Rights Registry, including through electronic means, and to disseminate it broadly to Governments and other interested bodies such as national and international financial institutions and chambers of commerce;

3. Recommends that all States give favourable consideration to the Guide on the Implementation of a Security Rights Registry when revising relevant legislation, administrative regulations or guidelines and to the Legislative Guide on Secured Transactions of the Commission<sup>1</sup> when revising or adopting legislation relevant to secured transactions, and invites States that have used the Guides to advise the Commission accordingly;

4. Also recommends that all States continue to consider becoming parties to the United Nations Convention on the Assignment of Receivables in International Trade,<sup>3</sup> the principles of which are reflected in the Legislative Guide on Secured Transactions and the optional annex to which refers to the registration of data with regard to assignments.

Transparency in Treaty-based Investor-State Arbitration and Arbitration Rules (as revised in 2010, with new article 1, paragraph 4, as adopted in 2013)

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 2205 (XXI) of 17 December 1966, by which it established the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law with a mandate to further the progressive harmonization and unification of the law of international trade and in that respect to bear in mind the interests of all peoples, in particular those of developing countries, in the extensive development of international trade,

Recognizing the value of arbitration as a method of settling disputes that may arise in the context of international relations and the wide use of arbitration for the settlement of treaty-based investor-State disputes,

Recalling its resolutions 31/98 of 15 December 1976 and 65/22 of 6 December 2010, in which it recommended the use of the Arbitration Rules of the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law,<sup>1</sup>

Bearing in mind that the Arbitration Rules are widely used for the settlement of treaty-based investor-State disputes,

Recognizing the need for provisions on transparency in the settlement of such treaty-based investor-State disputes to take account of the public interest involved in such arbitrations,

Believing that rules on transparency in treaty-based investor-State arbitration would contribute significantly to the establishment of a harmonized legal framework for a fair and efficient settlement of international investment disputes, increase transparency and accountability and promote good governance,

Noting that the Commission, at its forty-sixth session, adopted the Rules on Transparency in Treaty-based Investor-State Arbitration<sup>2</sup> and amended the Arbitration Rules as revised in 2010 to include, in a new article 1, paragraph 4, a reference to the Rules on Transparency,<sup>3</sup>

Noting also that the Rules on Transparency are available for use in investor-State arbitrations initiated under rules other than the Arbitration Rules or in ad hoc proceedings,

Noting further that the preparation of the Rules on Transparency was the subject of due deliberation in the Commission and that they benefited from consultations with Governments and interested intergovernmental and international non-governmental organizations,

2. Requests the Secretary-General to publish, including electronically, and disseminate broadly the text of the Rules on Transparency, both together with the Arbitration Rules (as revised in 2010, with new article 1, paragraph 4, as adopted in 2013) and as a stand-alone text, and to transmit them to Governments and organizations interested in the field of dispute settlement;

3. Recommends the use of the Rules on Transparency in relation to the settlement of investment disputes within the scope of their application as defined in article 1 of the Rules, and invites Member States that have chosen to include the Rules in their treaties to inform the Commission accordingly;

4. Also recommends that, subject to any provision in relevant treaties that may require a higher degree of transparency than that provided in the Rules on Transparency, the Rules be applied through appropriate mechanisms to investor-State arbitration initiated pursuant to treaties providing for the protection of investors or investments concluded before the date of coming into effect of the Rules, to the extent that such application is consistent with those treaties.
