Consejo de Derechos Humanos

27º período de sesiones

Tema 1 del programa

Cuestiones de organización y de procedimiento

Elección de miembros del Comité Asesor del Consejo de Derechos Humanos

Nota del Secretario General*

1. Conforme a la resolución 5/1 del Consejo de Derechos Humanos, los miembros del Comité Asesor del Consejo de Derechos Humanos, compuesto por 18 expertos que actúan a título personal y cuyas candidaturas son propuestas por los Estados Miembros de las Naciones Unidas tras la celebración de consultas con sus instituciones nacionales de derechos humanos y con organizaciones de la sociedad civil, serán elegidos por el Consejo, en votación secreta, de la lista de candidatos que se hayan propuesto con arreglo a los requisitos acordados.
2. La distribución geográfica de los miembros será la siguiente: a) 5 de Estados de África; b) 5 de Estados de Asia; c) 2 de Estados de Europa Oriental; d) 3 de Estados de América Latina y el Caribe; y e) 3 de Estados de Europa Occidental y otros Estados.
3. En su séptimo período de sesiones, el Consejo de Derechos Humanos eligió a los 18 miembros del Comité Asesor, 4 de ellos por un mandato de un año, 7 por un mandato de dos años y 7 por un mandato de tres años.
4. En su 16º período de sesiones, el Consejo de Derechos Humanos reeligió por un segundo período de tres años a 2 miembros y eligió a 4 nuevos miembros del Comité Asesor. Según lo dispuesto en la decisión 18/121 del Consejo, el mandato de los 7 miembros finalizará el 30 de septiembre de 2014.
5. En su 27º período de sesiones, de conformidad con su programa de trabajo anual, el Consejo de Derechos Humanos elegirá a los miembros del Comité Asesor que ocuparán los 7 puestos vacantes. De las 7 vacantes, 2 son para los Estados de África y 2 para los Estados de Asia, y hay 1 vacante para los Estados de Europa Oriental, 1 para los Estados de América Latina y el Caribe y otra para los Estados de Europa Occidental y otros Estados.

* La información contenida en el anexo del presente documento se distribuye como se recibió, únicamente en el idioma en que se presentó.

6. En su sexto período de sesiones, el Consejo de Derechos Humanos aprobó la decisión 6/102 sobre el seguimiento de su resolución 5/1, en la que expuso los requisitos técnicos y objetivos para la presentación de candidaturas, que incluyen: a) competencia y experiencia reconocidas en la esfera de los derechos humanos; b) gran integridad moral; y c) independencia e imparcialidad.

7. Al seleccionar a los candidatos, los Estados deben aplicar las siguientes directrices sobre los requisitos técnicos y objetivos para la presentación de sus candidatos:

a) Competencia y experiencia:

i) Estudios académicos en derechos humanos o esferas conexas y/o experiencia y conocimiento de las funciones de liderazgo en materia de derechos humanos a nivel nacional, regional o internacional;

ii) Experiencia sustancial (por lo menos cinco años) y contribuciones personales en la esfera de los derechos humanos;

iii) Será preferible que el candidato tenga conocimientos del sistema de las Naciones Unidas y de los mandatos y las políticas institucionales relacionados con la labor en la esfera de los derechos humanos, así como conocimiento de los instrumentos, las normas y las disciplinas internacionales relativos a los derechos humanos y familiaridad con los distintos ordenamientos jurídicos y las distintas culturas;

iv) Dominio de por lo menos uno de los idiomas oficiales de las Naciones Unidas;

v) Tiempo suficiente para cumplir la labor del Comité Asesor de manera efectiva, asistiendo a sus períodos de sesiones y desarrollando las actividades encomendadas entre períodos de sesiones;

b) Gran integridad moral;

c) Independencia e imparcialidad: quedarán excluidas las personas que ocupen cargos de decisión en gobiernos o en cualquier organización o entidad que pudieren dar lugar a un conflicto de intereses con las responsabilidades inherentes al mandato; los miembros elegidos del Comité Asesor actuarán a título personal;

d) Otras consideraciones: se respetará el principio de no acumulación simultánea de funciones de derechos humanos.

8. Al elegir a los miembros del Comité Asesor, el Consejo de Derechos Humanos prestará la debida atención al equilibrio de género y a una adecuada representación de las diferentes culturas y sistemas jurídicos.

9. De conformidad con el párrafo 71 de la resolución 5/1 del Consejo de Derechos Humanos, la lista de candidatos se cerrará dos meses antes de la fecha de la elección, y la Secretaría pondrá dicha lista y la información pertinente a disposición de los Estados Miembros y del público por lo menos un mes antes de la elección.

10. El 16 de abril de 2014, la Secretaría del Consejo de Derechos Humanos dirigió una nota verbal a los coordinadores regionales interesados para alentar a la presentación de propuestas de candidaturas, y los informó de que la fecha límite para la presentación de candidaturas era el 16 de junio de 2014, fecha que posteriormente se aplazó¹.

¹ En la presente nota se han incluido todas las candidaturas recibidas al 27 de junio de 2014. Toda candidatura adicional que se reciba se incluirá en una adición.

11. Al 27 de junio de 2014, la Secretaría había recibido seis candidaturas para la elección de 2014 a los puestos de miembro del Comité Asesor, procedentes de los Gobiernos de Francia, Guatemala, Marruecos, Nigeria, el Pakistán y la República de Corea.

Mr. Ahmer Bilal Soofi

(Nominated by the Government of Pakistan)

Personal data:

Name: Ahmer Bilal Soofi
Date of Birth: 25 November 1962
Nationality: Pakistani
Marital Status: Married
Email Address: ahmersoofi@hotmail.com, ahmersoofi@absco.pk

Mr. Soofi is a leading lawyer from Pakistan practicing before the Supreme Court and is also a senior partner of law firm with offices in both Lahore and Islamabad. He served as Federal Minister for Law, Justice & Parliamentary Affairs and Human Rights during caretaker setup in 2013. He is also the founding President of Research Society of International Law, the only think tank of international law in Pakistan that is dedicated to activities for lawyers, journalists and Government officials for improving capacity and awareness about legal commitments of Pakistan under various treaties and conventions.

Mr Soofi acted as an expert from Pakistan and to provide country report that became part of the ICRC Customary Study on IHL. He has done extensive work for improving legislation in Pakistan relating to HR and IHL. In this regard Mr. Soofi and his team carried out a one volume comprehensive comparison of Pakistan's entire legislation with the Geneva Conventions, Additional Protocols and the Rome Statute. He also supervised preparation of a ratification memo for the ICCPR containing comparison of Pakistan's domestic legislation with the provisions of the ICCPR that formed one of the basis to ratify the ICCPR by the Government. Likewise, his work on CAT and its legislative comparison was considered by the Government when ratifying CAT. More recently, he has advised the Government on the Child Rights Convention. He has also advised the Government on the legal aspects of the country report from Pakistan on UNSC Resolution 1540. He has also advised the Government of Pakistan on the implementing legislation relating to BWC and CWC.

Mr Soofi negotiated in seven successive sessions of the UNGA Adhoc Committee on behalf of G-77 and Pakistan, the UN Convention on Corruption and several of his suggestions received support from negotiating states and were eventually incorporated in the text of the Convention. He was appointed Chair of several working groups. Mr. Soofi was also made member of the 14 member Consistency Group to review the language of the entire Convention. Later he was made member of the Experts Group to prepare implementing guidelines for the UN Convention. He has been a member of a UNODC Experts Group on Terrorism relating to interpretation of offences contained in UNSC Resolution 1373.

Mr Soofi is invited frequently to lecture on various aspects of international law issues relating to Pakistan at the National Defense College Islamabad, Command and Staff College Quetta, National Management School Lahore. He remained a visiting Professor of International Law at the Punjab University for over 10 years. His 45 lecture series on international law are recorded by the virtual university as a offered course. Mr. Soofi was also commissioned as an examiner for a Phd work by the University of Trento, Italy. Mr. Soofi has also delivered talks and lectures at venues like International Development Law Organization Rome, Regional Centre for Strategic Studies, Sri Lanka, Shanghai University China, Fletcher School USA and Royal United Institute, London.

Mr. Soofi is member of the Board of Governors of World Wide Fund for Nature Pakistan (WWF). He has represented the civil society before important public interest litigation before the Supreme Court and obtained injunctive orders preventing de-frostation in important national parks of Pakistan.

Mr. Soofi is the author of over 100 articles and comments printed in leading newspapers and journals of Pakistan. He is frequently invited by electronic and print media for expert comments on international law issues.
