ANNEX

Statement dated 30 August 1989 issued at the conclusion of the International Conference on Cambodia, Paris,
30 July to 30 August 1989

At the invitation of the Government of France and under the Co-Chairmanship of His Excellency Roland Dumas, Foreign Minister of France, and His Excellency Ali Alatas, Foreign Minister of Indonesia, the International Conference on Cambodia met in Paris from 30 July to 30 August 1989. Participating in the Conference were the representatives of Australia, Brunei Darussalam, Cambodia, Canada, China, France, India, Indonesia, Japan, the Lao People's Democratic Republic, Malaysia, the Philippines, Singapore, Thailand, the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, the United States of America, Viet Nam and Zimbabwe, in its capacity as current Chairman of the Non-Aligned Movement. Cambodia was represented by the four Cambodian parties. The Secretary-General of the United Nations and his representatives also participated in the Conference.

The Conference, mindful of the previous efforts made at the Jakarta Informal Meetings and elsewhere, achieved progress in elaborating a wide variety of elements necessary for the reaching of a comprehensive settlement to the tragic conflict in Cambodia. The Conference noted, however, that it is not yet possible to achieve a comprehensive settlement. It was therefore decided to suspend the Conference.

The Conference urges all parties concerned to intensify their efforts to achieve a comprehensive settlement. To facilitate these efforts, the Co-Presidents of the Conference shall lend their good offices as required to participating parties and countries who can facilitate a comprehensive settlement, including the reconvening of the Committees as appropriate.

The Co-Presidents will begin consultations within six months with the participants in the Conference with a view to reconvening the Conference.

The Government of France expressed its readiness to make the appropriate arrangements to reconvene the Conference in due time in Paris.

The Indonesian Co-President and all the participants expressed their sincere appreciation and deep gratitude to the Government and people of France for hosting this important Conference and the excellent arrangements made, as well as for their generous hospitality extended to all delegations.
