ANNEX

Outline for the elaboration of the international development strategy for the fourth United Nations development decade

I. PREAMBLE

Review of the 1980s and prospects for the 1990s, with a view to adopting a flexible economic framework for growth and development for the 1990s, taking into account the results of the special session of the General Assembly devoted to international economic co-operation, in particular to the revitalization of economic growth and development of the developing countries.

II. GOALS AND OBJECTIVES

To promote the development of developing countries in the context of the strengthening of global development.

III. POLICIES AND MEASURES

The strategy should focus on national efforts in all countries and on international co-operation for the 1990s.

The strategy should address, inter alia:

(a) Reactivation and acceleration of broad durable economic growth and development, including:

External debt;

International trade and commodities;

Technology;

Industrial policies; food and agricultural policies;

Economic policy frameworks;

(b) Priority aspects of development:

Eradication of poverty and hunger;

Human resources and institutional development;

Population;

Environment;

Food and agriculture;

(c) The need to take account of different requirements, situations and problems, including those of the least developed countries;

(d) Development financing.
