HUMAN RIGHTS COMMITTEE

Fifteenth session

SUMMARY RECORDS OF THE 334th TO 359th MEETINGS

Held at Headquarters, New York, from 22 March to 8 April 1982

Corrigendum

PUBLIC MEETINGS

This corrigendum contains corrections made by members of the Human Rights Committee and the Secretariat to the English text of the summary records of the public meetings held by the Committee during its fifteenth session (CCPR/C/SR.334, 338, 340, 342, 343, 344, 345, 346, 348, 349, 351, 353-357 and 359).

The Committee also held 10 closed meetings during the session. The summary records of those meetings (CCPR/C/SR.335-337, 339, 341, 344/Add.1, 347, 350, 352 and 358) were issued for restricted distribution. The corrections to the summary records of the closed meetings appear in document CCPR/C/SR.334-359/Corrigendum/Add.1.

With the issuance of the corrigenda (CCPR/C/SR.334-359/Corrigendum and Add.1), the summary records of the meetings held by the Committee during its fifteenth session are to be considered final.

78. He proposed that a decision under the new rule should be referred to as a "provisional decision on admissibility" to distinguish it from other types of decision under rule 91. The Committee would have to establish a time-limit for the State party concerned to object to the admissibility of the communication: that might be, say, three months from the date of submission to it of the provisional decision. The six-month period under article 4, paragraph 2, of the Optional Protocol would run from the date of transmission of the provisional decision to the State party, unless the latter objected to the admissibility of the communication, in which case the six-month period would begin only after the Committee had reached a positive decision on the preliminary issue of admissibility which would then arise.

40. The Committee should not try to distort the reporting procedure into a supervisory function going far beyond the procedure envisaged under article 41 of the Covenant or under the Optional Protocol. The obligation of States parties under article 40 to submit reports clearly related to rights in force; it did not extend to temporarily suspended rights, to rights from which, under article 4, States had derogated.

353rd meeting
